The Greatest Lie Ever Told

We have heard it all before, haven't we? Those who are not Saved by the Blood of Christ are doomed to suffer in agony for all of Eternity, and beyond. No do-overs. No Second Chances. It sucks to be... them. Certain phrases describing this horrific fate have been burned into the minds of Christians, and even non-Christians, for thousands of years now.

Eternal Fire

Eternal Damnation

Everlasting Punishment

Lake of Fire

Hell Fire

Torments

Eternal Fire. Eternal Damnation. Torments. Hell Fire. Lake of Fire. Everlasting Punishment, and so-on. These grim, and even terrifying descriptions, are indeed found in the King James Bible. And, to the untrained eye, it would seem that we have an open and shut case as to what the final fate of those who are not saved will be. When looking at these combinations of words, without any context whatsoever, it is not surprising that the average Christian believes, and teaches, that there is absolutely no hope whatsoever for these poor unfortunate Souls to ever become Saved and go to Heaven.

Don't even THINK about it!

In other words, beliefs such as Reincarnation for example, are completely and totally out of the question. The mere mention of Reincarnation in any kind of Christian discussion is almost always met with great anger and disdain. So ingrained is this dogma of no Salvation for the Unserved, that it is nearly impossible to have any kind of civilized debate on this topic. Cognitive Dissonance takes over. The terrible consequence of this, is that the Christian Community remains hopelessly ignorant to the greatest example of Love in any religious belief on the planet.

1st John 4:8

“He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.”

“He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.” - 1st John 4:8. How much plainer could God have made it? God is Love. Period. The verse is simple, and to the point. And it is in this context that we must interpret Scripture. God is also merciful and slow to anger.

Psalms 145:8

*“The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion;
slow to anger, and of great mercy.”*

“The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.” - Psalms 145:8. Once again we have another Witness to this testimony. In fact, there are many verses like this all throughout the Bible.

Psalms 145:8

*“The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion;
slow to anger, and of great mercy.”*

But wait. If God really is Love and full of Mercy, then why would he torment someone for all of Eternity? Is this not a glaring contradiction? What is going on here? Something is just not adding up, and the world is waking up to this fact.

Reincarnation

Eternal Fire

Eternal Damnation

Everlasting Punishment

Lake of Fire

Hell Fire

Torments

That is because the Church made the unfortunate decision long ago to hide the Truth of Hell, and the Lake of Fire, from the entire world. It is now time to set the record straight. In this presentation, we will prove beyond a shadow of a doubt that Reincarnation is not only Biblical, but one of the most important themes of the Bible. What we will discover is that certain verses and phrases, such as the ones presented here, are in fact misinterpreted by the Church, and used in a very deceitful manner. Is there an agenda of creating fear in the minds of people to control and manipulate them? Perhaps. One thing is certain, however. This great deception must not be allowed to continue. Truth must prevail.

Reincarnation

Eternal Fire

Eternal Damnation

Everlasting Punishment

Lake of Fire

Hell Fire

Torments

Once we determine the actual, Biblical interpretation of these Hellish descriptions, we will discover that they all point to the same thing. Reincarnation. In addition, we will find that there is no need to alter the Word of God. No need to find alternative Bible translations that say what we want them to say. No need to add or take away from the Word of God. The use of the word 'Hell' in the King James Bible is there for a reason. When we find out what that reason is, we will become Truly enlightened.

COGNITIVE DISSONANCE

THIS IS WHY PEOPLE GET UPSET WHEN

A MENTAL CONFLICT OCCURS WHEN BELIEFS ARE CONTRADICTED BY NEW INFORMATION. THIS CONFLICT ACTIVATES AREAS OF THE BRAIN INVOLVED IN PERSONAL IDENTITY AND EMOTIONAL RESPONSE TO THREATS. THE BRAIN'S ALARMS GO OFF WHEN A PERSON FEELS THREATENED ON A DEEPLY PERSONAL AND EMOTIONAL LEVEL CAUSING THEM TO SHUT DOWN AND DISREGARD ANY RATIONAL EVIDENCE

WARNING!

WARNING!

WARNING!

The information you are about to receive is extremely dangerous. If you repeat anything you read or hear in this presentation, you will most likely be met with tremendous vitriol. In some cases, you may be faced with violence. This is not a joke and not meant for drama. Please take this warning seriously. A heavy price will be paid. Be prepared to be banned from your favorite Online Forum and Church. You will also face the real possibility of losing a Loved One, Family Member, and even your Husband or Wife. Cognitive Dissonance is a real phenomenon, and it can be very difficult to predict what kind of behaviors One may encounter.

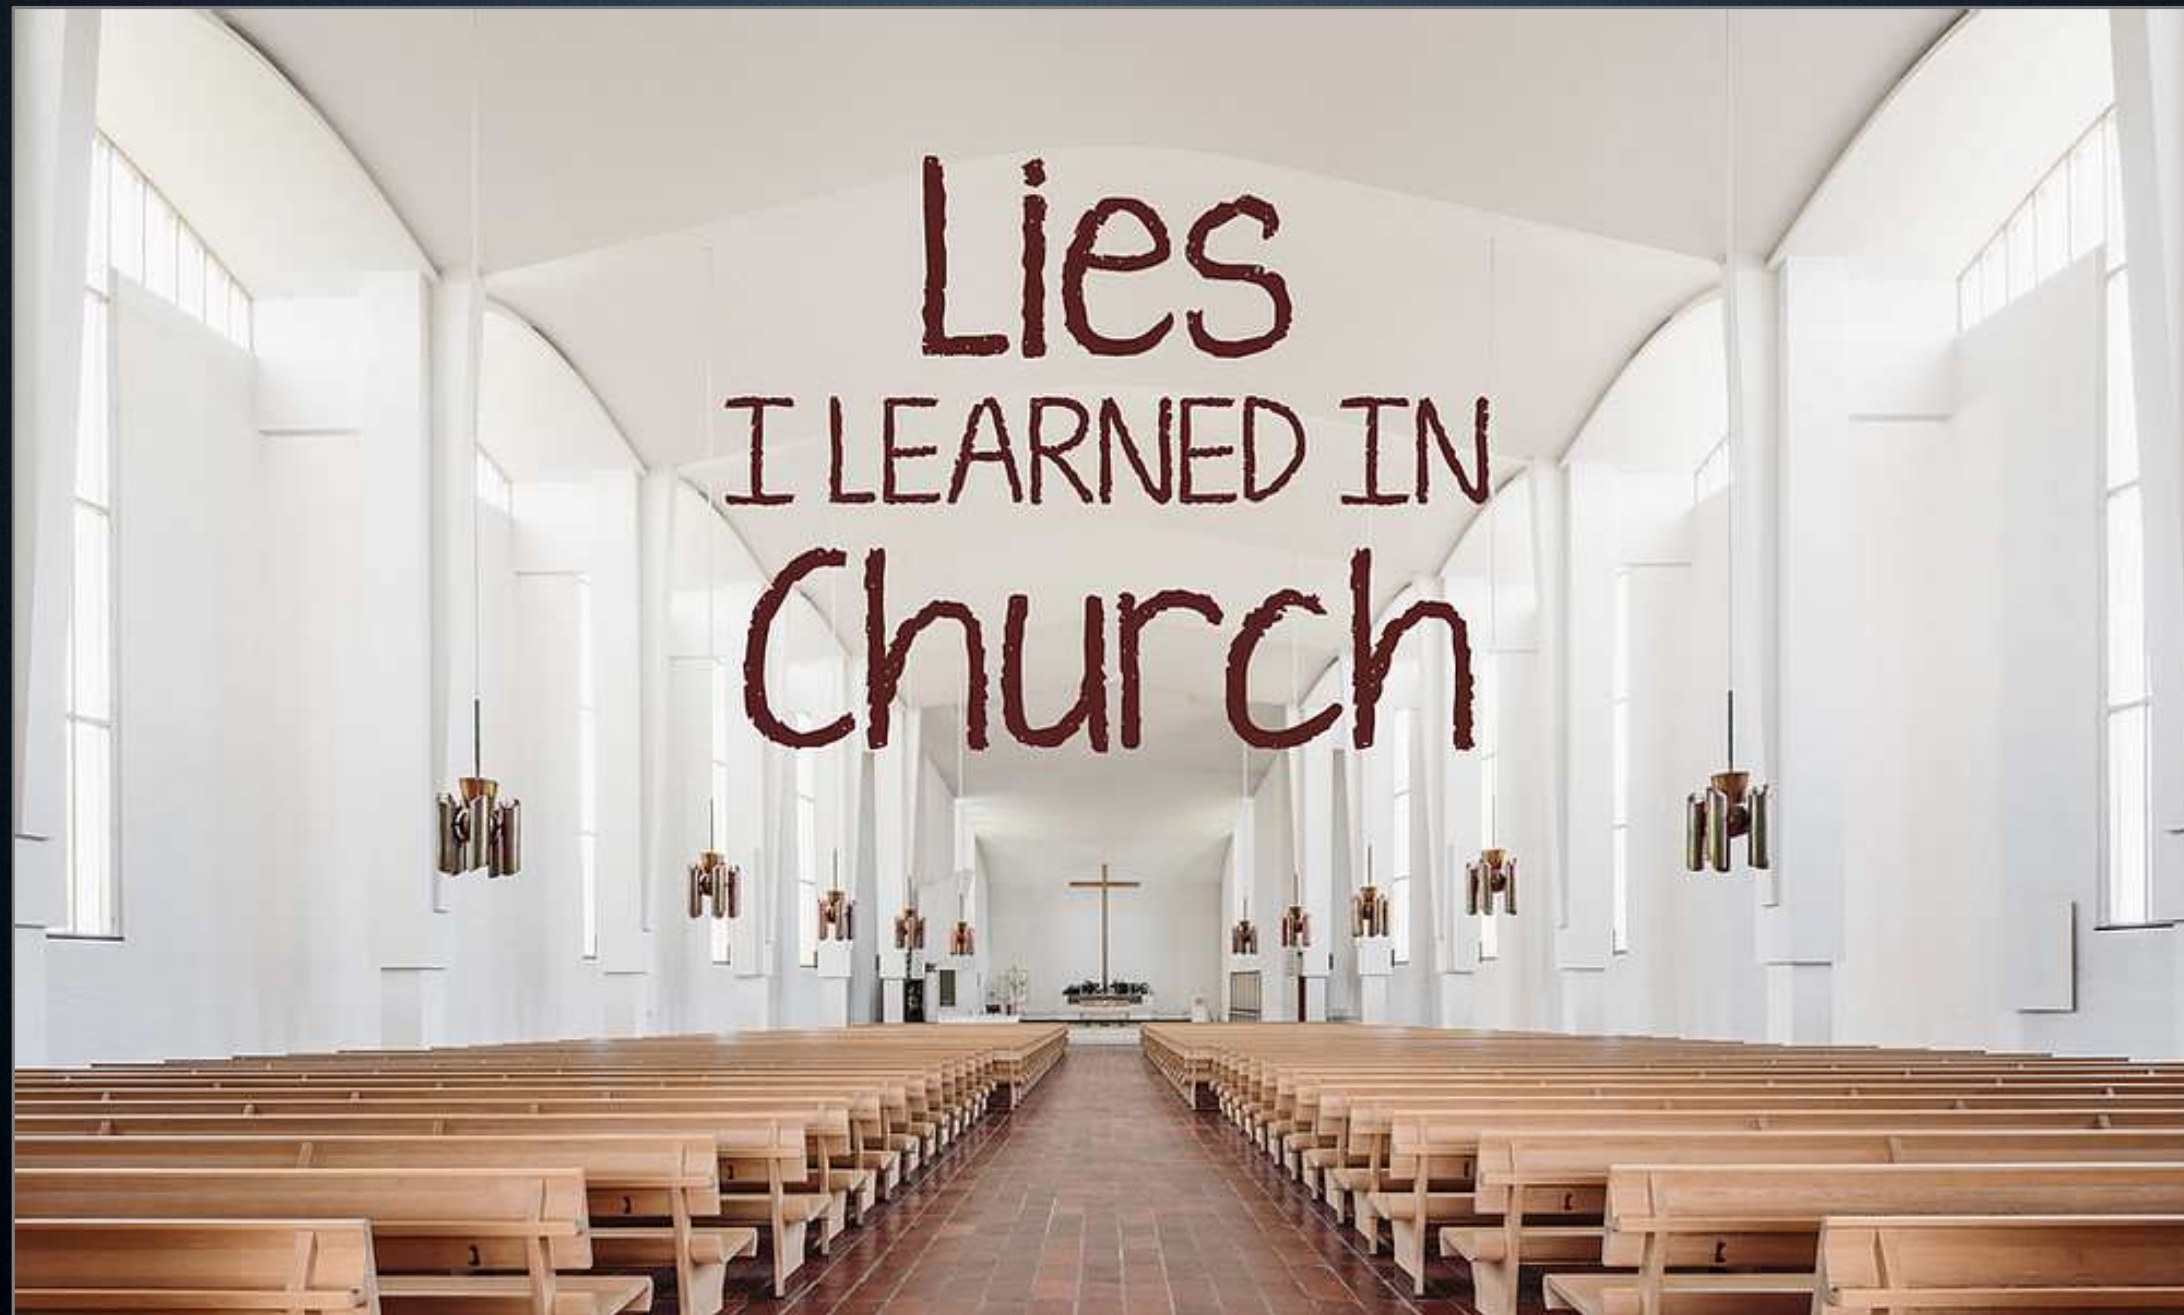

This information must be taught with Love, and immense patience. Some may never wake up. Go slow and use caution. The average Christian will not wake up overnight. Do not be discouraged by those that wish to remain asleep. Let God do the work necessary to bring them into the Light.

Unscientific Method

The reason Reincarnation is not taught in any Church today is easy to understand, yet difficult to believe. No one likes to admit when they are wrong. Whether it is ego, pride, ignorance, or perhaps even a wicked agenda, the fact of the matter is that once a lie is told, it could take a very long time to be eradicated, if ever.

The world of Science has a process by which Truth may be ascertained via something called the Scientific Method. The Scientific Method is an empirical method of acquiring knowledge that involves careful observation and applying rigorous skepticism about what is observed. The Scientific Method can involve formulating hypotheses, conducting experiments, testing and refinement. In some cases, the elimination of the hypotheses based on the experimental findings can occur. Back to the Drawing Board as they say.

Geocentric Universe

Heliocentric Universe

The world of Religion, more often than not, does the exact opposite of the Scientific Method. A set of beliefs, or 'dogmas', are established concerning a religious text. This dogma, whether it is True or not, becomes the standard teaching. Any challenge to said dogma is met with great resistance. In some cases, that resistance is punishable by death. In 1633, Galileo Galilei was prosecuted by the Roman Catholic Church for his support of heliocentrism, the astronomical model in which the Earth and planets revolve around the Sun at the center of the Solar System.

This mentality has continued to this very day. Incorrect Bible interpretations are almost never revised and updated, leaving it up to the individual to find Truth. It can be like finding a needle in a haystack.

Subtle Indoctrination

Indoctrination into these false and misleading interpretations have been subtle, yet steady. The average Christian usually has no idea in the world that it is happening to them. That is why this presentation is so important. The information contained herein will teach and arm the Student with the knowledge to catch when there is a deception taking place. Thankfully, this can be an easy process once certain 'buzzwords' are learned and recognized. We will now go over some of these buzzwords using a few example verses to get us started. Later, we will analyze everything in greater detail.

Matthew 23:15

“Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.”

- Literal?
- Spiritual?
- Poetry?
- Figure of Speech?
- Insult?

“Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.” - Matthew 23:15. This verse is from Jesus himself. Notice the phrase ‘Child of Hell’? Before jumping to any conclusion as to what it means, ask yourself this very important question. Is the phrase literal? Is it Spiritual? Is it poetry? Is it a figure of speech? Was Jesus merely insulting the Scribes and Pharisees? Let us now examine this phrase to see what it can teach us.

Matthew 23:15

“Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.”

‘Child’ Means Child
Strong's 5207: Huios
Definition: a son

We all know what a Child is. There is no Mystery to unravel here. The word Child is used many times throughout the Bible. If we were to look at the original Greek word for Child, we would see that it is often translated as ‘Son’. One example would be the Son of Perdition. The same word is used. What about Hell? What does that word really mean in this context?

Matthew 23:15

“Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.”

Hell is Merely the Grave

Some will argue that the word Hell is merely referring to the Grave, and that the word Hell should have never been put into the Bible. This statement is not only greatly in error, but incredibly irresponsible as well. The original Greek word translated as Hell in this King James Bible verse reveals a Great Mystery as to what Hell is really all about.

Matthew 23:15

“Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.”

Strong's 1067: Geenna (Gehenna)

Definition: a valley west and South of Jerusalem, also a symbolic name for the final place of punishment of the ungodly

The original Greek word for Hell in this particular verse is Gehenna. We will go over this word in greater detail later in the presentation. For now, we will focus on the general meaning. Gehenna comes to us from the Old Testament. It was a place located south of Jerusalem called the Valley of the Son of Hinnom. This is where trash, and even the bodies of dead people, were constantly being burned. Eventually Gehenna became a place where Children were sacrificed to an idol called Moloch. In the Book of Revelation, Gehenna, the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, is known as the Lake of Fire. It should be apparent that a Grave is not the same as the Lake of Fire.

2nd Kings 23:10

“And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech.”

Hestia
Topheth
Sister of Hades
Later Became Vesta

“And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech.” - 2nd Kings 23:10.
Another name for the Lake of Fire is Topheth. Later we will learn that Topheth represents the Goddess of the Hearth, Hestia. Hestia is the sister of Hades who later became known as Vesta. Note that the clues thus far are pointing us to the fact that the Lake of Fire is FEMININE.

2nd Kings 23:10

“And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech.”

Occult Secret!

Something that you will most likely never hear in any Sermon, is the fact that those thrown into the Lake of Fire, PASS THROUGH IT. Yes, you heard that correctly. Those thrown into the Lake of Fire, PASS THROUGH IT. They do not ‘burn in infinite torments’. They are not ‘annihilated’ either. This is something that the Occult World has known about for thousands of years. In addition, there is a very real possibility that there is a concerted effort by these Rulers of Darkness to hide this knowledge from the minds of Christians. Fortunately, the Word of God has revealed this Mystery to us plainly.

2nd Kings 23:10

“And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech.”

So where do the Unsaved go after passing through the Lake of Fire? They go to an entity called Moloch. Who is Moloch? Stay tuned to find out. For now, just know that Moloch is representative of the Female Reproductive System.

Matthew 23:15

“Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.”

- Literal? ←
- Spiritual?
- Poetry?
- Figure of Speech?
- Insult?

Now that we have taken a quick look at the phrase, ‘Child of Hell’, what if we were to understand it in its literal sense? What do you suppose would happen? We would conclude that Jesus is teaching us that Children are quite literally born out of Hell. Not just once, but at least twice! In other words, Jesus is alluding to Reincarnation. And thus, the simple, LITERAL interpretation, is that Children come from Hell. Not just a few Children mind you, but ALL Children. That is because if we all come from Adam and Eve, then the only logical conclusion is that we all come from the Lake of Fire.

YOU CAN'T TAKE THAT LITERALLY!!!

Oops! It would seem that we have crossed an imaginary boundary here. Of all the various interpretations out there, the only one that you are absolutely, positively, NOT supposed to believe, is the Literal one.

You are free to choose however, from any of the other pre-approved, 'so called', interpretations. In other words, just as long as you DO NOT believe what Jesus said, you can go to Heaven. Even better, you can add the word 'deserving' to the phrase Child of Hell so that it now says what the Church wants it to say. In other words, Child "DESERVING" of Hell. See that? Subtle, yet effective.

What you are being presented with here is a list of the 'buzzwords' you were warned about earlier. If you here any of these words being combined with a verse, or an interpretation of a verse, you need to be extremely cautious. Chances are, you are being lied to. Never let anyone, 'Spiritualize away', the profound meanings found in the Word of God. The literal interpretation is always the most revealing.

?!?

Now, some of you may be thinking, "This is crazy!". "This is without a doubt the dumbest thing I ever heard of." "You mean to tell me that a Woman's Uterus is Hell?!?!?" This is where most Christians will stop and never look back. They hastily come to the wrong conclusion and are forever doomed to remain in ignorance. Do not be one of them. Remember, God wishes for us to be enlightened. There are many, many more examples of how Hell is a parable for the Womb and Reincarnation. Let us now be brave and walk through the door of Illumination.

Hell is a Parable for the Womb and Reincarnation

Psalms 139:15

“My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.”

Mother Earth

Lowest Parts

“My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.” - Psalms 139:15. This is one of the most obvious Smoking Guns when it comes to the ultimate meaning of Hell. We are born out of the Lowest Parts of the Earth. In other words, Hell. What more is there to say? Plenty!

Parable for the Womb

Again, whether One believes that the 'Lowest Parts of the Earth' is Hell, or simply the Grave, the meaning is clear. This is where Babies originate from! Obviously if a Human Being was once in the Grave, yet they are now on Earth again as another Baby, the only explanation is that a specific process has just occurred, whereby an Unsaved person was just given another chance at life. For all intents and purposes, that is Reincarnation. Notice what else is being taught here. The Earth is our Mother. Yes, Mother Earth it would seem is a Biblical concept and not just some silly Pagan teaching. In fact, the Bible calls her Mystery Babylon. More on that later.

Psalms 71:20

“Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.”

- Bring Me Up Again

“Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.” - Psalms 71:20. Notice the word, ‘Again’? This implies that this event has happened before. How can one be brought up a second time from the Depths of the Earth if the Depths of the Earth is Hell? Aren’t we all taught that the Unsaved receive no second chances? If we simply say that the verse is not literal, and that the verse refers to being saved out of the troubles in our lives, then the problem is solved. However, there is a word that is being used here that teaches us that this verse is more literal than the Church would like to admit.

Psalms 71:20

“Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die.” - 1st Corinthians 15:36. This verse is a ‘dead’ giveaway as to the actual meaning of the word Quickened. Do you see it? Quickened is a very special word that is reserved only for a certain special occasion. That occasion is bringing that which is PHYSICALLY DEAD, back to LIFE. Yes, only something that had previously died physically, can be Quickened. It does not end there, however. The word Quickened also implies a NEW BODY. Look at what the very next verse has to say.

1st Corinthians 15:37

“And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain.”

“And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain.” - 1st Corinthians 15:37. And there it is for all to see. The body that is Quickened again from the Depths of the Earth, comes back in a NEW BODY, and NOT the Body that was sown. The new body comes from a different looking Seed. Let us not forget that Mother Earth again is being used here as a parable by which Human Seeds are planted.

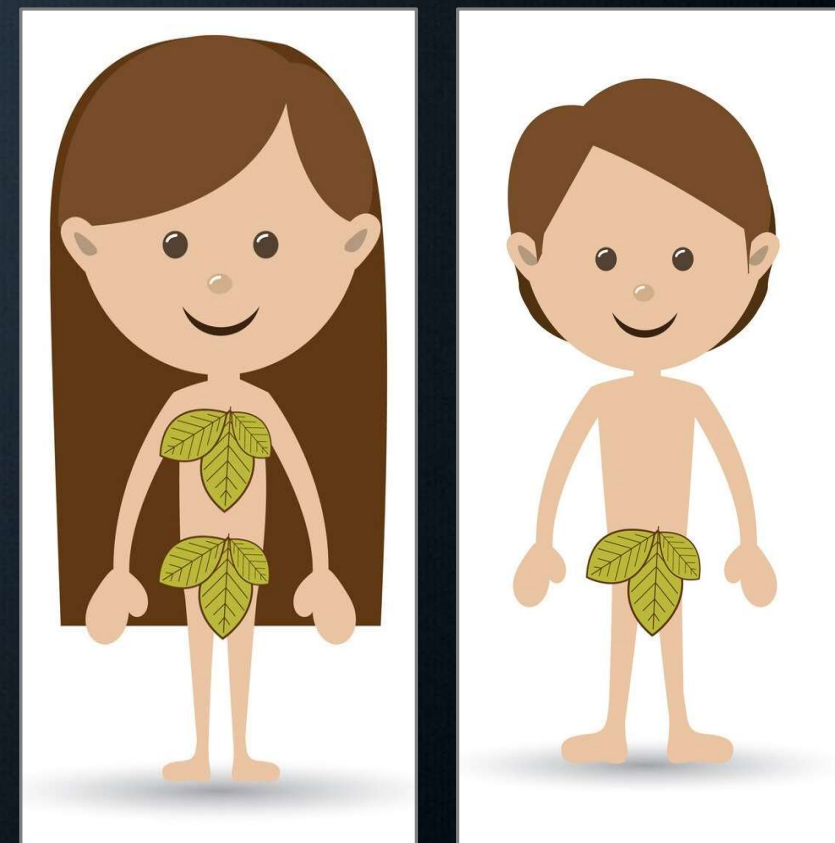

The Seed
That is Sown

Does NOT Look Like

The Body
That is Produced

The actual meaning of being 'Quickened' is becoming Born Again in the most literal sense!

To put it another way, Human 'Seed' does not look like a Human Being at all. This is another Witness to the fact that the word 'Quickened' has a much deeper meaning than what Christians are generally taught. We are talking about starting life over, completely from scratch, from before the Moment of Conception. And because the Bible does not contradict itself, we must interpret other verses that use the word, 'Quickened', using the same rules. Quickened, is what happens to that which was once physically dead. Let us now apply what we have learned to another verse to see what happens.

Ephesians 2:1

“And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins.” - Ephesians 2:1. Whoops! What do we have here? An inconvenient Truth? Indeed. This is a very famous verse that is used by the Church to describe an Unsaved person that has been converted or has been ‘Born Again’ as they say, to become a Christian. One will never hear their Pastor teach that this verse is all about how we lived a past life, died, went to Hell, were found guilty, and ultimately thrown into the Lake of Fire. The Student is told that they were simply ‘lost’ during their younger years, and now they are Saved. But how can this be? The word ‘Dead’ is clearly there for all to see. Dead means dead, right?

Ephesians 2:1

“And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins.”*

Dead is Not Literal!

Uh oh. The Thought Police are back. Christians of course are also told that the word, ‘Dead’, in this verse is not literal but rather ‘Spiritual’ (whatever that means). They are told that there is no such thing as Reincarnation because (reasons). I have a feeling we will be seeing more of this Mean Pastor throughout this presentation.

Remember what we learned earlier about the Red Flags to look out for? The Church has taken upon themselves to pick and choose certain words in the Bible that are NOT to be taken literal. You are beginning to see why. Little by little, the subtle censorship and ‘Spiritualization’ of meanings begin to add up and paint a picture. They all point to the fact that Reincarnation is the ultimate Truth that the world of Christianity is not supposed to know about.

Now, look at Psalms 71:20 again with your new understanding. God is going to bring back to life the Dead that are in the Depths of the Earth, in other words, back from Hell. God will do it AGAIN. Not just one time as in Resurrection Day. God will quicken them, over and over, as many times as it takes until they are Saved.

Lucifer then goes to Hell, which is referred to here as the ‘Sides of the Pit’. Is Lucifer about to return again? How many times has this happened anyhow? Interestingly, a Beast is said to rise out of the Pit in the Book of Revelation. Could the Pit be another parable for the Womb and Reincarnation?

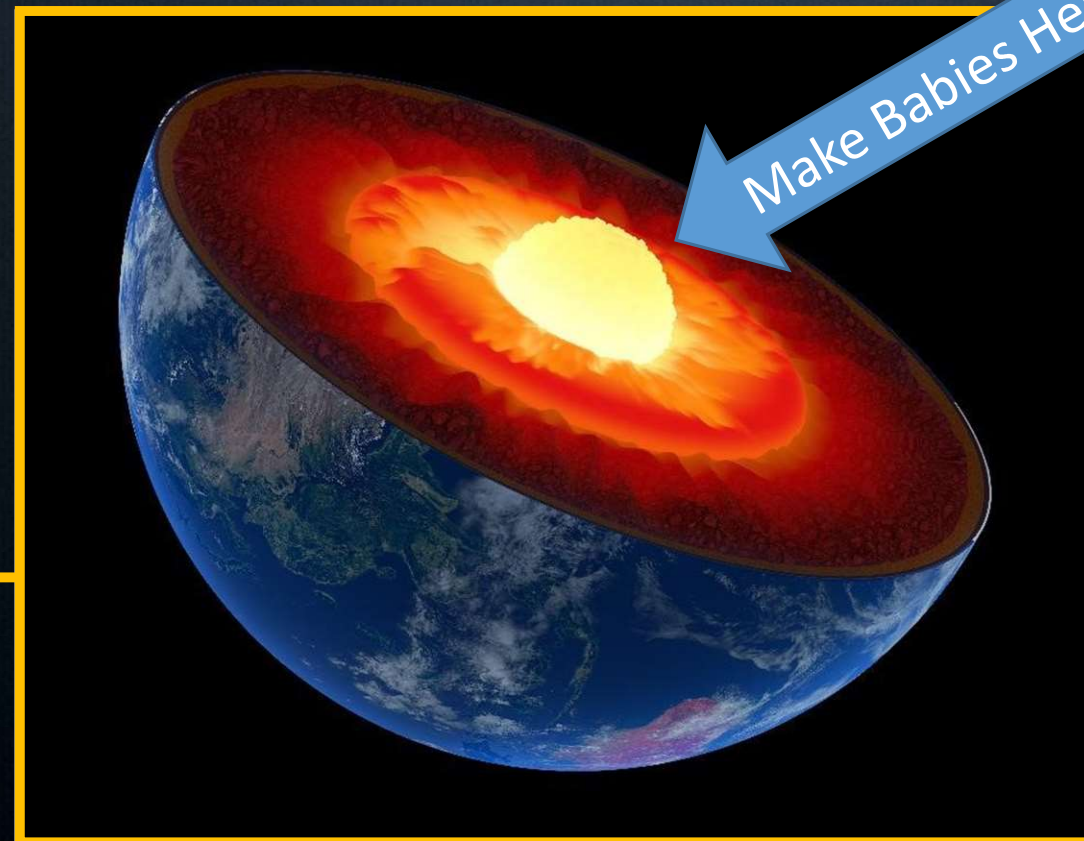

Revelation 17:8 - “The beast that thou sawest was, and is not;<sup>47</sup> and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.”

This is yet another Smoking Gun verse that clearly states that a being that once was alive, will somehow ascend out of a Bottomless Pit one day.

Revelation 17:8 - “The beast that thou sawest was, and is not;<sup>48</sup> and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition:
and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.”

Was - and is Not - Yet is

Reincarnation

Note the phrase, ‘ Was, and is not, and yet is ’. This is clearly speaking of Reincarnation. This Beast is going to rise out of the depths of Hell one day, by being born out of it. This is undeniable. Even if One does not believe that Reincarnation exists for Humans, One must concede that Reincarnation exists in the very least, for Beasts. This begs the question... Does Biblical Reincarnation include a past life that was once non-Human? In other words, did we once have a past life as a Beast?

Daniel 4:33

“The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles’ feathers, and his nails like birds’ claws.”

“The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles’ feathers, and his nails like birds’ claws.” - Daniel 4:33. The story of King Nebuchadnezzar holds many fascinating clues as to how Reincarnation works in the Bible. One of them is the fact that King Nebuchadnezzar is a picture of the future Antichrist that will incarnate again one day. In this verse we see that God made Nebuchadnezzar eat grass like an Ox and basically portrayed him as a Beast. How extensive was this transformation?

Daniel 4:16

*“Let his heart be changed from man’s,
and let a beast’s heart be given unto him;

King Nebuchadnezzar

Picture of Beast and Antichrist

“Let his heart be changed from man’s, and let a beast’s heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.” - Daniel 4:16. The Heart is a picture of One’s Soul. More specifically, the Heart is a reference to One’s Genome and DNA. In short, what this verse is teaching is that Nebuchadnezzar’s very Soul, and DNA, were literally changed to that of a Beast. It was then changed back to Human. The Bible seems to be alluding to the fact that a Human Being can be converted from one to the other. From Human to Beast and from Beast to Human.

Daniel 4:16

*“Let his heart be changed from man’s,
and let a beast’s heart be given unto him;

King Nebuchadnezzar

Picture of Beast and Antichrist

Something worth noting here is the phrase, ‘Seven Times’. This may have a double meaning. Most Scholars agree that the phrase, ‘Seven Times’, means ‘Seven Years’. While this may be True, there is another meaning we must quickly go over.

Daniel 4:16

*“Let his heart be changed from man’s,
and let a beast’s heart be given unto him;

Heads = Reincarnations

In the Book of Revelation, both the Beast and the Dragon have seven 'Heads'. As we learn more about Reincarnation in the Bible, we will discover that each Head represents a Reincarnation of the Beast. Thus, the 'Seven Times' in Daniel 4:16 may be a reference to this Reincarnation process. The Beast was, is not, and yet, is. Clearly a cycle of death and rebirth is being taught here.

A Son will be born out of it. Born from the Bottomless Pit. See how the literal translation reveals much? So, what exactly is the ‘Pit’ anyhow? Is this another allusion to the Womb?

- Sarah's Womb

“Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.” - Isaiah 51:2. The Pit being referred to in the previous verse is Sarah, a Righteous Woman! This teaches us that the so called ‘Pits of Hell’ do not always belong to a Wicked Woman. Thus, it is not the Woman, nor her Womb that is evil, it is the process of Reincarnation that is evil. In other words, Reincarnation is not a reward, but a punishment reserved only for the Unsaved. Are you beginning to see the pattern here? This is the wool that has been pulled over the eyes of Christians for millennia.

“For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.” - Proverbs 23:27. We could do this all day long. The meaning is unmistakable. The Church has no excuse for what they have done, and the damage they have caused. As usual, a LITERAL reading of the Sacred Text is the most revealing. A Woman's Womb is also called a Pit in Scripture. The Bottomless Pit.

Jonah has just been swallowed by it and is in terrible distress. Look at the language being used here. Where is Hell located? Hell is located in the Belly. See that? There is more...

"I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God." - Jonah 2:6. If you would, please direct your attention to the word, Earth. Jonah is showing us where the 'Belly' of Hell is. It is inside of the Earth. How can Jonah be in the Heart of the Earth when he is supposed to be in a Fish? Again, Hell is a parable for the Womb and Reincarnation. Earth is a Woman. Isn't this getting monotonous? And what else do we see with regards to Hell?

Jonah was in Hell FOREVER!!! No, that is not a mistake or mistranslation. Be sure to burn that word into your brain. We will soon be discussing how the word, 'Forever', does not mean what we think it does. Jonah was of course vomited out of the Great Fish. He did not stay there for an infinite amount of time. This was a temporary situation. If anyone ever tells you that the Unsaved are tormented 'Forever', it would be prudent for you to have them explain exactly what that word means. We will now look at the phrase, 'Heart of the Earth'.

“For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale’s belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.” - Matthew 12:40. The Heart of the Earth is another phrase that is commonly used to describe Hell. Clearly, the Belly and Hell are being linked. God is really making all of this obvious. Note that the Son of Man is referring to Jesus. This is where common sense should make things crystal clear. Jesus did not go to a place of infinite torments when he died, only to suffer and be punished for all of Eternity. Every Christian, and even most non-Christians, would agree with that. So, what exactly is going on here? How about a hint?

“Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?” - Ephesians 4:9. If you have been contemplating this information thus far with an open mind, you already know that the Lower Parts of the Earth is a reference to the Womb. Who's womb? Mary's of course! When Jesus came to be incarnated, he descended first into Mary's belly to become a baby. Has your Church or Pastor ever taught this? Why not? Scripture teaches that Jesus descended first from Heaven, not from the Cross! Many verses point this out.

John 3:13

Lower Parts of the Earth

Jesus Descends First

Into the Womb of Mary

“And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.” - John 3:13. Again, Jesus descended from Heaven, not the Cross. Sadly, many Churches teach that Jesus went to Hell to burn. Some try and find some other way of resolving what they perceive to be too disturbing to reconcile by stating that Jesus ‘went to Hell to free prisoners from Abraham’s Bosom’. This is grossly in error and not Biblical at all. Abraham’s Bosom was not, ‘emptied out’. In fact, Abraham’s Bosom still exists to this very day and is where the Saved are currently resting. Why would the Righteous Abraham keep prisoners anyway? Such a tangled web the Church has weaved.

I Can Haz Literal?

And thus, despite what we have been told, we **can**, have a literal interpretation of the Word of God. We will have to fight for it, but the victory will ULTIMATELY be ours.

I Can Haz Literal?

I Can Haz Metaphorical Too?

What about both Literal AND Metaphorical? Yes, you can have both. And now that we have seen examples of how Scripture describes Hell and the Lake of Fire, we must ask an important question. If the Unsaved go to a place of Infinite Torments after death, why do all the verses in the Bible show the opposite? If God Truly wishes for us to believe that there are no Second Chances, then why give us one example after another of people being rescued out of a Pit, or Lowest Parts of the Earth, or Belly of Hell? This is not how God teaches things. What about the total number of deaths One has? Do we really only die one time? We will now investigate this question.

Once to Die

EVERYONE HAS TO DIE!

(AND IT IS ONLY ONE TIME!!!)

Uh oh. Here comes Damage Control again. We knew they would show up, didn't we? And already we see they are up to their old tricks by twisting the Word of God to say something it does not. The Mean Preacher is telling us that everyone must die. In addition, it is only one time. Is this True? Where did the Mean Preacher get this from? Let us hear his verse...

Hebrews 9:27

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die...”

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die...” - Hebrews 9:27. Uh oh. It would appear that the Mean Preacher has debunked this entire presentation. There it is in plain sight. Humans die only one time. Did we just make a huge mistake? Perhaps we should just end it here before we embarrass ourselves even further.

Hebrews 9:27

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die...”

Wait. Hold it a minute. Something is not right here. Did the Mean Preacher just take away from the Word of God? Why yes. Yes, he did. The Mean Preacher has conveniently forgotten to quote the rest of the verse. This is a trick that is often used when attempting to debunk Reincarnation. Verses are either misquoted, or half quoted so that the lie can perpetuate. We have learned another valuable lesson. How about we hear the whole verse this time?

Hebrews 9:27

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.”

One Death = One Judgement

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.” - Hebrews 9:27. There. That is better. What the verse is stating simply, is that for every death, there is a judgment. If anything, the verse actually SUPPORTS Reincarnation by clarifying what happens to those that think they can live a life of Sex, Drugs and Rock & Roll, and get away with it. No Sir. EVERY death will be judged. There will be consequences for their actions. They will have to REAP WHAT THEY SOW in the next life. That is why we are here by the way. We are here to be corrected.

Hebrews 9:27

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.”

One Death = One Judgement

‘Eternal Punishment’ is a Location, NOT a State of Being!

This world is a Correctional Facility. The phrase, ‘Eternal Punishment’, refers to a LOCATION, and NOT A STATE OF BEING! Earth, is that location. It is an Eternal Place of Correction. A Prison Planet if you will. The bottom line here is that Hebrews 9:27 DOES NOT state that Humans ‘die only one time’. If this Truly were the case, then the verse would be in severe contradiction with the rest of the Bible. Observe...

Revelation 21:8

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.”

‘Die Once’ and Second Death are Contradictory Teachings!

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.” - Revelation 21:8. Here we have a very obvious contradiction to the ‘die once’ dogma. How can Humans die only one time if there is a Second Death? Some, will try to add the word, ‘Spiritual’, to this verse. Do not be deceived. There is no such thing as ‘Spiritual Death’ in the Bible. More importantly, Spirit never dies. Thus, the phrase, ‘Spiritual Death’, is blasphemous.

Revelation 21:8

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.”

Even Wikipedia agrees that the phrase, 'Spiritual Death', is not found in the Bible. However, even if Spiritual Death was a real thing, it would still contradict with the 'die once' dogma. No matter how One tries to spin it, die once and die twice are contradictory teachings, period.

1st Thessalonians 4:17

“Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.”

NO RAPTURE FOR YOU!

“Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.” - 1st Thessalonians 4:17. What about the Rapture? If everyone must die, then this verse is in error. “No Rapture for you!”, says the Mean Preacher. Be careful what you wish for, you just may get it.

Ezekiel 37:3

“And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest.”

Valley of Dry Bones

Died More Than One Time

“And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest.” - Ezekiel 37:3. In the Valley of Dry Bones, Ezekiel prophesied to an army of people that were long dead. Their bodies came to life, and they stood. Does this mean they never died again? Is this army still wandering the Earth to this day? Of course not. Once again, we see another contradiction to the ‘die once’ lie.

Enoch

Elijah

Boy Who Sneezed Seven Times

Elisha's Bones

Raised Saints

Lazarus

There are many verses in the Bible describing persons who had died and were later raised back to life. Some, such as Enoch and Elijah, never died at all. The bottom line here is that anyone who tries to use Hebrews 9:27 to debunk Reincarnation, is either ignorant, or purposely being deceitful. Of course, since it always helps to have another Witness, we will go over one more verse, along the lines of Hebrews 9:27, just to be sure.

Job 30:23

*“For I know that thou wilt bring me to death,

Does ‘House Appointed’ Mean...

HOUSE OF DEATH

Or Something Else?

“For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.” - Job 30:23. Some will argue that the ‘House Appointed’ for All Living is referring to an alleged ‘House of Death’. Thus, ‘All Living’ are appointed to ‘die’. Is this True? We will now examine the evidence.

Job 30:23

*“For I know that thou wilt bring me to death,

Does ‘House Appointed’ Mean...

DEATH

Or Something Else?

Notice the word, ‘and’. This teaches us that Job 30:23 is referring to two separate entities. Death is one entity, ‘and’, the House Appointed is another entity entirely. So, what is the House Appointed for all living?

Psalms 122:5

“For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.”

Does ‘House Appointed’ Mean...

Or Something Else?

‘House Appointed’ Means

House of Judgment

“For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.” - Psalms 122:5. The ‘House Appointed’ is the House of Judgment, not Death. Now Job 30:23 and Hebrews 9:27 agree with each other. Every death will be judged. The lie of ‘die once’ may now be placed in the rubbish bin where it belongs.

And So It Begins

You're not sorry
because you did it.
You're only sorry
because you got caught.

My Dear Valentine♥

Now that we have had a brief introduction as to how the Truth of Reincarnation has been hidden from the world of Christianity, we can begin the process of repairing some of the damage that has been done. To do this, we must start from the beginning. From the very first book of the Bible. The Book of Genesis. In our next study verse, we will see that God is giving a very specific commandment to Adam. Do not eat of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, otherwise there will be severe consequences.

Genesis 2:17

“But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.”

In the Day

Twenty-Four Hours

Surely Die

Return to Dust

“But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.” - Genesis 2:17. Seems simple enough to comprehend. Anyone who partakes of the Forbidden Fruit will surely die. In addition, they will die on that very day. What is there not to understand? We all know what a ‘Day’ is, and we all know what ‘Surely Die’ means, right?

WRONG!
(THE VERSE IS NOT LITERAL!!!)

In the Day

Surely Die

Twenty-Four Hours

Return to Dust

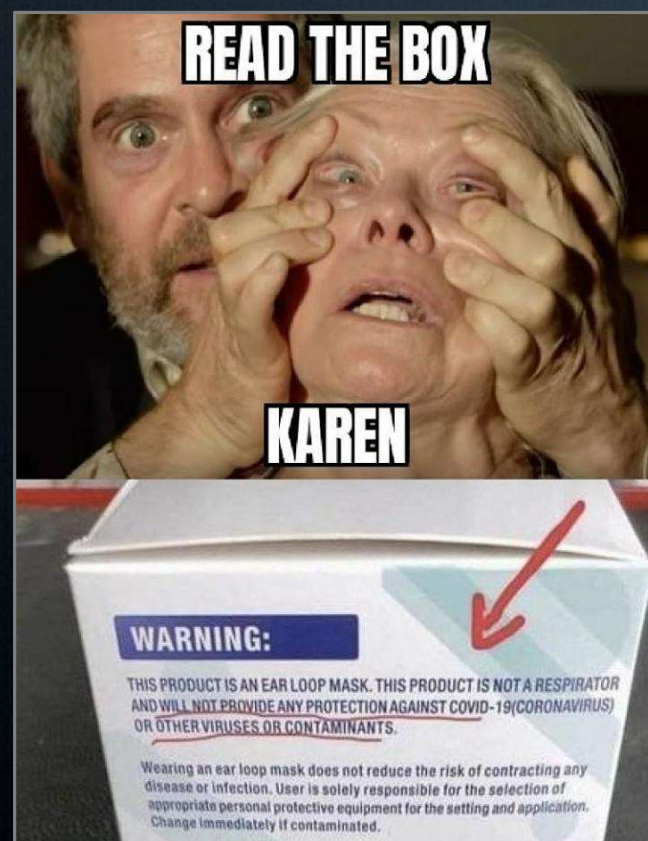

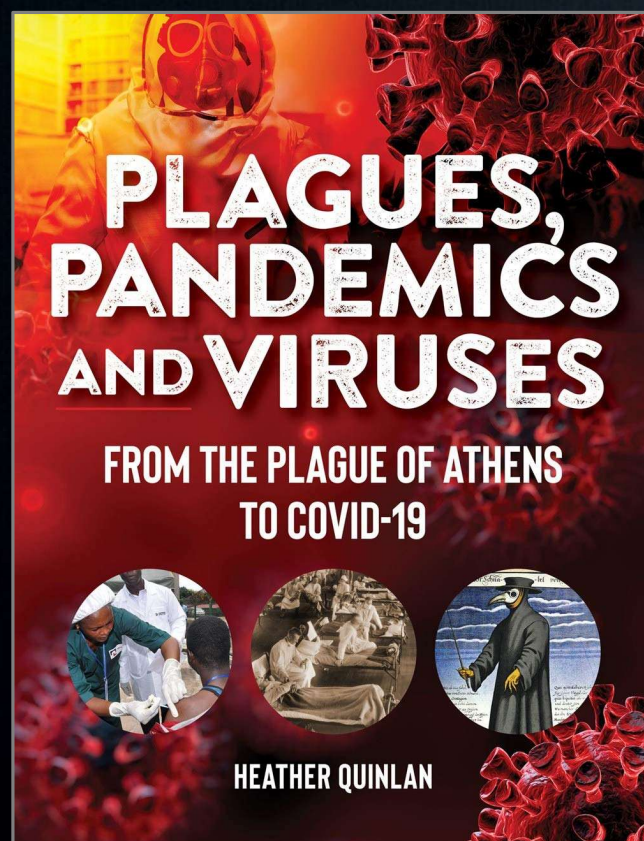

Wrong! Or rather, it is wrong according to what the Mean Preachers have been falsely teaching for thousands of years, that is. For you see, according to practically every Church on the planet, you and I are NOT allowed to simply take this verse literally. We must forget the plainness of speech being used here. Instead, we must add unto, and take away from, the Word of God. Once we add unto, and take away from, the Word of God, we can make Genesis 2:17 say whatever we wish it to say, and all will be right as rain. Is this correct? Let us see what Scripture has to say about adding unto, and taking away from, the Word of God.

Revelation 22:18

“For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:”

Add to the Word

God Shall Add Plagues

“For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:” - Revelation 22:18. Indeed. This is a very stern warning. A warning that this presentation intends to take very seriously. Those that add unto the Word of God will have plagues added onto them.

Revelation 22:19

“And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.”

Add to the Word

God Shall Add Plagues

Take Away from the Word

Take Away from Book of Life

“And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.” - Revelation 22:19. Taking away from the Word of God will cause One to be taken out of the Book of Life. Again, God is very serious about how Scripture is interpreted. Unfortunately, the Church has utterly failed to observe these commandments. As a result, the seeds of confusion and doubt have been sown throughout the ages, and its fruit can be seen everywhere.

A quick search on the Internet demonstrates this clearly. Try it for yourself using a phrase like, "God lied. the Serpent told the truth." or something to that effect. You will see countless articles and videos on this topic. The basic premise is the same. A question is asked... "If Adam and Eve were supposed to die on the very day of partaking the Forbidden Fruit, then why does it appear as if they did NOT die?" This is a very legitimate question of course, and everyone has a right to ask it. Unfortunately, the Bible Critic's answer is almost always, "God lied". "It was the Serpent who told the Truth." Is this correct?

Did God Really Lie?

Did God really lie? After all, we know from Scripture that Adam and Eve lived for hundreds of years and had many Children. To the casual reader of the text, it would indeed appear that Adam and his Wife did not 'surely die', as God said they would. Who can blame the critics for pointing this out? We will now take a closer look at Genesis 2:17 to see who is really telling the Truth, and who is lying.

You Can't Take That Literally!

Genesis 2:17

“But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.”

“But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.” - Genesis 2:17. It is here that the Greatest Lie Ever Told has its beginnings. Of course, the verse itself is perfect the way it is, and is completely and totally Truthful. That is... if One takes the verse literally. Thus, in order to have this verse tell a lie, a word, or several words, must be added unto it. We will go over a few of the more common Church teachings whereby words are added in order to change this verse into complete, and total, fiction.

Genesis 2:17

“But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.”

Not Literal!

As we learned earlier, one of the biggest Red Flags to look for when studying Bible Commentary and Teachings, is to listen for certain words or phrases to be mixed in with the interpretation. One example we already know about is the phrase, “You can’t take that literally!” In other words, do not believe what the verse is teaching. Instead, look for an ‘alternative’ meaning. Of course, the alternative meaning is always ready at hand to be given to the Student for quick consumption.

Genesis 2:17

“But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.”

Not Literal!
‘Spiritually’

In the case of Genesis 2:17, the alternative meaning is almost always, “Adam and his Wife died Spiritually”. This is a very subtle, yet effective way to teach a lie without the Student realizing what is happening to them. When the word, ‘Spiritually’, is added to the Word of God, the Church can now claim that God really did tell the Truth. Adam and Eve really did die, but it was a ‘Spiritual’ death, which again is a term found nowhere in Scripture. Note that according to Scripture, a Spirit can never die. A Body and Soul can die, never Spirit.

Ecclesiastes 12:7

*“Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was:
and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.”*

“Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.” - Ecclesiastes 12:7. Once the Spirit returns to God, that same Spirit can be placed in either a Glorified Body, such as in the case of the Saved or a Corrupt Body as we have now, such as in the case of the Unsaved. More on this later.

Genesis 2:17

“But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.”

Not Literal!

~~They Died
'Spiritually'~~

They 'Began to Die'
or 'Death is Certain'

Another lie the Church adds unto the Word of God, is that Adam and his Wife either, 'began to die', or 'death was a certainty'. In other words, they died alright, it just took a really, really, long time for it to happen. Are you beginning to see how the deception works? Once the phrase, 'It's not literal', is uttered, just about anything can now be added to make the verse state whatever the deceivers wish it to say.

Genesis 2:17

“But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.”

Any Span of Time We Want!

Not Literal!

~~They Died
'Spiritually'~~

They 'Began to Die'
or 'Death is Certain'

Even the word, 'Day', is changed to whatever length of time is necessary to make the propaganda stick. In some teachings, a Day turns into hundreds, thousands, millions or even billions of years! If One simply believes that 'Day' means Day, and 'Surely Die' means Surely Die, then they are called all kinds of names and are greatly hated. If you are a Christian reading this, chances are, you fall into one of the two interpretations. In other words, you believe that only, ONE, of the choices is literal. Ironically, that is perfectly acceptable to the Church. However, if you decide to believe that BOTH choices are literal, you are now labeled as a Heretic! What lunacy this is.

ARE YOU SERIOUS?!?!

Now, those that are not Christian or familiar with these concepts, may be asking themselves... "Are you serious?". Sadly, this is not a joke. The Church has tried all kinds of tricks to hide the Truth from the public by adding ridiculous excuses as to why Adam and his Wife did NOT die in the manner that seems to be so clearly indicated in Genesis. Ask any Pastor why Adam and Eve did not die, and you will hear the backpedaling for yourself.

BLASPHEMY!

Genesis 2:17

“But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.”

Just Believe the Bible

We are about to do something that no Church or Christian has ever done in the history of the Universe. Something so outrageous that we will surely be labeled as Heretics and Blasphemers for all of Eternity. We are actually going to believe what the Bible says! Yes, this is an appalling break in Tradition. We will surely be hated by ‘loving’ Christians, but it must be done if we wish to bring Sanity back to the world of Christianity. Consequently, we will discover that God really did tell the Truth, and it was the Serpent that lied. The audacity!

Genesis 2:17

“But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.”

Just Believe the Bible

DAY MEANS DAY

and

SURELY DIE MEANS SURELY DIE

In this presentation, we are going to assume that the word, ‘Day,’ means Day, as in twenty-four-hours or less. We are also going to assume that the phrase, ‘Surely Die’, means Surely Die, as in no pulse. No breath. No life whatsoever. In other words, Adam and his Wife became worm food.

Genesis 2:17

“But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.”

Monty Python

Dead Parrot Skit

Like a Monty Python skit, the Church will insist that Adam and his Wife were merely 'Spiritually Dead', which means they were in fact still alive. Even if we could take a Time Machine back to the moment Adam and his Wife lay dead on the ground and video the event, the average Christian will still say that they were 'stunned', 'pining for the fjords', or perhaps just 'resting'.

Genesis 2:17

- Were 'No More'
- Ceased to be
- Expired
- Gone on to meet their maker
- Were bereft of life
- Were resting in peace
- Were pushing up daisies

SURELY DIE MEANS SURELY DIE

No. The verse means what it says, and says what it means. Adam and his Wife, died. They passed on. They were no more. They ceased to be. They expired. They. You get the idea. And yes, it happened in twenty-four hours or less. Perhaps it was within a matter of minutes, or even seconds.

Genesis 2:17

4191 [e]	מֹוֹת mō-wt̄	surely
4191 [e]	תָּמוּת: tā-mūt.	you shall die

By the way. There is something rather peculiar about the phrase, ‘surely die’. The Strong’s word for ‘die’ (4191) is repeated twice in Genesis 2:17. In other words, the verse ends with, ‘die, die’. What makes this peculiar is the fact that the Bible has a very specific way of using this phrase that precisely teaches us what the exact fate of those that partake of the Forbidden Fruit will be.

Jude 1:12

‘Die Die’

4191 [e]	מֹות mō-wt	surely
4191 [e]	תָּמֹות tā-mūt.	you shall die

“These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots.” - Jude 1:12. Do you see it? Die, die, is the word ‘dead’ twice, or rather Twice Dead. And One who is considered Twice Dead is One who is already condemned to Hell and the Lake of Fire. That is why the Lake of Fire is referred to as the Second Death.

Revelation 21:8

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.”

‘Die Die’
or Twice Dead

4191 [e]	מֹוֹת mō-wt	surely
4191 [e]	תָּמוּת: tā-mūt.	you shall die

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.” - Revelation 21:8. What the Bible is trying to teach us is that the phrase, ‘Surely Die’, is the same as the phrase, ‘Second Death’. And it is the Second Death that Adam and his Wife are about to experience.

'Surely Die' used 22 times in the KJV

- |                    |                   |
| 1. Genesis 2:17    | 12. 1 Kings 2:37  |

| 10. 2 Samuel 12:5  | 21. Ezekiel 33:8  |
| 11. 2 Samuel 12:14 | 22. Ezekiel 33:14 |

Note that the phrase 'Surely Die' is found twenty-two times in the Bible, all of which are contained in the Old Testament. A quick study of said verses reveals a consistent pattern. The phrase 'Surely Die' is always used to describe One who is so wicked, no Salvation is possible. Once 'Surely Die' is stated in a verse, it is a sure bet that the ultimate fate of the wicked person being referred to within the verse, is to be thrown into the Lake of Fire.

Ezekiel 33:8

“When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.”

Surely Die

Second Death

‘Die Die’
or Twice Dead

“When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.” - Ezekiel 33:8. This is just one of many examples that can be found in Scripture. Are we then to assume that the only time ‘Surely Die’ did not mean Second Death is when it was used against Adam and his Wife? No. The Bible does not contradict itself. The pattern is clear. Surely Die means Second Death. Period.

So that is what 'Spiritually Dead' means!

Surely Die

'Die Die'
or
Twice Dead

Now that we have been enlightened as to what the real meaning of the term, 'Surely Die' is, we can now replace the non-Biblical phrase, 'Spiritually Dead', with the Biblical term, Second Death, or even Twice Dead. Note that the average Christian is still ignorant and will be unaware of what they are actually saying and teaching when they utter the words, 'Spiritual Death'. They have yet to make these connections. To them, the phrase, 'Spiritually Dead', is a mystical expression that is neither tangible nor quantifiable. From their perspective, it is a Mystery that is all together unsolvable.

Reconstructing Genesis

We all know what happens when lies are told. The damage can be absolutely devastating. The lies told by the Church are so extensive, it has caused many stories in the Bible to be interpreted with vast amounts of error in them. So ingrained are these false teachings, that we are unable to simply correct these mistakes by re-interpreting a few verses here and there. Unfortunately, in many cases, a complete overhaul will be necessary. This is the sad reality that we must all face.

IS THIS ABOUT LILITH AND EVE?!?!?

No, this is not about teaching Jewish Mysticism or studies from the Koran or Kabbalah. You will not hear about Lilith, or how there exists a Dual Bloodline Serpent Seed. Please reserve judgment until after *ALL* of the evidence is presented. There is a high probability that you have never heard anything like this before.

Adam Rose on the Third Day

Did you know that Man was originally created on the Third Day and not the Sixth? Chances are, you were TOLD something different. We are off to a great start, aren't we? As was said earlier, the Creation Account will sound quite different than what is commonly 'preached'. We will begin by comparing Genesis chapter one, with Genesis chapter two.

Genesis

vs.

Genesis

II

Both Genesis one and Genesis two describe the Creation Account. However, some Scholars argue that the two accounts do not agree with one another. This is because the text appears to be teaching that the order in which Life was created is different in each chapter.

Genesis

vs.

Genesis

II

- Day Three: Plants and Trees
- Day Four: Lights in Heaven
- Day Five: Fish and Birds
- Day Six: Animals, Man and Woman

Genesis One teaches that Plants and Trees were created on Day Three. Lights in the Heaven were created on Day Four. Fish and Birds were created on Day Five. While Animals and Man were created last, on Day Six. Note that Man and Woman were created at the same time in Genesis One.

Genesis

I

- Day Three: Plants and Trees
- Day Four: Lights in Heaven
- Day Five: Fish and Birds
- Day Six: Animals, Man and Woman

vs.

Genesis

II

- Adam Created First
- Plants and Animals Next
- Woman Created Last

Genesis two however, appears to teach that Adam was the first form of Life created. Let us hear that again. Adam was the first form of Life created. After Adam was created, God then created Plants and Animals. After that, God created Woman. If this is True, then clearly this is a contradiction.

Genesis

- Day Three: Plants and Trees
- Day Four: Lights in Heaven
- Day Five: Fish and Birds
- Day Six: Animals, Man and Woman

vs.

Genesis

II

- Adam Created First
- Plants and Animals Next
- Woman Created Last

Contradiction Resolution

- Bible is in error and not to be read literally (it is “poetry”)
- Different authors (Yahwist, Elohist, Priestly, etc.)
- Two different races of Humans
- God created farm animals and cultivated crops of the field

Many attempts have been made to try and resolve this so called ‘glaring error’ in the Bible. Some say the entire Bible is full of mistakes anyhow, so why even bother? Some say that different Authors wrote Genesis and were not able to get their stories straight. Some say that two different races of Humans were created. None of these are the correct answer of course. One of the better resolutions suggests that Genesis Two is describing the creation of specific plants and animals that were made for the Garden only.

↑ Sixth Day ↑

The 'Farm of Eden'

In other words, everything in Genesis Two, according to the theory, happened on the Sixth Day. The plants and animals that were created after Adam, were specifically for agriculture. Thus, it should have been called the Farm of Eden. This sounds OK so far. Remember however, there must not be any other verses that contradict this resolution.

Genesis 2:4

“These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens.”

“These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens.” - Genesis 2:4. We are now in Genesis Two, just before the moment when Adam was created. Notice the timeline that is given. The events that are about to occur are happening on the Day the LORD made Earth and the Heavens. What day would this be?

Genesis 2:4

“These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens.”

Genesis 1:10

“And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.”

Genesis 1:13

“And the evening and the morning were the third day.”

“And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.” - Genesis 1:10. “And the evening and the morning were the third day.” - Genesis 1:13. The Earth was created on the Third Day. And to make sure we understand this correctly, God gave us another Witness.

Genesis 2:5

“And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.”

Before Creation of Plants

Third Day

“And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.” - Genesis 2:5. Not only are we on the Third Day, but we are also at the moment before any plants were created. In fact, there was no rain yet. So, what happens first on Day Three?

Genesis 2:7

“And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.”

Adam Formed on the Third Day

First Form of Life Created

“And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.” - Genesis 2:7. And there we have it. Adam was formed on Day Three. Now we see why Jesus rose on the Third Day. The connection is undeniable.

Genesis 2:4

“These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens.”

‘LORD’ Used for the First Time

Tetragrammaton (Word Made Flesh)

Those with a keen eye will notice a brand-new word being used for the first time in the Bible. Beginning with Genesis 2:4, we see the word ‘LORD’. This is the Tetragrammaton. Yod, Heh, Vav, Heh. This is the Word Made Flesh. The Tetragrammaton represents the quasi-physical, bodily form of Elohim. This is the personal form by which God interacts with the world and Man in a 3D environment. Later, this form would incarnate as Jesus Christ. What is important to understand here is that the LORD appeared for the first time on the Third Day of creation. Another Mystery solved.

Genesis 2:4

“These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens.”

DAY DOES NOT MEAN DAY!

(IT NOW MEANS SIX DAYS!!!)

Well, well. Look who decided to show up and ‘correct’ us... or rather, correct the Word of God. What verse is he changing this time?

Genesis 2:4

“These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the ~~day~~ [six days of creation] that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens.”

DAY DOES NOT MEAN DAY!

(IT NOW MEANS SIX DAYS!!!)

Ah yes. The old, 'Day does not mean Day', trick. Well, there you go. All we must do is take away from, and add unto, the Word of God. Once we add unto, and take away from, the Word of God, we can change the days of creation around until it says what the Mean Preacher wants it to say. Once we do that, the Farm solution will work!

Genesis 2:4

“These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the ~~day~~ [six days of creation] that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens.”

Do Not Change Scripture!

Just Say No!

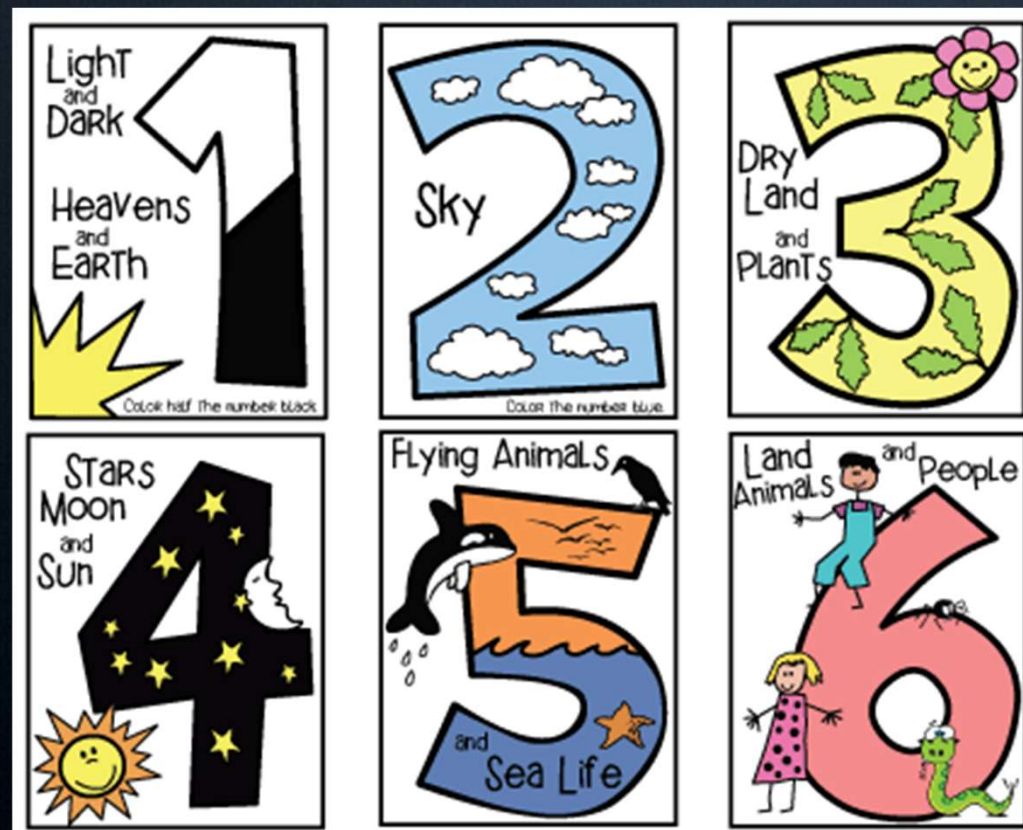

Sorry Mean Preacher. We are not going to change Scripture to make it match your pre-conceived notions. We will let Scripture lead us where we need to go. And that place is Genesis 1:27.

Genesis 1:27

“So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.”

Man Re-Created

You Are Here

Sixth Day

“So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.” - Genesis 1:27. This verse is referring to events that happened on the Sixth Day. Obviously, a Man and Woman are clearly being created here. But wait, didn't we just learn that Adam was created on the Third Day? How can this be? Did God create Man twice? Why yes! Yes, he did.

Adam's First Wife

(No, It Wasn't Lilith)

We will now look at the deaths of Adam and his Wife through the lens of Literal Interpretation. No words will be added or taken away from the Word of God. We will toss out any pre-conceived notions of how we 'imagine' the Fall of Man happened. And of course, the current false teachings of the Church are an absolute no-no.

Genesis 2:22

“And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.”

Adam's First Wife

“And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.” - Genesis 2:22. This is the moment Adam's first wife was created.

Genesis 2:22

“And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.”

Adam's First Wife

Yes, you heard that correctly. According to the Bible, Eve was not Adam's first Wife. As a matter of fact, Adam was not Eve's first Husband either. Is this Gnostic Heresy? Jewish Mysticism? No. This is what the Bible teaches when we simply let the text speak for itself. Observe.

Genesis 2:23

*“And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called

Adam's First Wife

“And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.” - Genesis 2:23. Something that is lost on most readers of the Biblical Text is that the very first Woman created was not named Eve, but rather, Ishshah. Nowhere is the name Eve mentioned until much later in the Creation Account. Most Bibles translate the word Ishshah as the more generic form, ‘Woman’. Ishshah, was the name the first Adam gave to this new creation. Thus, Ishshah was Adam’s first Wife. Conversely, the first Adam, or Adam 1.0, was Ishshah’s first husband. Confused? Do not worry. All will be made clear as we study the verses.

Genesis 2:23

*“And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones,
and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called

Strong's Hebrew 802: Ishshah
Definition: Woman

Adam's First Wife

Strong's Hebrew 801: Ishsheh
Definition: Offering made by fire

Altar of Sacrifice

Something worth noting here is that Strong's Hebrew number 801, which is spelled similarly to Ishshah, means 'offering made by fire'. There is a fascinating connection here that we will go over later in this presentation.

Genesis 2:19

“And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.”

Called = Name

“And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.” - Genesis 2:19. This verse teaches us that whatever Adam ‘called’ every Living Creature, that was their name. Thus, when Adam called his wife, ‘Woman’, that was indeed her name. Again, her name was not Eve, it was Ishshah.

Genesis 2:19

“And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.”

Called = Name

What did Adam call his Wife before the Fall?

Ask yourself this question. If the name, 'Eve', came after the Fall, what did Adam call his Wife before that? Have you not considered this question before? You better start! Try asking your Christian friends and watch their confused looks.

Genesis 3:6

“And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.”

Surely Die

Return to Dust

Adam 1.0 and Ishshah Died
Physically in This Verse

“And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.” - Genesis 3:6. It was at this precise moment that the first Adam, along with his first Wife Ishshah, died. How do we know? Because God said they would die. Did God lie? Of course not. Again, this was not a so called ‘Spiritual Death’, nor did they ‘begin to die’. The unfortunate couple had passed away, completely and totally, in every literal sense of the word. And it was in twenty-four hours or less. On that very day.

Genesis 3:6

“And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.”

Surely Die

???

Now the next question is obvious. If Adam and his Wife died, then how did we get here? After all, dead people can not produce offspring. Did God sprinkle Magick Fairy Dust on them to bring them back to life? Did god create another separate race of Humans? Perhaps we have gone too far here with this presentation. Surely, we have made a mistake somewhere. What possible answer could there be to solve this dilemma?

The World's First Reincarnation

Genesis 3:7

“And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.”

Ate Shrooms

Downloaded Info

Lilith

Third Eye

Cheated

“And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.” - Genesis 3:7. This verse is a Great Mystery to practically everyone on the planet right now. What exactly does the verse mean by the expression, ‘The Eyes of them both were opened’? Did Adam and his Wife take Magick Mushrooms and expand their consciousness? Did they have intercourse? Did they open their ‘Third Eye’? Did they cheat on each other with Lilith and the Serpent? Did they somehow instantly download knowledge like a scene from the Matrix? So many theories exist to try and explain this verse, yet none of them use the Bible to solve the Riddle.

Genesis 3:7

“And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.”

Eyes Opened = Raised From the Dead

It may be a Mystery to the rest of the world however, it is not a Mystery to the Student who understands the Literal Interpretation of the Creation Account. The answer is obvious. If Adam and his Wife were dead, then the opening of the eyes simply means that they were brought back to life again. Do we have Scriptural support for this? Yes.

Luke 24:31

“And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.”

“And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.” - Luke 24:31. Notice the phrase, ‘Eyes were opened’. This is very similar to the phrase found in the Genesis verse. When Jesus rose on the Third Day, he walked among the people of Jerusalem, however they did not recognize him at first. Eventually Jesus offered them a piece of bread, and it was at that moment that their ‘Eyes were opened’. Note that the Bread is representative of the flesh of Jesus. They partook of it, and their eyes were opened. Remember this.

Luke 24:31

“And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.”

Jesus is Raised From Death

Jesus Receives New Body

What were their eyes opened to? And what exactly did they know? It was at that precise moment that they KNEW Jesus had risen from the dead. In addition, they knew his body had somehow physically changed. Jesus went on to describe how he was not a Spirit, but flesh and bones. Yet even though Jesus had flesh and bones, he could appear and disappear. Where else does the phrase, ‘Eyes were opened’ appear?

Matthew 9:30

“And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.”

Jesus is Raised From Death

Jesus Receives New Body

Jesus Opens Their Eyes

Blind Men are Born Again

“And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.” - Matthew 9:30. This verse involves the healing of two men that were blind. Their bodies were changed physically. Perhaps their very DNA was altered to correct something from birth. The context and theme also suggests a conversion into Christianity and receiving the promise of becoming Born Again into a Glorified Body one day. We have yet another verse using the ‘Eyes were opened’ phrase.

Acts 9:8

“And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.”

Jesus is Raised From Death

Jesus Receives New Body

Jesus Opens Their Eyes

Jesus Blinds Saul

Saul Becomes Paul

“And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.” - Acts 9:8. Before Paul was called to become an Apostle and follow Jesus, he had a different name. His name used to be, Saul. Paul is another example of One who is converted. We have an added bonus here. Saul, ‘arose from the Earth’. It sounds as if a Reincarnation just occurred. Saul, born again as, Paul.

'Eyes Were Open' Verses:

- Can involve punishment

Jesus is Raised From Death

Jesus Receives New Body

Jesus Opens Their Eyes

Saul Becomes Paul

When we look at all the verses together, we see a common theme. Every use of the phrase, 'Eyes were opened', involves a personal encounter and interaction with Jesus. Every encounter is part of a larger context of being converted into Christianity with the promise of becoming Born Again into the Glorified Body. Each verse involves either a healing from Jesus, or a form of temporary punishment. Note that healing involves bodily change. One verse is set within the context of receiving a new Body. And finally, one verse is related to someone who received a New Name. We will now compare all of this to what happened in the Garden of Eden.

Genesis 3:7

“And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.”

Adam and Ishshah Raised

Couple Receives New Body

“And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.” - Genesis 3:7. As was mentioned earlier. This is the moment Adam and Ishshah were raised from the dead. It was God who physically opened their eyes by bringing them back to life.

Genesis 3:7

“And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.”

Adam and Ishshah Raised

Couple Receives New Body

God Opens Their Eyes

Couple are Born Again

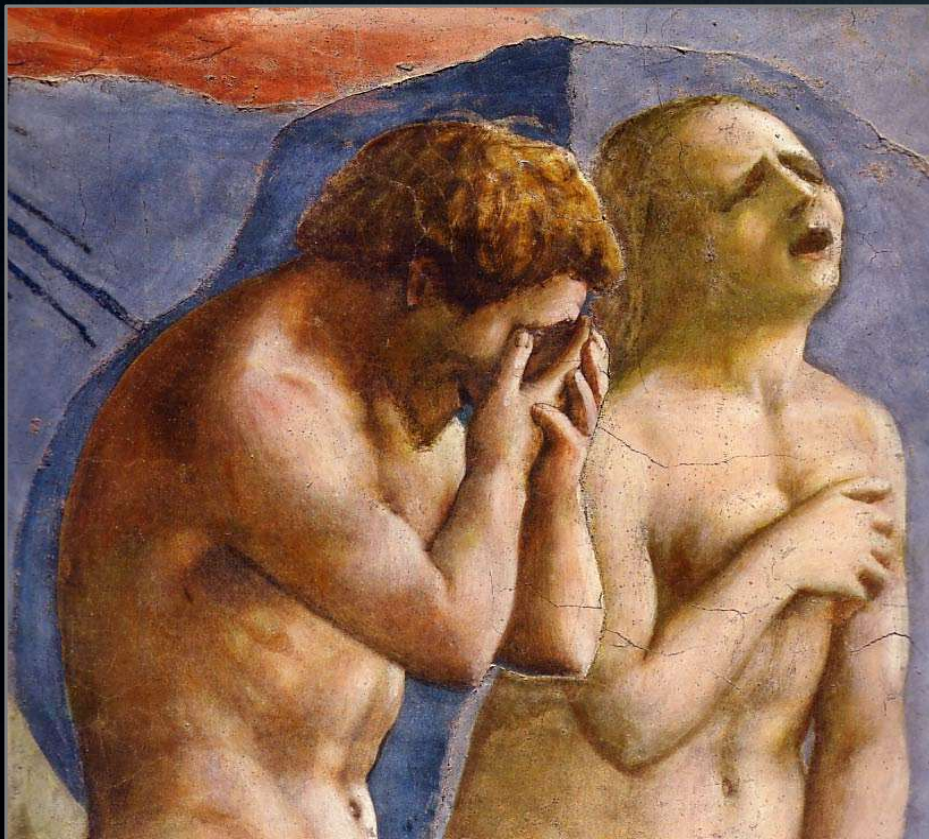

The couple had been Born Again. Note that this was NOT a so called ‘Spiritual Birth’. The Bodies and Souls of Adam and Ishshah had been changed, yet their Spirit remained the same. This is important to remember. Although the Body and Soul can change from one incarnation to the next, it always receives the SAME SPIRIT it had previously. We will go over this later when we learn about John the Baptist coming in the Spirit of Elijah. Often times, the new incarnation receives a New Name from that which they had previously. A perfect example of this, is how Ishshah’s name will be changed to something else.

Genesis 3:20

“And Adam called his wife’s name Eve; because she was the mother of all living.”

Adam and Ishshah Raised

Couple Receives New Body

God Opens Their Eyes

Couple are Born Again

Adam’s Name Remains

Ishshah Becomes Eve

“And Adam called his wife’s name Eve; because she was the mother of all living.” - Genesis 3:20. Because Ishshah’s body had been changed into a New Creation, otherwise known as REINCARNATION, Ishshah must now be given a new name. Adam names the Reincarnated Ishshah, Eve. Adam too becomes a New Creation; however, Adam’s name stayed the same. This is because there was a series of Adams. There was a First Adam, and there was a Last Adam.

1st Corinthians 15:45

“And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickenning spirit.”

Adam and Ishshah Raised

Couple Receives New Body

God Opens Their Eyes

Couple are Born Again

Ishshah Becomes Eve

“And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickenning spirit.” - 1st Corinthians 15:45. Jesus was the Last Adam. The Bible goes out of its way to make the Student understand the concept of several Adams, or a series of Adams. Here we see the word Quickenning again. Since we know what Quickenning is, we know what happened to Adam and Ishshah.

Adam and Ishshah Raised

Couple Receives New Body

God Opens Their Eyes

Couple are Born Again

Ishshah Becomes Eve

Now, when we compare all the 'Eyes were opened' verses, we can clearly see the connections between them. Adam and Ishshah walked with and had a personal relationship with God. Adam and Ishshah were 'Born Again' into new bodies. Their actions caused a physical change to their bodies. They received a punishment. And finally, one of them (Ishshah) received a New Name (Eve).

Luke 24:31

“And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.”

There is a Key difference in the types of bodies that are Quickened. When Jesus was raised from the dead, he ascended into Heaven in a Glorified Body. What about Adam and Ishshah? In what manner were they raised?

John 11:44

“And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.”

From the Dead

“And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.” - John 11:44. One possible way that Adam and Ishshah were raised from the dead would be that they rose in a similar manner to Lazarus, who died and was brought back to life by Jesus.

John 11:44

“And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.”

Lazarus is Raised

From the Dead

This scenario is unlikely because, as we will soon see, there was a complete and total physical change that occurred to Adam and Ishshah. When Lazarus was raised, his body did not change, other than to be healed. This was much more than a healing. In fact, something happened to the bodies of Adam and Ishshah that is pivotal to understanding our current Human Condition.

Resurrection

of Life

This scenario too is unlikely as they would have been given Glorified Bodies and would therefore no longer be able to bear Children. They would have also gone to Heaven. Another contradiction is that the Resurrection of Life is for the Saved as a reward. Adam and Ishshah disobeyed God, thus, punishment is what they deserved. There is one more scenario that fits the punishment aspect perfectly.

Resurrection

of Damnation

The most likely scenario is that, Adam and his Wife experienced what the Bible calls the ‘Resurrection of Damnation’. Now this may sound strange at first, however the Bible is very good at being redundant and teaching the same theme throughout its pages and books. What we are witnessing here is called Bible Typology. In other words, this is an Old Testament Prophecy of something that is found in the New Testament. More specifically, everything that we read pertaining to the fate of Adam and Ishshah has a corresponding verse in the Book of Revelation.

John 5:29

“And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.”

When all the evidence is added up, we will discover that the first Adam, along with his Wife Ishshah, died physically. They were then resurrected, judged, found guilty, passed through the Lake of Fire, and REINCARNATED into NEW HUMANS. Those new Humans are who we now refer to as Adam and Eve. They have the same bodies we all have now. We will now study the parallel between the Genesis Account and the Book of Revelation to see exactly how all this works.

Judgement Day

Book of Genesis

Book of Revelation

As the Book of Revelation acts as an Index to the Bible looking backward, similarly the Book of Genesis acts as a Table of Contents to the Bible looking forward. It contains highly compressed information that expands on itself as the Student gains more Biblical knowledge. By way of repeating patterns, the Holy Text contains messages and themes that are told many times over, using slightly different variations, characters, props, situations, etc. Understanding these repeating patterns is crucial to revealing the bigger picture that God is teaching us.

Therefore, in order to Truly understand what is happening to Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, we must compare the events that are taking place in Genesis to what is taking place in the rest of the Bible. More specifically, we will compare Genesis to the Book of Revelation. If there are any correlations between the two Books, then our efforts will be rewarded with an even greater understanding of Scripture. We will begin with Judgment Day.

Revelation 20:12

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.”

Resurrection of Damnation

‘Twice Dead’

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.” - Revelation 20:12. Here we are at Judgement Day. And who is it that will be judged? The Dead. But wait. How can they be dead if they are standing before God? We already know the answer. They are not ‘Spiritually Dead’, they are Twice Dead. In other words, this judgement is for the Unsaved who are about to be cast into the Lake of Fire.

Revelation 20:12

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.”

According to Works

Note that the Unsaved are judged according to their works. An important question is asked. If everyone is to ‘burn for all Eternity’ in the Lake of Fire, then what purpose does it serve to tally up everyone’s deeds and works? After all, Fire is not a respecter of persons and burns everyone equally. We all experience the same pain no matter how wicked or innocent we are.

Revelation 20:12

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.”

Evil Man vs. Innocent Girl

Same Punishment?

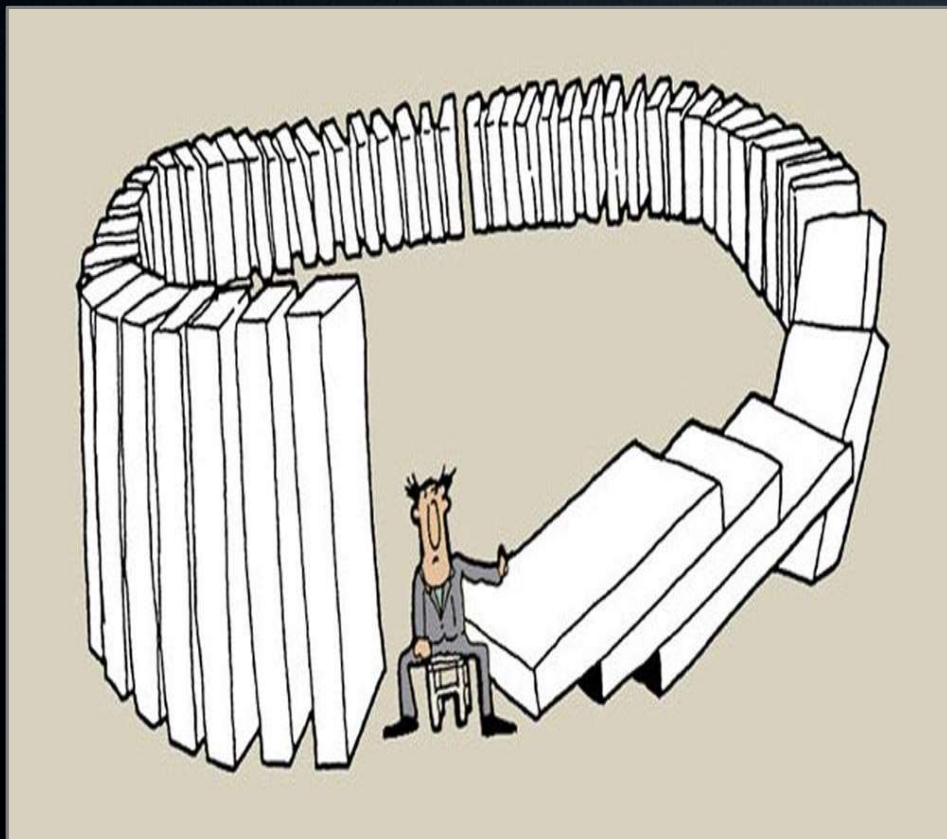

According to Church teachings, a sweet Hindu girl will experience just as much suffering and torments as Hitler for example, just because she believed in a different God. How is this fair? Why bother even trying to be a decent person if everyone receives the exact same punishment? This is where the Church falls short on answers. Ironically, it is the Hindu Girl that has the Wisdom to answer the question. Look at the phrase, ‘according to their works’. This has the notion of Karma attached to it. And although the word Karma is not in the Bible, a similar concept may be found within its teachings.

“Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.” - Galatians 6:7. Indeed. Reaping what One has sown is a Universal Truth we can all understand. And it is in this verse that we have our answer as to why the deeds of the Unsavd are recorded and judged by.

It is to hand out the proper sentence to be carried out in the NEXT LIFE. Yes, this is the wool that has been pulled over the eyes of Christians for thousands of years now. God really is just. God really is fair. Everyone gets exactly what they deserve, even if it means they get it in their next life.

...To Deserve This?

Have you ever wondered why life seems fairer for some people than others? Why are some folks born into wealth, good health and looks, intellect and personality, etc. while others are not? Why do some folks suffer more than others? You now have the answer. According to the Word of God, we all had a previous life. We did something wrong in our previous life and now we are paying the price for it. We were part of that group that was judged Unsaved and Unworthy. We will cover all of this in more detail as we move along in this presentation. For now, we will 'circle back' to Adam and Eve to see what Judgment Day has in store for them.

“And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:” - Genesis 3:14. The first to be judged after the partaking of the Forbidden Fruit is the Serpent. One of the most important things to recognize here is the fact that the Serpent, which the Book of Revelation calls Satan and the Devil, has had a complete physical makeover. Whatever form Satan had before the Fall is now gone. In other words, for all intents and purposes, Satan has just been Reincarnated.

Meditate on the magnitude of this Revelation for a moment. This verse is clearly describing a being that had one form one minute, then was transformed into another form the next minute. A kind of Reincarnation has clearly just occurred, yet how many times have you heard a Pastor, or Church, use that word to describe what just happened? Chances are, never. The Bible does in fact have a saying for this process.

2nd Thessalonians 2:7

“For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.” - 2nd Thessalonians 2:7. ‘Mystery of Iniquity’ is one of many expressions the Bible uses to describe the process of Reincarnation. Now you know what that means! Later we will learn that Satan is Reincarnated many times in the Bible. So, if Satan is judged to be Reincarnated, then that would mean Adam and Ishshah will be Reincarnated as well. What kind of bodies will they have?

Genesis 3:16

She will be Reincarnated into a being that is designed to produce offspring by a brand-new process called ‘Conception’. Her NEW BODY will now have reproductive organs. She will be renamed as Eve.

Even if the only change was for Eve to experience sorrow during Childbirth, at bare minimum her physiology had to have been altered in order to accomplish this objective.

“And Adam called his wife’s name Eve; because she was the mother of all living.” - Genesis 3:20. Since Ishshah became a NEW creation, she gets a new name. And now we know why Eve is called the ‘Mother of All Living’. This was a title given to her because, once again, she had been the one to inherit the Uterus after the Fall. From whom did Eve inherit her reproductive organs? From her Earth Mother, Mystery Babylon. We will go over this in detail in a moment.

Genesis 3:17 - “And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life;”

The details of how Adam’s body changed is a bit obscured. We see that the ‘ground’ is cursed, however the ground is obviously not part of Adam’s body. Or, is it?

Thus, the Ground has more than one meaning here. In a sense, the Ground is representative of the Womb in which we are born out of. Mother Earth. This means that the Seed that is sown into the Ground or the Womb of Mother Earth, is also cursed. Think of Cain and what he did to his Brother, Abel.

So great is this Mystery to the average Christian. Once again, because the Church refuses to teach the Truth, more lies are necessary in order to keep the narrative going. We will just skip over those lies and get to the point. The so called, ‘Serpent’, Satan was turned into, is what we call the Phallus. Its seed is what we call Sperm. Yes, that is what the Seed of the Serpent is. It is in the testicles of every Male on the planet. We are of the Father, the Devil. Literally.

The Seed of the Woman is what we call Ovary. Do not be deceived. Contrary to what the Church often tells folks, Jesus is NOT the Seed of the Woman. Jesus is the Seed of the Heavenly Father, and the Seed of Abraham. And there we have it. Adam and Eve inherited reproductive organs from Satan, our Earthly Father and Mystery Babylon, our Earthly Mother. When Adam and Eve were resurrected and had their Eyes opened, they saw that something had changed. Something new had been added to their bodies. They then came up with a plan to 'cover' and hide their new organs in hopes that God would not notice.

‘Shameful’ Body Parts

Genesis 3:7

“...and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.”

No Pajamas On?

Or Something Else?

“...and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.” - Genesis 3:7. The term, ‘Naked’, is a word in the Bible that is often assumed to mean One who has no clothes on. While this may be True for some verses, this is not the case for all verses in the Bible. Genesis 3:7 may be an example of one of these verses in which the word, ‘Naked’, means something very different than what we are generally taught. We will now explore this alternative meaning.

2nd Corinthians 5:2

“For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven.”

No Pajamas On?

Or Something Else?

Clothed Upon

Like This?

“For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven.” - 2nd Corinthians 5:2. In this verse we can plainly see that the word, ‘clothed’, is referring to a House, and not blue-jeans and a t-shirt. Obviously One does not get up in the morning and put on bricks, mortar, windows, carpeting, etc. Thus, there is a deeper meaning here that we must uncover. The ‘House’ that we will be clothed with comes from Heaven. This is a very important clue. The next verse reads...

2nd Corinthians 5:3

“If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.”

No Pajamas On?

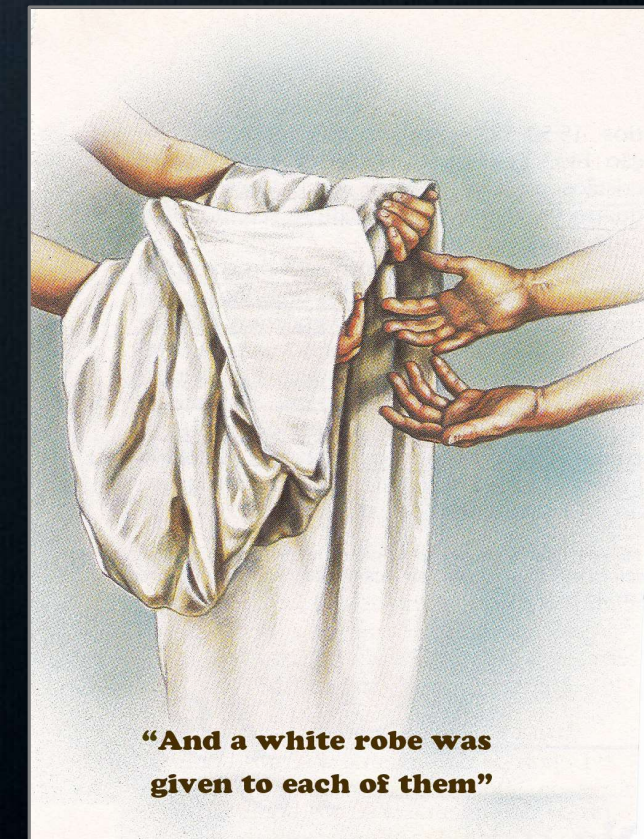

Or Something Else?

Clothed Upon

Like This?

Clothed = Saved

New Glorified Body

“If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.” - 2nd Corinthians 5:3. The word ‘Clothed’ is being contrasted to the word ‘Naked’. In other words, the Saved that go to Heaven are Clothed. The Unsaved are not. What does that say about Adam and Eve being Naked? Scripture is teaching us that Adam and Eve belong to the group that are NOT Saved! This is the group that will be thrown into the Lake of Fire. Meditate on the importance of this lesson. The final verse in this series summarizes everything that is happening to the unfortunate couple.

2nd Corinthians 5:4

“For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.” - 2nd Corinthians 5:4. The ultimate meaning of being 'Naked' has to do with not being clothed with a Tabernacle. In other words, not being clothed with a BODY. For those that are having difficulty understanding the King James rendering of the verse, here is The New Living Translation rendering...

2nd Corinthians 5:4 (New Living Translation)

“While we live in these earthly bodies, we groan and sigh, but it’s not that we want to die and get rid of these bodies that clothe us. Rather, we want to put on our new bodies so that these dying bodies will be swallowed up by life.”

At this point, Adam and Eve exist as Soul and Spirit only. However, because Adam and Eve underwent the Resurrection of Damnation, they will NOT be clothed with a Heavenly Tabernacle Body.

Genesis 3:21

“Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them.”

Did God Kill Animals...

...to Clothe Adam and Eve?

“Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them.” - Genesis 3:21. Here is yet another verse in which the Church must hide the Truth of Reincarnation from the masses. Christians are told the lie that God ‘killed an animal’ to clothe the couple and that it was a picture of Jesus being killed. This is not Scriptural. So, what were these Skins that Adam and Eve were clothed with? Did God ‘pimp’ the Couple out with Leopard patterns? The answer is found in the Book of Job.

“Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.” - Job 10:11. Do you see it now? God clothed Adam and Eve with Skin and Flesh. Simply put, God clothed Adam and Eve with a new Tabernacle Body because their old one had passed away.

Ishshah Reincarnates as Eve

New Body = New Name

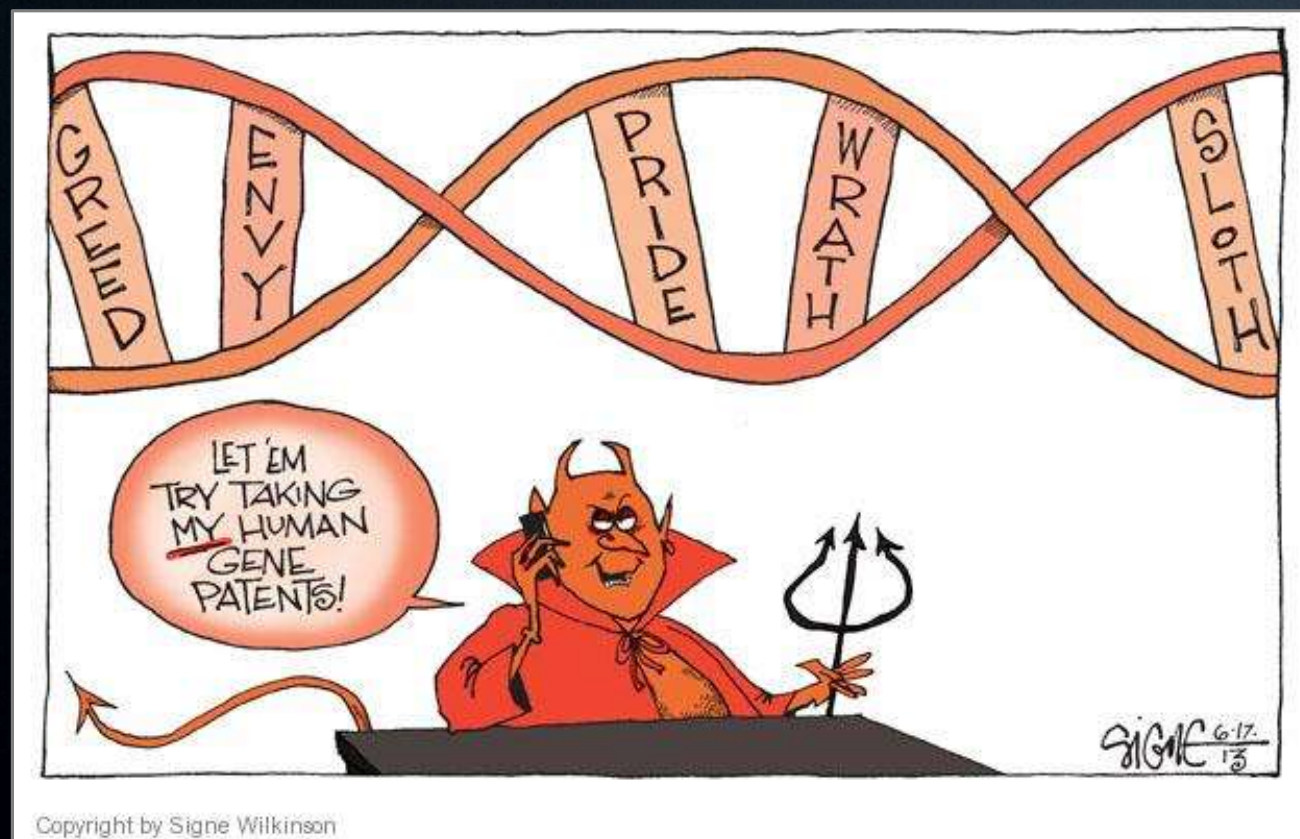

This is why Ishshah was given a new name. She had been reincarnated via the hand of God into a completely new and different Body. Adam as well. And since there were no pre-existing Mother and Father on the Fallen Earth to be reincarnated from, God had to perform this task manually himself. There was, however, a pre-existing Mother and Father that existed *before* the Fall.

What does Satan cover? Us. Satan's Genetics is what is covering our Bodies at this very moment. Yes, you heard that correctly. The 'Skin and Flesh', that God clothed Adam and Eve with, are the product of the Union of our Earthly Mother and Earthly Father. We inherited their Genetics.

The 'shame' that Adam and Eve covered up is what we call our 'Private Parts', or Reproductive Organs. That is what had changed after the Fall. Adam and Eve tried to 'cover their shame', or rather cover the parts of their bodies that were different, in hopes that God would not notice. The Forbidden Fruit was a Covenant. It was a 'deal with the devil' so to speak. According to Law, God had to fulfill the Contract. What was this Covenant? Adam and Ishshah were given a choice as to which Parents they wished to be incarnated from. They chose Satan and Mystery Babylon. God granted their wish.

"Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do..." - John 8:44. When Jesus spoke these words, he meant it literally. And since we all come from Adam and Eve, this verse applies to every Human Being on the planet. Satan is literally our Earthly Father and where the Human Race inherits its genetics from. Those that do not take their Bibles literally, are missing out on some of the most profound teachings this reality has to offer. Of course, where there is a Father, there is a Mother. We will now take a look at where the 'other half' of our Genetics comes from.

Two Trees, Two Mothers

One of the greatest Keys to understanding how Reincarnation works in the Bible is to understand what the Forbidden Fruit is. Christians are often taught that the Forbidden Fruit is a Great Mystery in the Bible, and that there is no specific verse describing exactly what it is. Various theories have been proposed ranging from a Fig, to Grapes, to Pomegranates, and of course the Apple. The reason the answer is so elusive is because Truth is often too difficult to receive. The Word of God actually does have a verse that describes precisely what the Forbidden Fruit is. However, because the verse may be shocking to hear, we will go slowly and carefully before revealing it.

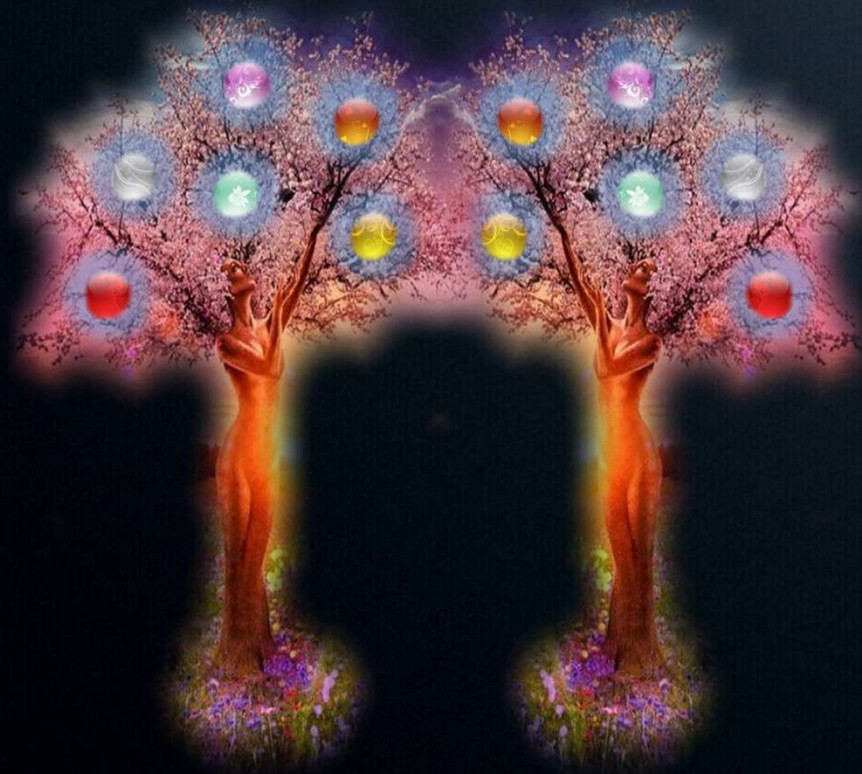

One of the greatest characteristics of the Bible is how the concept of what is Good, and what is Evil, are in contrast with one another. The more the Student studies, the more these contrasts become obvious and the more One can differentiate between the two. Using this tool, the Student can often find meanings to difficult passages by looking for opposites and comparing them. Thus, in order to gain a greater understanding of the Forbidden Fruit, we will examine its opposite, the Fruit of the Tree of Life.

Revelation 22:2

“In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.”

“In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.” - Revelation 22:2. Right away we see that the Tree of Life is a 'Her'. It is not Jesus as some wrongly assume. The Tree of Life yields twelve different kinds of Fruit. One kind each month. Obviously, this is not an ordinary Tree that we are used to that bares one manner of Fruit once a year. There is a deeper meaning here.

Revelation 22:2

Something that is almost never taught in Church is that much of the Book of Revelation describes Human Physiology. Long story short, Fruit produced by a Woman on a monthly cycle or Period, is what we call Menstruation. That is what is being depicted here. The Fruit is the Ovum. The Tree therefore is a picture of a Woman's Ovary.

Revelation 22:2

The 'Leaves' are a picture of the Covering of Skins that we learned about earlier. They are representative of the Genetics of the Glorified Body.

In this verse, we learn that New Jerusalem is a picture of Sarah, who gives birth to the Seed of Abraham. Therefore, the Tree of Life is a picture of the Ovary of Sarah. Sarah’s Ovum is fertilized by the River of Life proceeding out of the Masculine Throne. The Father represents Abraham, and the Lamb represents the Seed of Abraham, i.e., The Word of God. The Blood of Jesus. Three in Heaven bare record of the Earthly Spirit, Water and Blood.

Thus, we have the New Earth as Sarah, the New Jerusalem as Sarah's Uterus or Womb, the Tree of Life as Sarah's Ovary and finally, the Fruit of the Tree of Life as Sarah's Ovum, or Zygote. Armed with this knowledge, we can now go back to the Book of Genesis to apply what we have learned.

Mystery Babylon

“And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother’s blood from thy hand.” - Genesis 4:11. After Cain killed his brother Abel, we are taught that Earth opened HER mouth to drink the Blood. If the New Earth is Sarah, and she is our future Heavenly Mother, then who is our current Earthly Mother? The clue is right there for all to see. Who is the Woman that drinks the Blood of the Saints?

It is NOT the Vatican that has slain all the Prophets and Saints. Do not be deceived by False Doctrine. Planet Earth is Mystery Babylon. And, it is from Mystery Babylon that the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil springs forth.

Yes, the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil represents Mystery Babylon's Ovary. What is Her Fruit? You guessed it. The Forbidden Fruit is Mystery Babylon's Ovum, fertilized by the Seed of the Serpent to become the Zygote by which all of Mankind has been conceived of. And now we are ready to reveal the verse that describes the Forbidden Fruit in all its spectacularly disturbing detail. You may want to be sitting down for this.

The Forbidden Fruit was there all along, hidden in plain sight. The Forbidden Fruit is what is produced during fornication and the Moment of Conception. Stunning, isn't it? Shame on the Church for not recognizing the obvious and keeping this important teaching from the masses! Although maybe we should give them a break on this one.

When we now put all these clues together, we find that Earth represents Mystery Babylon, Earthly Jerusalem represents Mystery Babylon's Uterus or Womb, the Temple in Jerusalem represents Mystery Babylon's Ovary, and the Most Holy Place represents the 'Heart of the Earth', where Jesus went to sprinkle His Blood in order to fertilize the Ovum of Mary. It is important to note here that Jesus provided his own fertilization, or Seed. Thus, the Ovum of Mary was not fertilized by the Seed of the Serpent, but by the Seed of the Heavenly Father which the Bible calls the Order of Melchizedek.

Ye Shall Be as Gods

Genesis 3:5

“For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.”

“For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.” - Genesis 3:5. These words were spoken to Ishshah by the Serpent. What exactly does it mean to be, ‘as the Gods’? Is it simply a matter of knowing good and evil, or is there more to it? Did Adam and his Wife actually become Gods? This is another example of how words in the Bible may not mean what we think they mean.

Genesis 3:5

“For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.”

‘Powerslave’ Album Cover

Slave to the Power of Death

In 1984, a heavy Metal band by the name of Iron Maiden produced an album called ‘Powerslave’. The album featured a song by the same name in which a God describes a life of power and control. In the chorus, the God complains that he must eventually die. “Why can’t I live on?” the God asks. In the final verse of the song, the God claims that he is ultimately a slave to the power of Death.

The Dying and Rising Deity

Common Narrative

There is a concept in religion and mythology called, “The Dying and Rising God, or Deity”. The basic principle is that Gods die. After death, they somehow come back to life again, either through Resurrection, or Reincarnation. If their knowledge of Good and Evil is retained, they become stronger and more powerful with each incarnation. Usually, said retained knowledge is used to benefit themselves, rather than uplift everyone around them.

Ye Shall Be as...

...the Dying Gods

Could this be what the Serpent was alluding to when speaking to Adam and his Wife? A cycle of death and rebirth, death and rebirth, with perhaps a chance of retaining past-life memories, to advance in the next life?

Psalms 82:6-7

"I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High. But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes."

Ye ARE Gods...

...But Ye Shall DIE

"I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High. But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes." - Psalms 82:6-7. The answer is YES. This verse helps define what the meaning of the word, 'Gods' is. A God is One who will die, and fall. By doing so, One will finally have their 'eyes open', knowing Good and Evil. Conversely, those of us that are alive, have yet to have our eyes opened.

Isaiah 14:12

Satan Falls and Incarnates as Lucifer

Lucifer is the King of Babylon

“How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!” - Isaiah 14:12. The Spirit of Satan had reincarnated once again as another Antichrist called, ‘The King of Babylon’. God calls The King of Babylon, ‘Lucifer’. It is important to note here that, it is Satan that falls and becomes Lucifer. It is NOT the other way around, as some teach. Satan is Spirit. Lucifer is flesh and blood. Lucifer is also likened to a Tree that is cut down by a Lumberjack.

Isaiah 14:8

“Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.”

Lucifer is Cut Down

The Trees Rejoice

“Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.” - Isaiah 14:8. Trees are often likened to people. This is further evidence that Lucifer was a ‘Flesh and Blood’ Man, and not an Angel that somehow fell to become Satan.

NAS: from heaven, O star of the morning, son

KJV: from heaven, O Lucifer, son

Angel and Child

Many Bible translations replace the word, Lucifer, with, 'Morning Star', or 'Day Star'. Thus, they connect the word, 'Son', with the word, 'Star'. Why is this important? Because a Star in the Bible is not just representative of an Angel, but also representative of the Spirit of a Child that is yet to be born. Scripture often describes these Children as 'Falling Stars'.

Revelation 9:1

“And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.”

Shooting Star

Angel Falls to Earth

“And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.” - Revelation 9:1. In this remarkable passage, we find that Satan, the Star that is always falling, will fall yet another time to the Earth. Again, this is the Spirit of Satan that will become a physical Child, and ultimately another Lucifer type of Antichrist. The image on the left depicts a meteor falling to Earth. We typically call them ‘Shooting Stars’. Many Scholars suggest that this is what the Bible refers to when it talks about Stars falling from Heaven. Meditate on the image for a moment. What does it remind you of?

Do you see it now? Mystery Babylon receives the Blood, or the Spirit and Soul of a new Child who will be curiously wrought in the Lowest Parts of the Earth. Falling Stars are also a picture of us before we were born. We fell from Heaven to become a Child of Hell just as Jesus proclaimed. Before the Earth was created, we Morning Stars sang together. Do you remember?

Past Life Memories

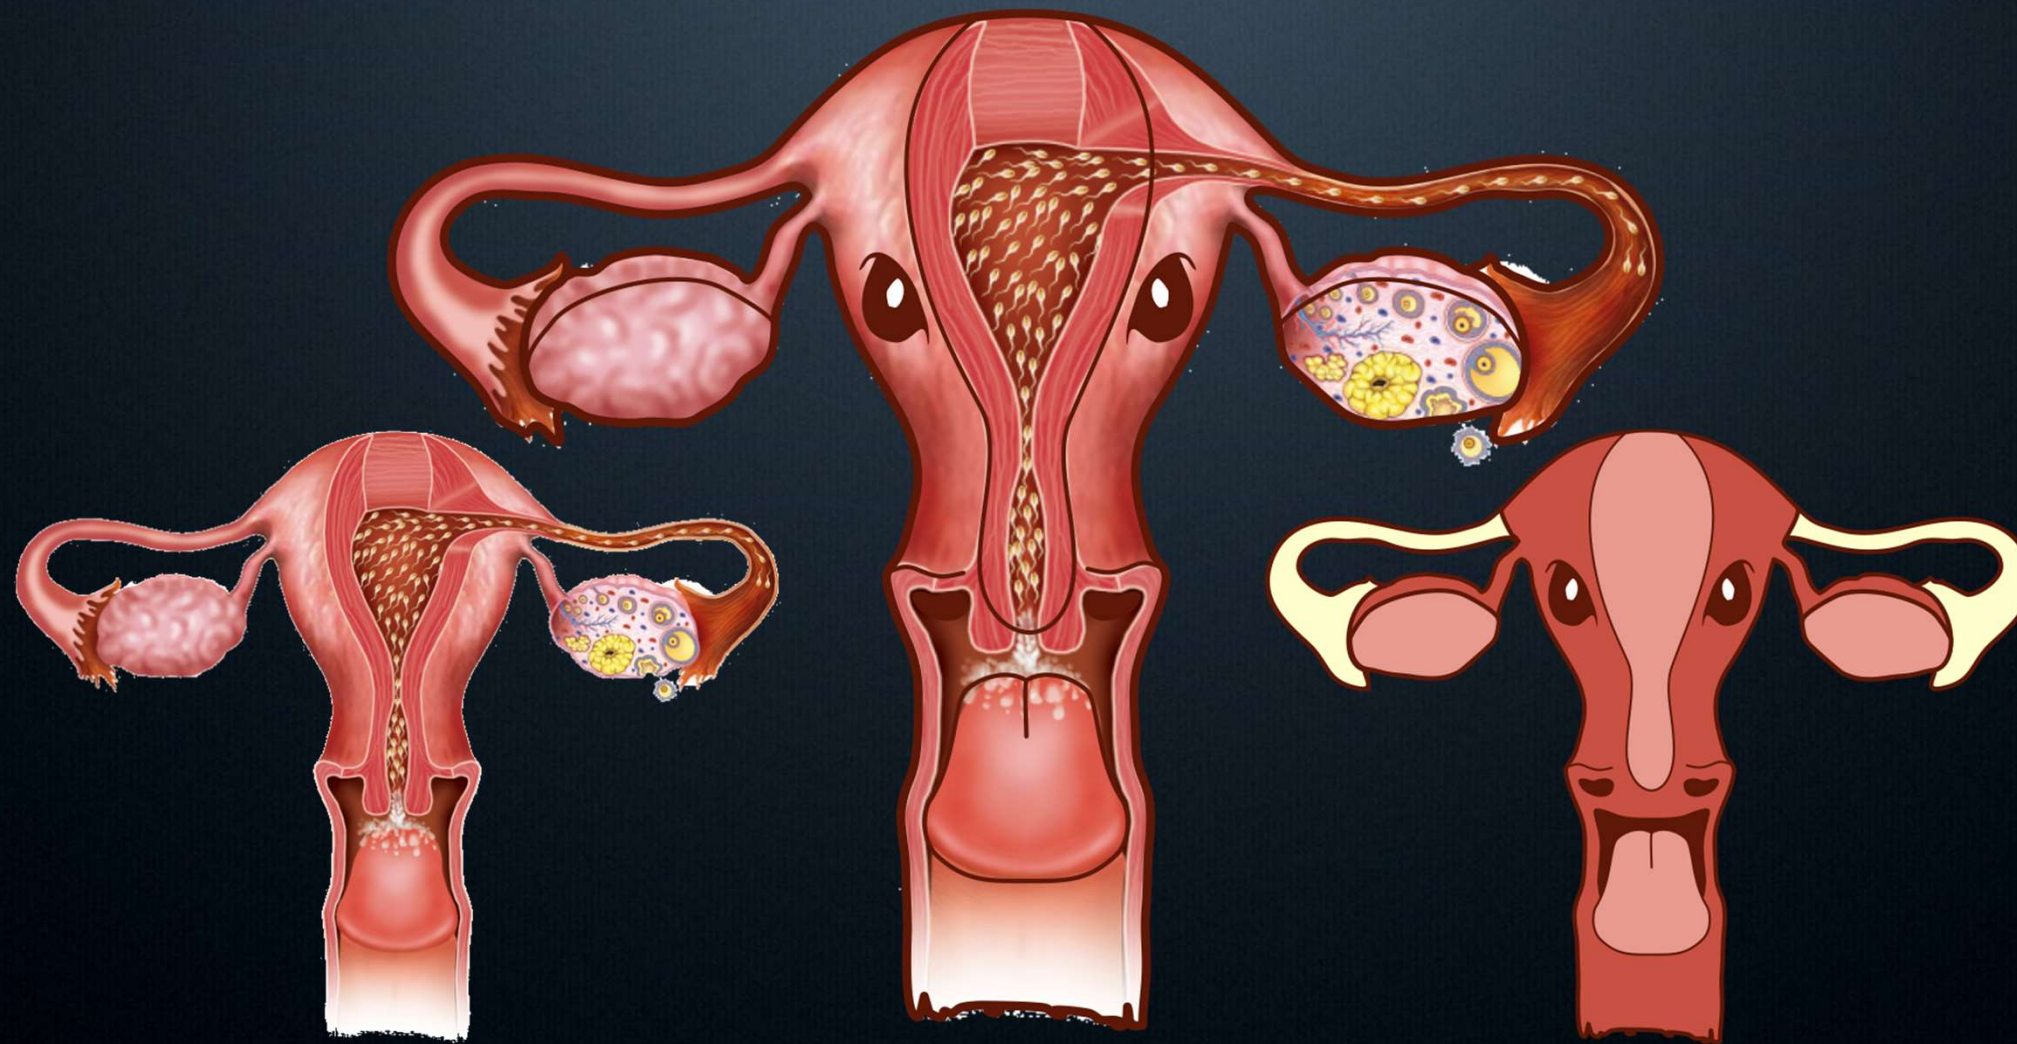

Knowledge Retained

Now, since we already know what the 'Pit' is, we can deduce that this next Reincarnation of Satan will be either from the Womb of an Earthly Mother, or some form of 'birthing chamber', whether it be natural, or unnatural. God allows this to happen by giving Satan the 'Key' to escape the prison. How much past life knowledge does Satan retain with each incarnation? If said knowledge grows exponentially, then Satan grows more powerful with each cycle.

Isaiah 14:15

“Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.”

Female Reproductive System

“Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.” - Isaiah 14:15. The ‘Sides of the Pit’ is again an allusion to the Female Reproductive System. The Cycle is complete. The ultimate fate of Lucifer, The King of Babylon, will be to be cast into the Pit of the Womb to be reincarnated again and again. Each head of Satan and each head of the Beast reflects how many times this reincarnation process has occurred.

The Reincarnation Portal

(A.K.A. The Lake of Fire)

We are still interpreting the story of Adam and Eve's judgment in the Garden of Eden, and there is one final Key to the Mystery that we must 'Covereth'.

Genesis 3:24

“So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.”

Cherubim and a Flaming Sword

Turning and Whirling

“So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.” - Genesis 3:24. The final fate of Adam and Eve was to ‘pass through the Fire’. The Cherubim and Flaming Sword is a picture of the Lake of Fire. More specifically, it is a picture of the ‘other side’, or exit, out of the Lake of Fire. Remember, the Lake of Fire is a Portal that has two sides. And depending on which side it is being viewed from, its physical appearance can vary greatly.

Genesis 3:24

“So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.”

Viewed from its Entrance

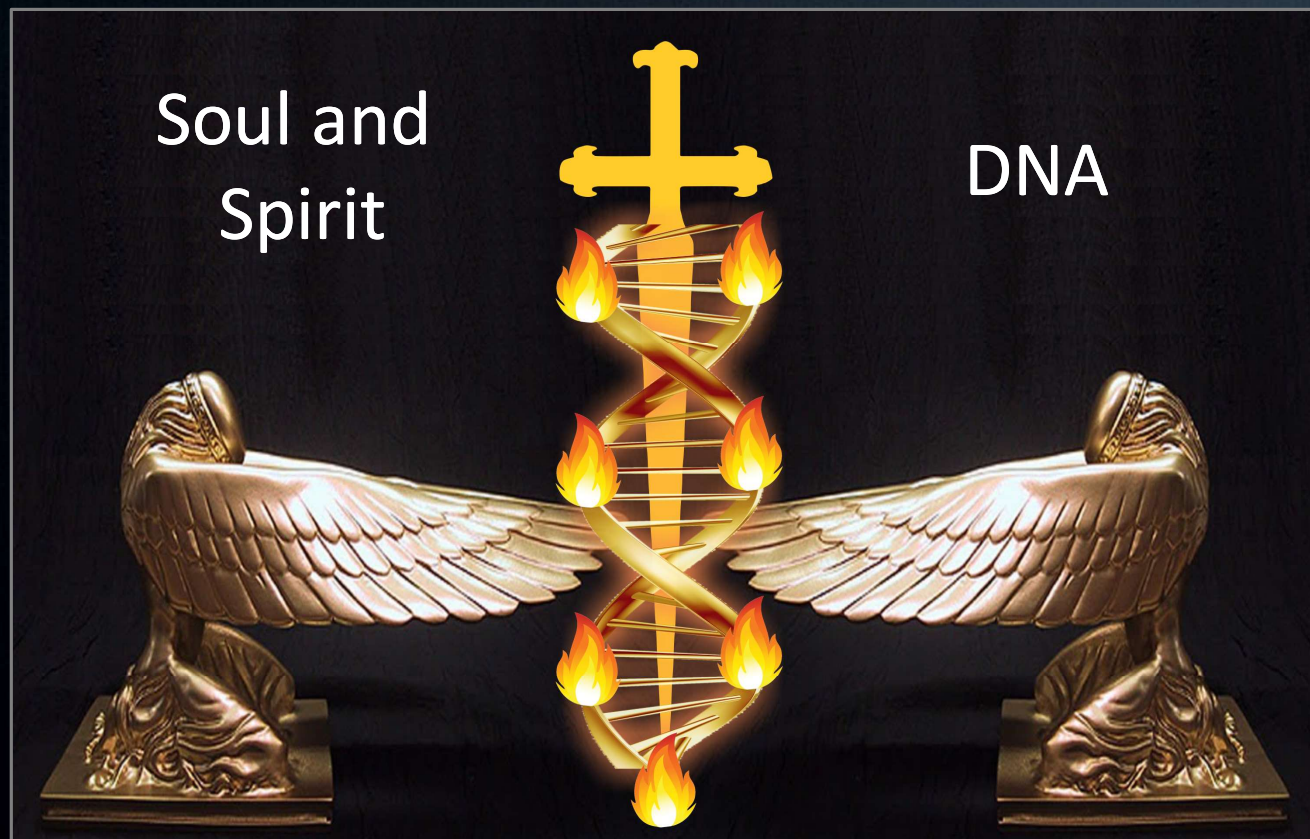

If One were looking at the Lake of Fire from the viewpoint of being thrown into it, the Lake of Fire may indeed look like a fiery lake burning with Brimstone. This would be the entrance. If we now compare the image of the entrance on the right, to the image of the exit on the left, we see they are not quite the same. So, what is going on here? Why the difference? The answer is found in the Most Holy Place of the Temple.

Hebrews 4:12

Cherubim and a Flaming Sword

Turning and Whirling

Lake of Fire

Viewed from its Exit

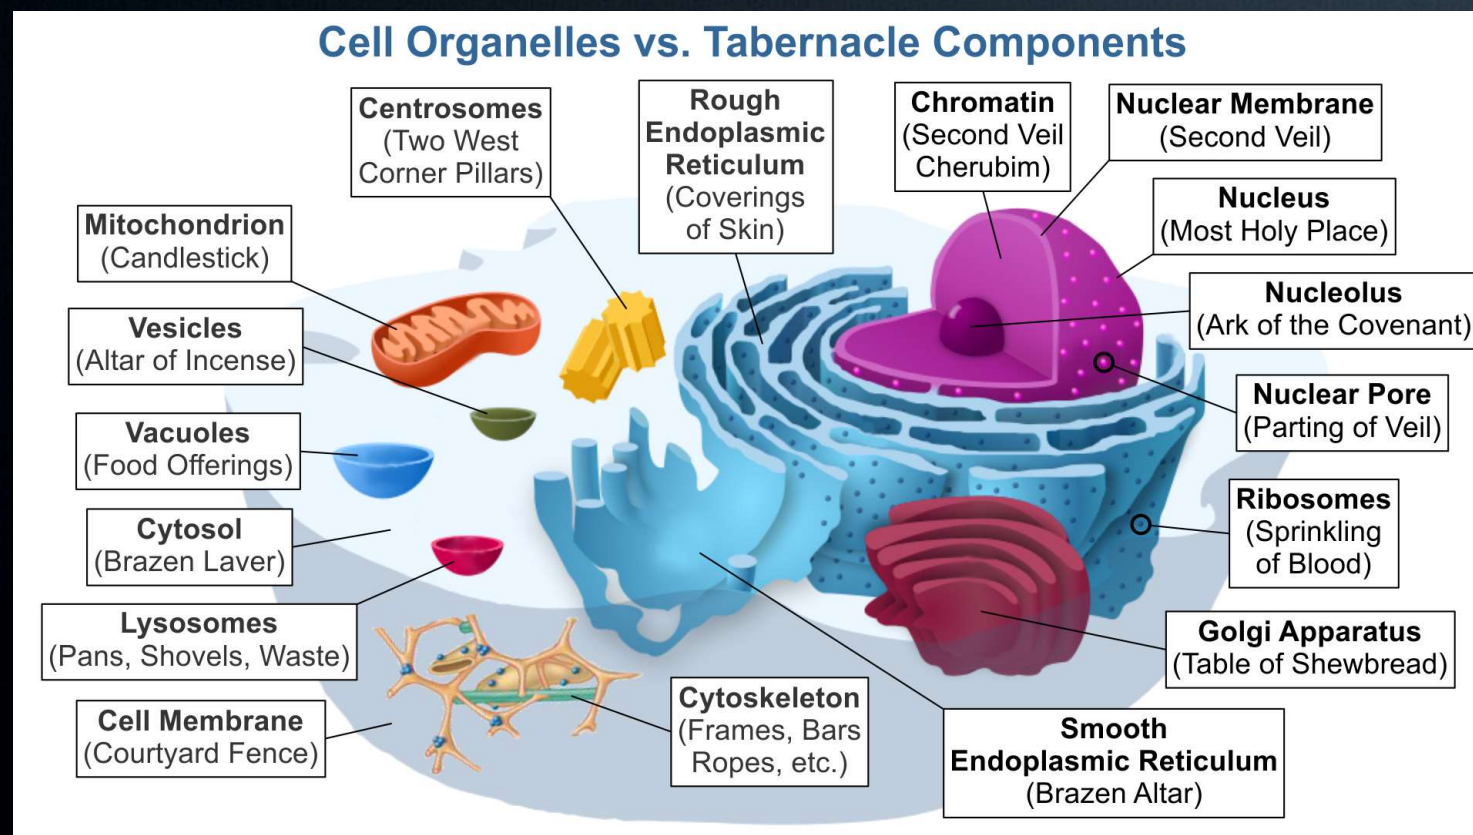

Now we see a strong resemblance between what the Guarding Cherubim in the Garden of Eden look like, compared to the Ark of the Covenant in the Most Holy Place. The Flaming Sword is a representation of DNA. More specifically, it is a picture of where Soul and Spirit are divided. Soul is the Word of God. It is the information, or letters, that make up a Lifeform's DNA. The Spirit is the Energy that quickens said DNA and giveth Life. The Body is what is formed once these two ingredients are combined within the Ovum. This leads us to the Tabernacle in the Wilderness.

1st Corinthians 6:19

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?”

Scale Model of Human Zygote

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?” - 1st Corinthians 6:19. This information will be covered in greater detail in a separate presentation. For now, just understand that the Tabernacle in the Wilderness was a scale model and picture of a Human Egg Cell at the Moment of Conception. In other words, a Zygote. The various components, or Furniture, of the Tabernacle, match precisely with the components, or Organelles, of the Biological Cell. This is not simply conjecture, or arbitrary. This is precisely what the Word of God is teaching. It is beyond extraordinary that this information is in a book that is thousands of years old.

Ezekiel 28:13 - "Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created."

Previously, we read the verse that described Satan being the Anointed Cherub that Covereth. This is the preceding verse. Scripture connects the Cherubim of Eden, with the Ark of the Covenant. The Covering of Satan became the Covering for the Human Race. The Precious Stones represent Nucleobases. Humans literally have Satan's DNA in their genetics.

And thus, the Reincarnation Cycle is complete. Those that are thrown into the Lake of Fire, pass through it. Once on the other side, they emerge in the Heart of the Earth, which is the Most Holy Place of the Female Egg Cell. They are quite literally 'Born Again', not from incorruptible flesh, but corruptible.

Perhaps for some, the idea of passing through the fires of the Temple Reincarnation Portal, conjures thoughts and imaginations of a wondrous adventure in the next life. Perchance there will be some mischief, and folly, as the Traveling Man passes from West to East, down the twisting turning roads of Life, searching for that Shining Wisdom. What will Mom be like? Will she be Wicked? Will she be Virtuous? Will life be easy or difficult? Will the Traveler make it to retirement? Such a gamble the Initiate will take! Many traps lie in the way. Remember, this world is a PRISON meant for Correction. It would be Prudent to move past this experience rather than repeat it. Choose wisely.

Vesta is the 'Everlasting Fire' of the Hearth

A big clue is the word 'Topheth'. In-depth research into the meaning of this name, leads us to a Goddess called 'Vesta'. She is the Goddess of the Hearth, and Everlasting Fire.

Hestia's Brother is Hades

'Hades' Found Ten Times in Scripture

The word Hades, which is found ten times in the original Greek from which the New Testament is translated from, is the Brother of Hestia. Thus, since Hestia and Hades are Siblings, it would make sense that Hestia would be found in the New Testament as well, albeit a bit occulted. The King James version uses the word Hell in place of Hades. One verse in which the word Hades is used, describes a Gate.

The Entrance of the Womb of New Jerusalem is called the Pearly Gates.

Conversely, the entrance to the Womb of Mystery Babylon is called the Gates of Hell. Note that the 'Rock' Jesus is referring to is Abraham's Seed. This is an obvious reference to the fact that Male Seed enters the Womb, via a Woman's 'Gate'. In the Book of Job, we find an interesting link between the Gate and the Womb.

“Who closed the gates to hold back the sea when it burst from the womb of the earth?” - Job 38:8 \(Good News Translation\). The Earth, as you already know, is Mystery Babylon, our Earthly Mother. Thus, the fact that Earth has a Womb should be of no surprise. She has Gates as well. The Gates hold back the Amniotic Fluid, or Sea. The references to childbirth should be obvious here as well.

Job 38:8 (Good News Translation)

“Who closed the gates to hold back the sea when it burst from the womb of the earth?”

Vesta's Forbidden Image

One final note about Vesta. It turns out that Vesta's image is almost never depicted in art. Why? Because it is too obscene. The manifestation of Vesta is literally the moment of conception. She is a flaming phallus or Fascinus, impregnating a Womb. And there we have it. Those tossed into the Lake of Fire pass through the passion flames of Vesta and are immediately conceived into another corrupt Human Body. The Mystery of Iniquity (Reincarnation) is complete.

Sacred 'Cow'

Yes, even the Golden Calf of Exodus is a picture of the Earth Mother. More specifically, the Golden Calf was Hathor who later became Isis. Hathor is also represented by Hagar, the Egyptian Woman. Hagar represents Mt Sinai, the Old Testament and bondage to the Reincarnation Cycle.

“Now Sarai Abram's wife bare him no children: and she had an handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar.” - Genesis 16:1. The word Hathor is made up of two parts. Hat means Mansion, or more specifically, Womb. Hor, means Horus. Thus, Hathor means Womb of Horus... literally. Depictions of Hathor such as the one being shown here are not depicting a human face. What we are in fact looking at, is a Uterus disguised as a half Human, half cow hybrid.

Hathor's ears represent ovaries. Here, we can see the Seed of the Woman, surrounded by sun rays of the male seed. It is a picture of conception. This is why Aaron created the Golden Calf specifically from earrings. The Israelites were worshipping the female reproductive system.

“And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.”

“And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.” - Matthew 25:46. This verse is often used to convince Christians that the Unsaved will experience horrible sufferings for an infinite amount of time. This is because the meaning of the verse has been deceitfully interpreted with a heavy and unbiblical bias towards the false conclusion that there are no second chances. However, if we interpret the verse through the lens of a God that is Merciful, Forgiving, and Loving, we discover its True meaning.

Matthew 25:46

“And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.”

Permanent Sentence

Not Physical Abuse

The Key to unlocking the real meaning of the phrase, 'Everlasting Punishment', is to understand that Everlasting Punishment has to do with judgement, and NOT physical abuse. In other words, God is handing out a sentence that will not be revoked. It is permanent and everlasting. God is not going to change his mind once the verdict is in.

Matthew 25:46

“And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.”

Permanent Sentence

SENTENCING

Not Physical Abuse

Temporary Punishment

Still Not Physical Abuse

We will use Little Johnny here as an example. Little Johnny receives a weekly allowance for being a good boy. One day Little Johnny was naughty. As punishment, Little Johnny had his allowance taken away from him for an entire month. This is what is called a 'Temporary Punishment'. In other words, the punishment is not everlasting.

Matthew 25:46

“And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.”

Permanent Sentence

SENTENCING

Not Physical Abuse

Temporary Punishment

Again, Not Physical Abuse!

One day Little Johnny was really, REALLY naughty. As punishment, Little Johnny had his allowance taken away from him for all of Eternity. This is what is called an ‘Everlasting Punishment’. In other words, Little Johnny will never receive allowance for the rest of his life. Note that nowhere in the story is Little Johnny subject to endless whipping, burning, beating, torture or physical abuse.

Matthew 25:46

“And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.”

Permanent Sentence

SENTENCING

Not Physical Abuse

Temporary Punishment

Again, Not Physical Abuse!

So why did Little Johnny's parents take away his allowance? You already know the answer. It was in the hopes that Little Johnny's behavior would one day be corrected and that the painful lesson Little Johnny learned would help make him a better person overall. This is what Matthew 25:46 is teaching. Everlasting Punishment is a means of CORRECTION and not 'infinite burning in a Lake of Fire'.

Matthew 25:46

Strong's Greek 2851: Kolasis
Definition: Correction

And with that Revelation, we can begin to pull away the wool that is over the eyes of Christians worldwide. The original Greek word for Punishment is Kolasis. The definition is Correction.

Strong's Greek 2851: Kolasis

Prison Planet

Correctional Facility

Thus, Everlasting Punishment is better understood to be a LOCATION. That location is here on Earth. In other words, our Earth is basically a Correctional Facility. A 'Prison Planet' if you will. We are here because we, like Little Johnny, were too naughty in a previous incarnation. We were given a Permanent Sentence by which our former selves were not eligible to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. We were subsequently thrown into the Lake of Fire and given a new name and new identity. A fresh start so to speak. Our main mission in life now is to be corrected of past errors and mistakes. Yes, that is the meaning of Life. Now you know. So, will we make it to Heaven this time?

Enter 'Into' Life Eternal

Pay close attention to the words, 'Into'. Both the Saved and Unsaved are going, INTO, a location. They are either going into a place that is Everlasting or a place that is Eternal. Again, it is the LOCATION that is infinite, not the state of being. This is important to understand since neither location requires that a Being existing in said location must stay in the same body for all of Eternity. The body in which One will reside in is optional. Think of the Angels that left their first estate. Those that exist in Heaven, it would seem, still have a choice as to which location they wish to reside in. Angels can, and will, fall. When they do, they incarnate as Children.

Kolasis = Pruning

Pruning Produces Fruit

Scholars also claim that the word, 'Kolasis', originally meant 'Pruning', which is what is done to a plant, or tree, for example to correct its growth. The Bible is of course replete with verses describing how God, 'prunes', branches and trees that bare no fruit.

John 15:2 - “Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.”

For Ever and Ever

Revelation 20:10

“And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.”

Lake of Fire

Infinite Torments?

“And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.” - Revelation 20:10. This is a very powerful verse used by the Church to make the case that those thrown into the Lake of Fire will spend an infinite amount of time being tormented in it. To the average reader that is unfamiliar with the concept of Reincarnation, this would appear to be an open and shut case.

Revelation 20:10

“And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.”

Lake of Fire

Infinite Torments?

Universalism

A Second Chance?

This is where the concept of Universalism comes into the picture. Universalists attempt to present the Christian God as a Loving and Merciful Entity by stating that this verse has been grossly mistranslated and or misinterpreted. They claim that the phrase 'for ever and ever' does not mean an Eternal or infinite amount of time, but rather a finite amount of time in which the Unsaved are ultimately reconciled.

Revelation 20:10

“And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.”

Lake of Fire

Infinite Torments?

Universalism

A Second Chance?

No Perpetual Torments

God is Love

Universalists recognize that something is not right about how the current Church describes the ultimate fate of the Unsavd. Perhaps the Holy Ghost is attempting to gently nudge them in the proper direction by revealing how unbelievably psychotic the notion of God ‘tormenting people to infinity’ is. The Universalist knows deep in their Hearts that God will somehow, some way, save all of Humanity one day. God is Love, and the Universalist views the Lake of Fire as a place of ‘Refinement’ and ‘Correction’.

Revelation 20:10

“And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.”

Unfortunately, the Universalist is just shy of winning a complete victory. If they would just walk through that final door of Illumination, they will find themselves in an unbeatable position to revive and save a dying Christianity. No longer will the Critics be able to argue the fallacy of a Loving God that hates and tortures billions of people to infinity and beyond. The Greatest Lie Ever Told would be relegated to the garbage bin of history where it belongs. If you are a Universalist that is watching this presentation, please give Reincarnation a chance. You are practically there already, and you will have most of the world on your side. It is a Win-Win situation.

Ages of the Ages

Let us now take a closer look at the phrase, ‘for ever and ever’. This is an important topic, and it is good for the average Christian to have a basic awareness of how this phrase has been understood over the centuries. The original Greek text from which this verse is translated from, reveals a deeper meaning. Note that this is not an attempt to retranslate the King James Bible to make it say something we want it to. By using the original Greek definition of, ‘for ever and ever’, we find that it can also be translated as ‘ages of the ages’.

Ages of the Ages

Strong’s Greek 165: Aion
Definition: a space of time, an age
Usage: an age, a cycle (of time), especially of the present age as contrasted with the future age, and of one of a series of ages stretching to infinity.

Deeper Meaning

If we look closer, we find that the word, ‘ages’, can mean ‘a space of Time’, a ‘cycle of time’, or even ‘a series of ages’ that could stretch to infinity. Why is this important? To answer this question, we must look at the context and overall Timeline in which this event is occurring.

Revelation 21:1

“And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.”

Heaven and Earth are Destroyed

No Day or Night

“And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.” - Revelation 21:1. When the Unsaved are thrown into the Lake of Fire, our current Earth and Universe are already ‘passed away’. In other words, this event is happening at a time when Day and Night no longer exist. The Sun, Moon, and Earth have been dissolved along with the entire Universe!

Revelation 21:1

“And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.”

Heaven and Earth are Destroyed

No Day or Night

“...shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever”

This begs the question... “How can the Devil, Beast, and False Prophet be tormented ‘Day and Night’ if there is no longer Day and Night?” Perhaps, One could argue, that the Devil, Beast, and False Prophet are being tormented in the New Heaven and New Earth. This could be the case if the New Heaven and New Earth had a Day and Night. However, the Word of God seems to have a different opinion on the matter.

Revelation 22:5

“And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.”

Heaven and Earth are Destroyed

No Day or Night

*“...shall be tormented

ever and ever”*

“And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.” - Revelation 22:5.
And there we have it. The New Heaven and New Earth has no Night. In addition, the Sun does not exist anymore. It has been replaced by the Light of God. So again, we ask... how can the Devil, Beast, and False Prophet be tormented ‘Day and Night’ if Night no longer exists? Have we discovered a contradiction in the Bible? No. The answer lies in the Lake of Fire and what it actually is according to Scripture and NOT the Church’s false interpretations.

Revelation 22:5

“And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.”

Cain's Seven Reincarnations

As stated previously, because so many stories in the Bible have not been taught with Reincarnation in mind, said teachings lack fundamental Key elements necessary to properly interpret Prophecy. The story of Cain and Abel is another example of this. Getting this story right is pivotal to understanding how the rest of the Bible unfolds, especially when it comes to End Time Events. So many answers to the toughest questions Christians are asked can be found, once the concept of Reincarnation is applied, to enigmatic verses.

Who is the Beast of Revelation?

What is the Mark of the Beast?

Who is Mystery Babylon?

What is the 'Way of Cain'?

What was the 'Mark of Cain'?

What is the Name of the Beast?

Questions like, "Who is the Beast of Revelation?", "What is the Name of the Beast?", "What exactly is the Mark of the Beast?", "Who is Mystery Babylon?", and more, are found in the story of Cain and Abel. What about the Mark of Cain? Does the Bible give us clues as to what it was? Yes. So many Bible Researchers close the Bible and look for answers elsewhere when the answers were there in the Bible all along. We will now look at the story of Cain and Abel through the lens of Reincarnation. Prepare to receive amazing Revelation!

Genesis 4:8

“And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.”

Cain Murders Abel

First Death After the Fall

“And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.” - Genesis 4:8. Here we are at the very first death after the Fall. Not just any death of course, but a murder. Not a good way for the Human Race to begin its journey. What the heck happened? Why was Cain so wicked?

1st John 3:12

“Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother’s righteous.”

Father the Devil

“Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother’s righteous.” - 1st John 3:12. Cain was, ‘of that Wicked One’, in other words, Satan. But in what sense? What exactly does it mean to be, ‘of that Wicked One’?

1st John 3:12

Seed of the Serpent

All Male Seed

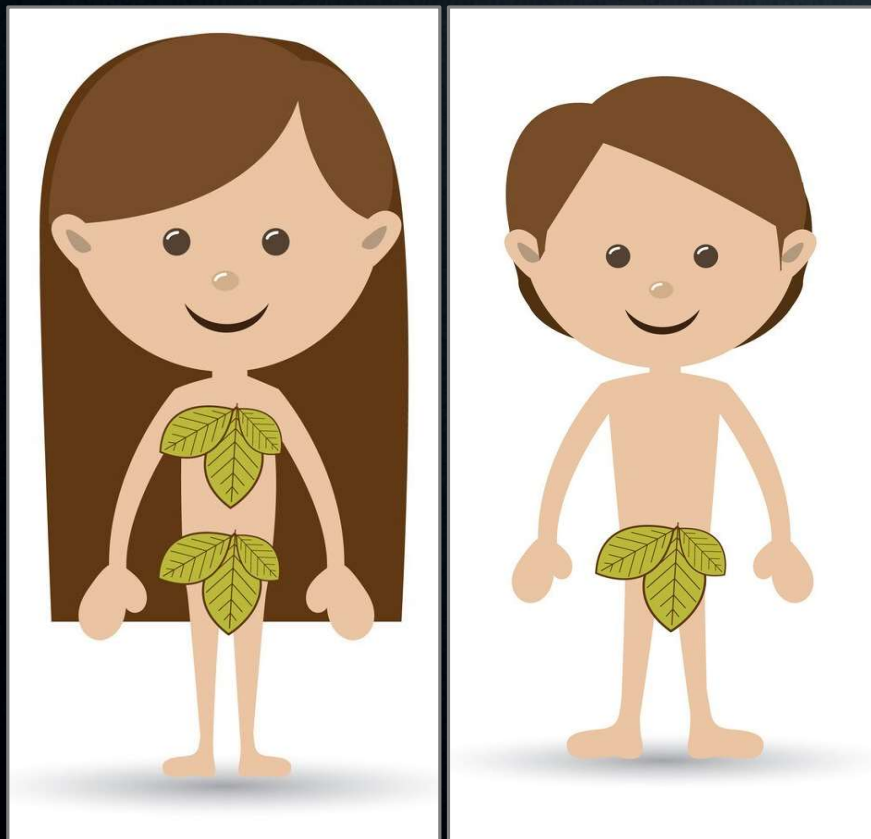

You already know the answer. Previously we learned that in the Garden of Eden, God turned Satan into the Seed of the Serpent. This is the same Seed that resides in the loins of all Male Humans to this very day. To be 'of that Wicked One' is to literally be of the Seed of the Serpent. Satan is the Earthly Father of the Human Race as it is now.

1st John 3:12

“Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother’s righteous.”

Eve and Adam 2.0

Reincarnated Bodies

We also learned how Adam and Eve were reincarnated after partaking of the Forbidden Fruit and experiencing the Second Death. God performed the Reincarnation manually by clothing the couple with the skin and flesh we have now. Reproductive Organs, originally meant for Beasts only, were added. What about Satan? What happened after Satan was turned into the Seed of Man? Did God eventually clothe Satan in a physical body as well?

John 8:44

“Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning...”

Eve and Adam 2.0

Reincarnated Bodies

Satan Reincarnates...

...as Cain

“Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning...” - John 8:44. We have our answer. Cain, the first Human ever born, was literally the very first Reincarnation of Satan! And, as we will soon find out, This would be the first of many to occur throughout Biblical History.

John 8:44

“Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning...”

Eve and Adam 2.0

Reincarnated Bodies

Satan Reincarnates...

An Inconvenient Truth

The Reincarnation of Satan into Cain would explain why the Occult World insists that Eve had intercourse with Satan to produce Cain. Although this is not Biblical, this ‘Serpent Seed’ theory is closer to the Truth than most Christians would care to admit. The Seed of the Serpent, a.k.a., Adam’s Sperm, had intercourse with the Seed of the Woman, a.k.a., Eves Ovum, which is the Seed of Mystery Babylon, our Earthly Mother. This ‘Marriage Supper’ (Moment of Conception) would produce the Murderer Cain. Not just Cain however, but a series of Antichrists that would Reincarnate again and again, with the help of the Earth Mother who loves to drink Blood.

Genesis 4:11

“And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother’s blood from thy hand.”

Earth Opened HER Mouth

Mystery Babylon Drinks Blood

“And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother’s blood from thy hand.” - Genesis 4:11. Once again we see how Mystery Babylon is Mother Earth who drinks the blood of those slain. Note that this is long before the Vatican and Papacy came into power. Do not be deceived into believing the False Doctrine that the Catholic Church is somehow the Harlot. All Churches and Denominations have problems with corruption according to the Word of God. Christians need to look in the mirror to see who the Harlots and Abominations are.

Abel is Sacrificed

Death Covenant

When we look deeper into what is being taught here, we find that Abel was a Human Sacrifice. Just as Abel's Living Sacrifice was done to gain the acceptance of God, in a similar manner, Cain's offering of Abel was a Living Sacrifice to gain the acceptance of the wicked bloodthirsty Harlot. A covenant has just occurred. A covenant with Death and Hell. This is the level of wickedness Christians must wake up to as you will have a similar fate. When the Mark of the Beast arrives, Christians will be sacrificed as the ultimate offering.

Cain Becomes the Beast

Beast Controlled by Harlot

The relationship between Cain and the Harlot would continue as Cain ultimately becomes the submissive Beast that the Harlot rides upon. Yes, CAIN is the Seven Headed Beast of Revelation. Many clues reveal this.

Revelation 13:17

“And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.”

‘Cain’ Means ‘Buy or Sell’

Strong's Number 7069: ‘Qanah’

Genesis 25:10

HEB: הַשָּׂדֶה אֲשֶׁר-קָנָה אַבְרָהָם מֵאֵת

NAS: Abraham purchased from the sons

KJV: which Abraham purchased of the sons

INT: the field which purchased Abraham the sons

Buy

Zechariah 13:5

HEB: כִּי אָדָם הִקְנִי מִנְעוּרִי :

NAS: for a man sold me as a slave in my youth.'

KJV: for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

INT: for A man sold my youth

Sell

“And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.” - Revelation 13:17. The name, ‘Cain’, in Hebrew is ‘Qanah’, and is Strong’s Hebrew Number 7069. According to many translations of this word, it can either mean, ‘buy’, as in purchasing, or it can mean, ‘sell’. In other words, Cain literally means, ‘to buy or sell’. Thus, the name of the Beast in the Book of Revelation is Cain. What about the Mark of the Beast? Could this Mark be related to the Mark of Cain?

Genesis 4:15

“And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.”

“And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.” - Genesis 4:15. There is so much going on in this verse that we must be careful not to read too fast lest we gloss over important details. Let us go step by step.

Genesis 4:15

“And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.”

Whoever Slayeth Cain

(Implies Cain Will be Killed)

The first thing we notice is the phrase, ‘whoever slayeth’, as in kill, or perhaps murder, Cain. This implies that Cain can and will be killed.

Genesis 4:15

“And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.”

Whoever Slayeth Cain

(Implies Cain Will be Killed)

Vengeance Taken

(Implies Judgment)

The next phrase, ‘vengeance shall be taken on him’, clearly states that whoever does kill Cain, some form of punishment will occur to Cain’s killer. If the verse ended there, we would conclude that Cain is eventually killed, and perhaps either God, or someone close to Cain, avenges Cain’s death. So far everything we have read is straightforward.

Genesis 4:15

“And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.”

Whoever Slayeth Cain

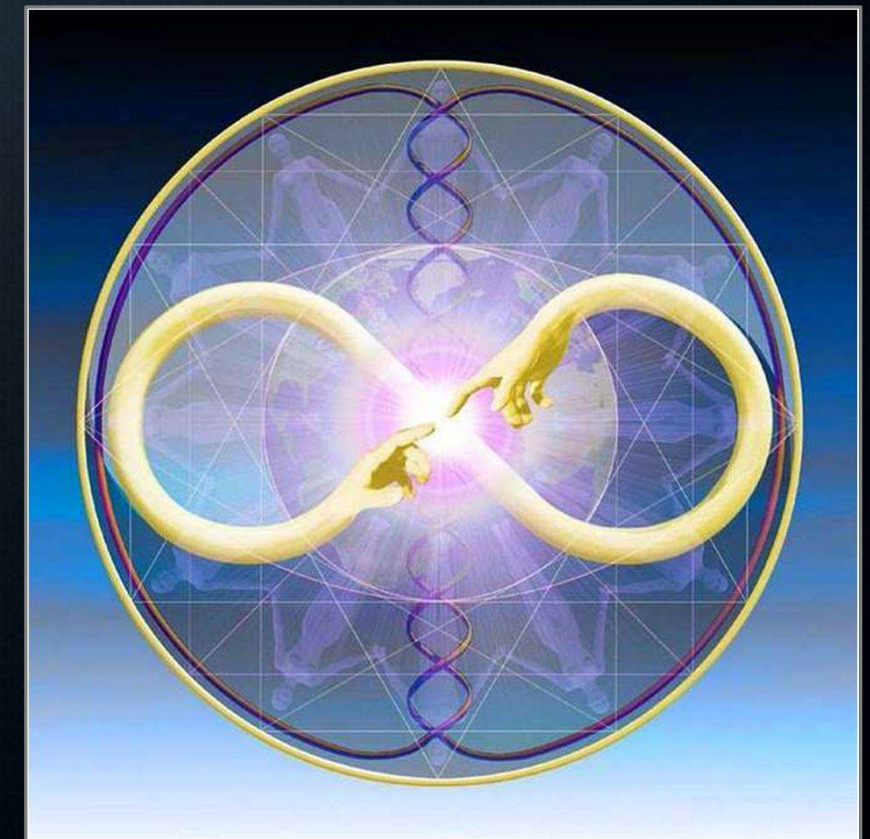

(Implies Cain Will be Killed)

Vengeance Taken

(Implies Judgment)

Mark of Cain

(Implies Divine Protection)

However, the verse then begins to contradict itself in a very peculiar manner. God sets a Mark on Cain to prevent anyone from killing him! If this is the case, then why go through all the trouble explaining how Cain's killer will be 'avenged sevenfold'? Clearly the Mark is intended to prevent Cain from being killed, thus any promise of vengeance would be a complete and total moot point. Worse still is the obvious conflict of interest. Abel was murdered. Where is the punishment? Having Divine Protection from God is not a form of punishment, it is a reward! What is the conclusion here? Will Cain be killed, or will Cain be protected?

Genesis 4:15

“And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.”

ALL OF THE ABOVE!

The answer is ALL OF THE ABOVE! How can that be you ask? If the Mark of Cain is a temporary form of Immortality, then all is made clear. The only thing Cain needs to do is to come back to life. Once that occurs, the verse makes perfect sense.

Genesis 4:15

“And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.”

ALL OF THE ABOVE!

The Mark of Cain is Temporary Immortality

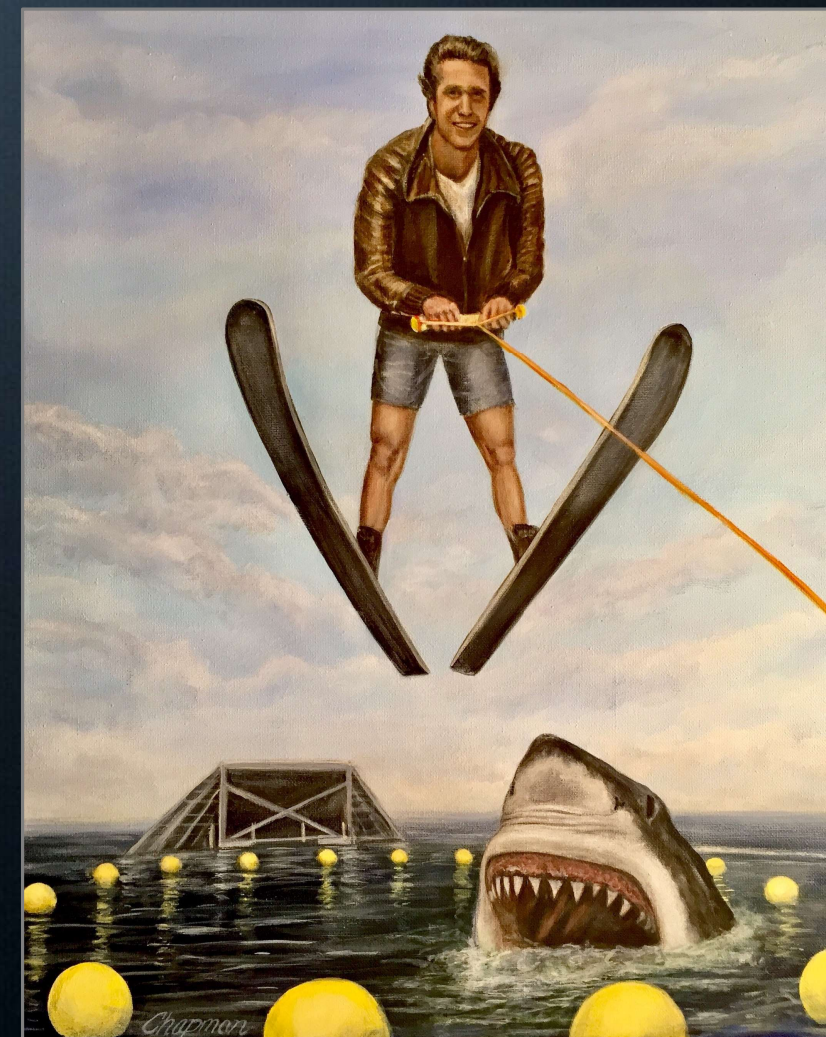

In other words, Cain is indeed able to be killed, however the Mark of Cain ensures that it is a TEMPORARY death. Now the punishment fits the crime. Cain WILL be killed for murdering his brother. That is the Law. Murderers shall be put to death. God is very clear on this. However, because this was such a grievous crime, God ensure that Cain would be killed repeatedly to make it plain to all that this was a despicable act. But wait. Hold on a minute. Seems the Mean Preacher wishes to interrupt our study with some more comments.

That's the dumbest thing I have ever heard!
Complete BLASPHEMY!!!

"That's the dumbest thing I have ever heard! Complete BLASPHEMY!!!" says the Mean Preacher. Indeed, the notion of someone, other than Jesus, being killed and coming back to life is a bit much. Perhaps we have 'jumped the shark' here. Maybe it is time we put this outlandish interpretation in the garbage bin.

Ah, but you know we will not let that happen. God, has us covered. Where else in the Bible is there a being who's deadly wound is healed?

Revelation 13:3

“And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.”

Head Wounded to Death

Deadly Wound is Healed

“And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.” - Revelation 13:3. And there we have it, a Beast who’s deadly wound was healed. Who is the Beast? Cain. And it does not end there. We have another Witness as to what happens to those that have the Immortal Mark of Cain.

Revelation 9:6

“And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.”

Men Seek Death...

...and Shall Not Find It

“And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.” - Revelation 9:6. This is as plain as can be. Those that take the Mark will experience a temporary form of Immortality. They will attempt to commit suicide, but they, like Cain, will find themselves coming back to life again.

Revelation 9:6

Let there be no doubt that those that take the Mark of Cain, the Beast, will have serious health issues in the future. Do not be deceived by miracle 'cure-alls'. Your DNA is your Soul. If you change your DNA; you change the very identity by which God knows you. This is unpardonable.

Genesis 4:15

“And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.”

Who Will Avenge Cain?

God or ???

So, who is it then that does the vengeance for killing Cain? If we look at every occurrence in the King James Bible for the word ‘Vengeance’, we find that it is the LORD that performs this act in almost every verse. Not in the case of Cain and his descendants, however. This is a very important point.

Lamech Avenges

Bragg of Murder

"And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice; ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt." - Genesis 4:23. Lamech was a descendant of Cain. And like Cain, Lamech carried on the tradition of murdering those he did not like. Here we see Lamech taking vengeance on someone for what appears to be a minor offense. Lamech then begins to brag about how he HIMSELF is the one that avenges.

Cat Out of Bag

“If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.” - Genesis 4:24. What Lamech just did was to let the Cat out of the bag as to who exactly does the avenging. Just as Cain avenged his own murderers, so too would Lamech. Somehow this secret was passed on through several generations. Lamech took it upon himself to claim God’s protection and mercy for himself. Scripture does not say whether Lamech also had the Mark of Immortality, however the concept is there and is preserved for all to see.

“And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.” - Revelation 17:11. The Beast of Revelation is the ‘Eighth’ and is ‘of the Seven’. This is one of his titles. Note also that Tubal-Cain is also the Eighth from Adam and is of the Seven. God seems to be hinting at something here. Some suggest that the word ‘Tubal’ means ‘World Economy’, a perfect link to Cain’s ‘buy and sell’ name. Thus, Tubal-Cain means, ‘To Buy and Sell, in the World Economy’.

Pre-existence

Job 38:4

Before Creation

“Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.” - Job 38:4. A Great Mystery to not only Christianity, but to Mankind itself, is whether we existed before we were born. The general term for this concept is called Pre-existence. If the answer is yes, then where, and in what state or form, did we exist in? Here we see God asking Job if he knows the answer.

Think!

Yes, or No?

Interestingly, Christianity generally rejects the concept of Pre-existence. This is a strange position to take considering that God himself is the One asking the question. Are we to assume that the answer is that Job did not exist, and that God asked a trick question? This is highly unlikely given what we have already learned in this Study. However, just to be sure, let us look at another verse to see whether Pre-existence is real or not.

The Trinity (of Baptisms!)

Another important Biblical topic relating to Reincarnation is the concept of Baptism. This is another area filled with debate and controversy. This is a sure sign that the missing piece of the puzzle is once again yet to be added to the equation. We will begin with the number of Baptisms mentioned in the Bible. Is there more than one?

Ephesians 4:5

“One Lord, one faith, one baptism.”

One Lord, One Faith

Three Baptisms in One

“One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.” - Ephesians 4:6. Ah yes. This is a Godhead or Trinity verse. In our Ezekiel’s Atomic Wheels study, we learned that the Godhead is a picture of the generic construct of the Atom. Three in one. Atoms are in us and through us. In a way, we have been Baptized into the Godhead. The Three that bear record in Heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost have an Earthly counterpart.

“I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:” - Matthew 3:11. Here, John reinforces the fact that there are indeed three types of Baptisms. In addition, John teaches us that the Baptism of Blood that we saw in 1st John 5:8, corresponds to something called the Baptism of Fire. More on that in a moment, but first let us go over the first two. Water and Holy Ghost Baptisms.

At least, that is what we are supposed to assume, and move on. Sorry Mean Preacher. We must let the Word of God speak for itself.

“That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.” - John 3:6. And there we have it. Jesus is equating, ‘Born of Water’, with, ‘Born of the Flesh’, or Natural Childbirth. In other words, the Baptism of Water that John performed, commemorated being born out of the Waters of the Womb. This Baptism also commemorates the time that Jesus visited us Prisoners in the Heart of the Earth, and preached repentance unto us, so that we may become saved. Remember? Look at what is being said in Ephesians, after the One Baptism verse...

“Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?” - Ephesians 4:9. Isn't that interesting? The One Baptism is in the context of Jesus descending into the Womb of Mary to incarnate. Three Baptisms in one. And it is in the Womb where Jesus gave gifts. Before Jesus ascended to Heaven, he went back into the Wombs of the Women about to conceive. He sprinkled the Blood on our Hearts to cleanse us of an evil conscious.

Spirits in Prison

“Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.” - Ephesians 4:8. Yes, the entire Human Race are the Captives being held by Mystery Babylon and Satan. We have all been in the Prison of the Reincarnation Cycle. This verse is not about leading Prisoners out of Abraham’s Bosom people. It is about rescuing us from the place of Torments and Lake of Fire. God is Love! And just what are these gifts God gave?

are so? "Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid." As, therefore, when the Scriptures are carefully examined regarding Jacob and Esau, it is not found to be unrighteousness with God that it should be said, before they were born, or had done anything in this life, "the elder shall serve the younger;" and as it is found not to be unrighteousness that even in the womb Jacob supplanted his brother, if we feel that he was worthily beloved by God, according to the deserts of his previous life, so as to deserve to be preferred before his brother; so also is it with regard to heavenly creatures,

<https://archive.org/details/complete-works-of-origen/page/n155/mode/2up>

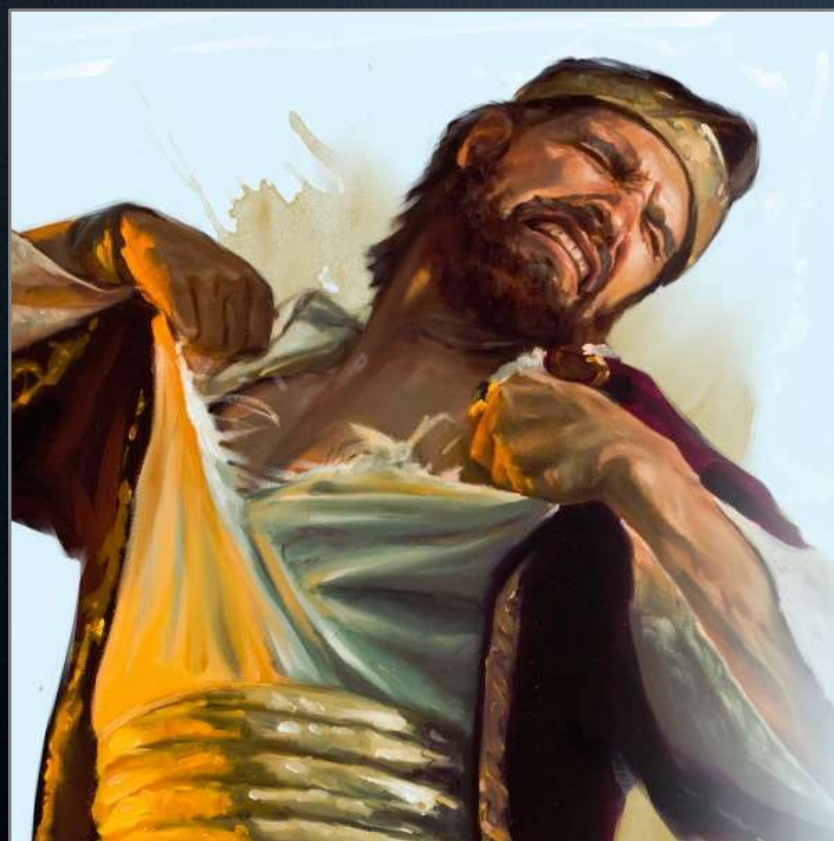

In book two of, De Principiis, in chapter nine, section seven, Origen uses the phrase, 'Previous Life', in connection with Jacob and Esau. Origen postulates that God loved Jacob, and hated Esau, based on how their lives were like before they were Reincarnated. Thus, God had a right to having these feelings before the two were yet born. This touches on an important topic we will cover later called, Eugenics. Origen most definitely believed that we existed before the Creation as we saw in the Book of Job. Speaking of Job, look at what he says about going back to our Earthly Mother's Womb.

Job 1:21

Feeling Hell-Bound

“And said, Naked came I out of my mother’s womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.” - Job 1:21.

Critics of Reincarnation will claim that the idea here is that we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. This idea can be seen in 1st Timothy 6:7. While this is True, there is something else being said here that we must not ignore.

Job 1:21

Job specifically states that he will RETURN TO THE WOMB. Job uses the word, ‘Thither’, which specifies a location, and NOT a state of being. In other words, being naked is a separate issue. Think of Adam and Eve being naked. There is more to the story here. Job was convinced he did something terrible and was going to go to Hell to be Reincarnated.

Born of Spirit is the same as Born of the Holy Ghost. This is an event that can happen at random, or it can be done by laying of hands. It is a very personal experience. And unless One commits the Unpardonable Sin, Salvation is guaranteed from that moment on, to those that receive this wonderful gift.

Last but not least is the Baptism with Fire. The Baptism with Fire is something that Jesus performs. This is sometimes incorrectly assumed to be a positive thing. For example, on the Day of Pentecost when a group of followers received the Holy Ghost, there appeared Cloven Tongues over their heads, and sat upon the Believers. These tongues acted like fire. Please note that this is not Baptism with Fire. There appeared 'TONGUES', not Fire. Tongues, and Fire, are two very different things.

These Cloven Tongues also represent the Power of the Holy Ghost. They received Power, literally. In our Ezekiel's Atomic Wheels study, we learned that the Power of the Holy Ghost is the same word as Electromagnetism we use today. This Power is sometimes represented as Light from Fire, Eyes, the Rainbow, the Glory of the Lord, the Light of Wisdom, etc. Perhaps the idea of the Halo can be associated with this as well. So then could the Baptism of Fire be Trials and Tribulations?

Simply put, a TRIAL is NOT the same thing as a Baptism. These are two completely different words with their own separate meanings and Eschatology. So, what is Baptism of Fire? John reveals it to us plainly.

Baptism of Fire is clearly referring to the Lake of Fire. The word Chaff is used many times in the Bible to describe the Unsaved as well as describing their ultimate fate. Thus, the Baptism of Fire is to become Born Again via the Lake of Fire. Note that it is here that the Christian is told the lie that the Baptism of Fire is not about becoming Born Again out of the Second Death, but rather infinitely existing in this Second Death state, never to inhabit another body again. Beware of this deception.

The Three Baptisms of Jonah

Now that we have had a preview of all three Baptisms, we can begin to learn how all three agree as one. A perfect example of this Trinity of Baptisms is the story of Jonah and the Great Fish. Before we turn to the Book of Jonah however, we should review the Three Baptisms through the teachings of Paul and the Book of Romans.

Romans 6:4

Resurrection

“Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.” - Romans 6:4. It is well understood by Christians that Baptism is a symbol of our partaking of the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. All three Baptisms are present in this verse. Baptism of Water represents the Burial of the Old Self, or Past Life. Baptism of Fire represents the Second Death, being in the Prison of Hell and Torments, and ultimately thrown into the Lake of Fire. Baptism of Spirit represents the Raising Up into Newness of Life. Born Again. Reincarnated. This time however, with a new purpose to serve the LORD.

Romans 6:4

#1) Buried with Him

Burial

Baptism with Fire

#2) Baptism Into 2nd Death

Resurrection

Because Reincarnation is not taken into consideration, Christians have great trouble understanding Paul and the Book of Romans. They are unable to see the complete process and as a result, one or more Baptisms are often left out of the equation. Thus, they may state that this verse and others like them are referring to Water Baptism only. Some, claim that Paul was referring to Spirit Baptism. The debates are never ending. We now know that this is the 'One Baptism', or 'One in Three', Trinity of Baptisms, of Water, Fire and Spirit. The debate is finally over.

Romans 6:4

“Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.”

“I Died”

“Alive from the Dead”

“Slew Me”

“I Found to be Unto Death”

“Made Death Unto Me”

“I Die Daily”

Ironically, Paul makes several rather obvious statements about having a past life and dying. So much so, it is almost comical. Paul literally said he died. He was slain. He was found to be unto death, and so on. Was he being literal? Let us now turn to the Book of Jonah for more clues.

Jonah 1:15

Water Baptism

Burial of Old Self

“So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging.” - Jonah 1:15. Jonah disobeyed God and was punished for it. In a similar fate to those thrown into the Lake of Fire, Jonah was cast into the Sea. This would represent Burial of our Old Self and Water Baptism.

Jonah 1:17

Belly/Womb

“Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.” - Jonah 1:17. By now, you should be seeing the obvious connections to everything we have learned so far. The Belly of the Fish represents the Belly, or Womb, of Mystery Babylon, the Earth Mother. More specifically, the Fish represents the Ovum in which Jonah was conceived into. Three days and three nights represents Jesus visiting the Prisoners that were once disobedient. That is where Jesus preached to them and gave them the gifts of a New Life.

Matthew 12:40

“For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale’s belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.”

“For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale’s belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.” - Matthew 12:40. There is your Baptism of Fire connection. Jonah was in Hell and in Torments. He was in Prison. Fire relates to Blood as Jesus sprinkled the Blood on our Hearts to cleanse us of an evil conscious.

Jonah 2:6

“I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.”

“I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.” - Jonah 2:6.
 Prison bars surrounded Jonah and then he was rescued. Jonah ‘passed through the fires’ of Vesta to be conceived in the Heart of the Earth. The Lord had brought him up from corruption. Baptized with Spirit and Born Again.

“By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison.” - 1st Peter 3:19. Did Jesus cast pearls to pigs and preach to those in Prison that would never be saved? Of course not. Preaching is done to those that CAN be saved. And just who were these Spirits?

1st Peter 3:20

“Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.”

Eight Souls Saved

“Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.” - 1st Peter 3:20. The Disobedient Spirits were the Unsaved that were killed in the Flood of Noah. Do you see the connection to Jonah here? Countless lives were cast into the depths of the Sea. A Baptism of Water and DEATH. How do we know it was a Baptism? Next verse please.

1st Peter 3:21

“The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ.”

“The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ.” - 1st Peter 3:21. Here is another incredible example of all Three Baptisms at work. Both the Prisoners that died, as well as Noah, and those on the boat, experienced the Baptism with Water. Note that the rain that fell, can also be likened to Water Baptism. The Prisoners in Hell, where Jesus preached, are a picture of Baptism with Fire. And finally, the Resurrection of Jesus Christ is a picture of the Baptism with Spirit. Everyone is saved in the end. Hallelujah.

Jonah 2:7

“When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.”

Conception in Tabernacle Ovum/Zygote

“When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.” - Jonah 2:7. Jonah’s prayer went into the Temple. Into the Tabernacle Zygote! Jonah the Prisoner had a Lawyer show up to give him counsel right there in the Most Holy Place. In the Heart of the Earth. Amen! And, as anyone who has studied the Temple Services knows, the Sprinkling of Blood comes after a Sacrifice. But who is the Sacrifice? Jonah continues.

Jonah 2:9

“But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.”

Sacrifice of Gehenna

Moloch/Lake of Fire

“But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.” - Jonah 2:9. If we consider the entire context of the story, we see that Jonah himself is the Sacrifice! Jonah will pay the price he has vowed. But what does this mean?

Romans 12:1

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.”

Sacrifice of Gehenna

Living Sacrifice

Born Again

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.” - Romans 12:1. There it is in black and white for all to see. The Saved are a Sacrifice. When did this Sacrifice happen? In the Lake of Fire before you were born. When does the ‘Reasonable Service’ begin? At birth. Jonah mentioned that he would pay what he vowed. What will be paid? He will pay for his previous life’s sins, reaping what he had sown in the form of serving the Lord in his New Life. In a way, Jonah was forced to be reminded of that promise he made, and his attitude changed from then on.

But wait, isn't Jesus the Sacrifice? Yes, and now you understand what 'crucified with him' means. Conception is the Earthly form of the Marriage Supper. Two becoming One. The Saved are joined *BEFORE BIRTH* with Christ in his Death, Burial, and Resurrection. They are Pre-Ordained to give Him their lives as a sacrifice to use for His purposes in their new life as a Christian here on Earth. Baptism simply commemorates what already took place in the moments before, and after, the Moment of Conception. The Saved are set-apart from the Womb where the gifts were given.

Jonah is Born Again

Three Baptisms in One

“And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.” - Jonah 2:10. It is finished. After experiencing all Three Baptisms, Jonah is now figuratively Born Again. Now we know what Jesus meant when he said...

John 3:7

"Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."

Jonah is Born Again

Three Baptisms in One

Choices: Stay or...

Leave the Prison Planet

"Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again." - John 3:7. The choice was there all along. Jesus has just demonstrated that the phrase 'Born Again' can mean more than one thing. One can choose to be Born Again of corruptible flesh, or One can escape the Reincarnation Cycle and leave this Prison Planet once and for all. Choose wisely!

Baptism with Pillars

Exodus 13:21

“And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night.”

Tabernacle Pillars

Baptism with Cloud and Fire

“And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night.” - Exodus 13:21. We have yet another amazing picture of the Three Baptisms as it pertains to the Tabernacle Zygote. It is the famous Pillar of Cloud, and Pillar of Fire, that guided the Israelites in the wilderness.

1st Corinthians 10:2

Baptism with Water

“And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea.” - 1st Corinthians 10:2. After learning about how the Flood of Noah and the adventures of Jonah related to Baptism in the Sea, this one should be easy. Moses leading the Israelites through the Red Sea would be a perfect fit for Baptism with Water. The Pillar of Fire would be a good fit for Baptism with Fire. What about Baptism with Spirit?

Exodus 40:34

“Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.”

Tabernacle Pillars

Baptism with Cloud and Fire

Crossing the Red Sea

Baptism with Water

Glory of the LORD

Baptism with Spirit

“Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.” - Exodus 40:34. Although the Cloud could be thought of as Water, there is a better interpretation. Think of Electron Clouds and how the Spirit of God was in the Wheels of Ezekiel. In the Old Testament, the Power of the Holy Ghost was often called the Glory of the LORD. Think Rainbow in the Cloud, and the Electromagnetic Spectrum. This would represent Baptism with Spirit. In a like manner to the Cloven Tongues of Pentecost, the Glory rested on the Ark of the Covenant.

Numbers 11:25

“And the LORD came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease.”

“And the LORD came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease.” - Numbers 11:25. This verse is another good Witness. The LORD came down in a Cloud and gave the Spirit to the Seventy Elders. This is a perfect example of Baptism with Spirit. Note that the Elders prophesied, reminding us of the Day of Pentecost when people spoke in tongues after they received their Baptism of Spirit.

The Reincarnation Portal

Portal Exit (Reincarnation)

Ark of the Covenant
(Nucleolus of Ovum/Zygote)

Remember what we learned earlier? This is all further proof that the Lake of Fire is a Portal. Baptism of Fire is the entrance from Heaven to Earth. Passing through the fire. Baptism of Water is the other side of the Portal where the Spirit of the Unsavd exits into the Zygote to become Born Again of corruptible flesh. The Two Cherubim represent our two strands of DNA in the Nucleolus of the Cell. Where was Jonah? He was in the Heart of the Earth, yet he was in the Sea Waters of the Womb of Mystery Babylon the Earth Mother.

Taste of Death

Mark 9:2

“And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.”

of Jesus

“And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.” - Mark 9:2. In the days before Jesus was to be crucified, he performed a very intriguing and unique miracle known as the Transfiguration. Not only did Jesus shine like the Sun, but he also brought two very special V.I.P. guests with him.

Mark 9:4

Moses

Elijah

Representing the Prophets

“And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.” - Mark 9:4. What in the world is going on here? Did Moses and Elijah come back from the dead? So many theories and heated debates surround this event. So much so in fact that some Churches flat out reject this verse completely. Why is that?

Mark 9:4

“And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.”

- Dead are Still Sleeping?

Moses

Representing the Law

Elijah

Representing the Prophets

Firstly, the Bible teaches that the dead are ‘sleeping’ until Resurrection Day. If Moses and Elijah were talking to Jesus, then obviously they are not sleeping. That would throw a huge Monkey Wrench into many verses describing those that have passed away, as being in a state of rest. Think of Abraham’s Bosom.

Mark 9:4

“And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.”

- Dead are Still Sleeping?
- Inhabiting Old Flesh and Blood Bodies?

Moses

Representing the Law

Elijah

Representing the Prophets

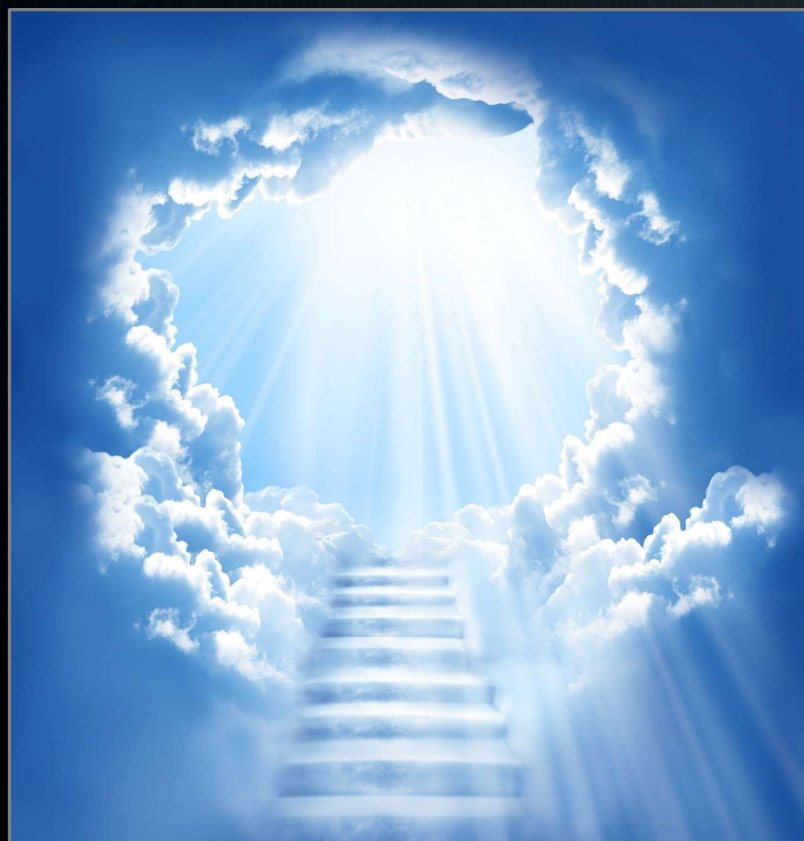

Secondly, some argue that Moses and Elijah appeared while still inhabiting their old, ‘flesh and blood’ bodies, as opposed to Glorified Bodies. Since flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God, we end up with even more problems. Indeed, something seems off here, and many Christians are left scratching their heads as to why. We will cover the meaning of Moses and Elijah soon. Before we do this however, we must first understand what the phrase, ‘Taste of Death’, means. Let us now go to the very first verse in this chapter.

Mark 9:1

“And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.”

Kingdom of God...

...arrives with Power

“And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.” - Mark 9:1. This is what Jesus said just six days prior to the Transfiguration. What an odd Prophecy this is. Many Christians believe that the arrival of the Kingdom of God is a future event. Therefore, if the Kingdom of God is still yet to come, how could those that lived thousands of years ago not ‘taste of death’ until it arrived? Are they still alive? This is yet another verse that causes great controversy.

Mark 9:1

Kingdom of God...

...arrives with Power

Transfiguration

of Jesus

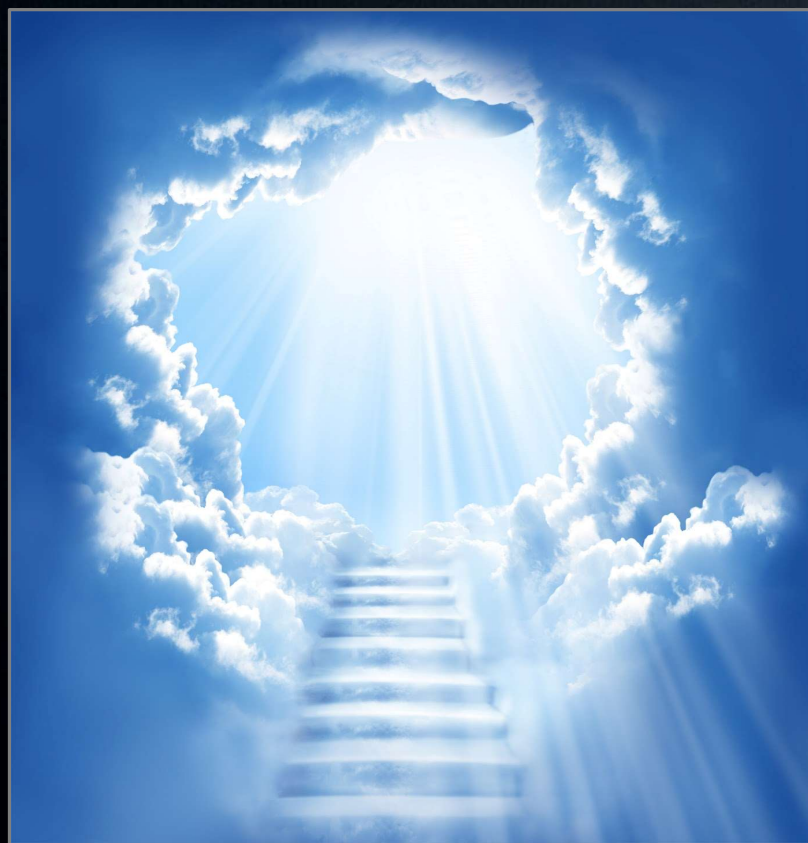

Some, try to solve the riddle by stating that the Transfiguration itself was the Kingdom of God arriving. However, as we saw in Mark 9:2, the Transfiguration happened only six days after Jesus made this announcement. Obviously, if Jesus predicted that those standing there would be alive six days later, that could hardly be considered a Prophecy. Anyone could make such a prediction and have it come true. In addition, there is a clear proclamation to the fact that after the Kingdom of God comes, some of those standing there would then die! In other words, in six days they will die. Strange. If we look at the parallel verse in Matthew, we see the problem clearly.

Matthew 16:28

“Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.”

Kingdom of God...

...arrives with Power

Transfiguration

of Jesus

Son of Man Coming

Still a Future Event

“Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.” - Matthew 16:28. Notice the phrase, ‘see the Son of Man coming’? How can the Transfiguration be about Jesus coming? Jesus was already there, as he was the one who took Peter, James, and John, to see the event! Obviously, the return of Jesus with the Kingdom was something that would take place, after, the Crucifixion, not before. Consequently, some believe that this Prophecy is indeed in reference to the Crucifixion itself, or perhaps, when the Temple was destroyed in 70 A.D.

Matthew 16:28

“Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.”

Kingdom of God...

Still a Future Event

Think!

What's Missing?

None of the proposed theories pass the ultimate test unfortunately. This is again, because Reincarnation has not been considered into the equation. We will now add this crucial Element, and all will be made plain.

Matthew 16:28

“Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.”

‘Taste of Death’

Means ‘Second Death’

The phrase, ‘Taste of Death’, is the Key to resolving the debate once and for all. Many Christians assume that, ‘Taste of Death’, is simply referring to the normal passing away of a Human Being into the Grave. That is incorrect according to the Bible. This false assumption is what keeps throwing the Workman off. The Truth is that the phrase, ‘Taste of Death’, is actually referring to the Second Death. In other words, the verse is referring to those that will ultimately be thrown into the Lake of Fire, and of course be Reincarnated afterwards. How do we know? The Word of God reveals all.

John 8:52

“Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.”

‘Taste of Death’

Means ‘Second Death’

The Saved Will Never ‘Taste of Death’

Spared from the Lake of Fire

“Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.” - John 8:52. Did you catch that? According to this verse, the Saved will never taste of death. But how can this be? We see Christians die all the time. Even the Jews knew that this statement was incredulous, yet there it is. Of course, what Jesus is revealing to us here is that indeed the phrase ‘Taste of Death’ is simply another way of saying Second Death. In other words, the Saved are spared this fate. How about another Witness?

John 11:26

“And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?”

‘Taste of Death’

Means ‘Second Death’

The Saved Will Never ‘Taste of Death’

Spared from the Lake of Fire

“And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?” - John 11:26. There it is again. So, believers never die? Obviously, the phrase ‘shall never die’, is speaking of the Second Death.

Hebrews 2:9

“But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.”

‘Taste of Death’

Means ‘Second Death’

The Saved Will Never ‘Taste of Death’

Spared from the Lake of Fire

Crucifixion of Jesus

Tasted Second Death

“But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.” - Hebrews 2:9. Now, this may be a difficult Truth to receive. If ‘Tasting of Death’ means to experience the Lake of Fire, then that would mean that Jesus himself somehow tasted of the Lake of Fire in order to save Mankind. This would make sense since Jesus is saving us from the Second Death, and not the first. Jesus did not ‘sleep’ for Mankind. Jesus DIED for Mankind. Notice what Jesus says at Gethsemane.

Matthew 26:39

“And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt.”

Cup of Gethsemane

‘Tasting’ is Literal

“And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt.” - Matthew 26:39. A point that is often made in these presentations, is that the LITERAL interpretation of the Bible is always the most revealing. Meditate on the phrase, ‘Taste of Death’, for a moment. Is it literal? Is there literally some sort of ‘tasting’ that is done? Most would consider it a figure of speech, however, look at what Jesus is saying here. There is a Cup in which there is something that Jesus must taste. Obviously, Jesus does not want to ‘partake’ of this Forbidden Fruit. Get it? You should know what this Cup is by now.

Revelation 17:4

“And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:”

Cup of Gethsemane

Literal

Cup of Mystery Babylon

Cup of Wrath

“And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:” - Revelation 17:4. From the First Adam to the Last Adam, the Forbidden Fruit of the Second Death has been tasted by all. Now we know that included Jesus. No wonder folks have such a tough time with these verses. Who can blame them? Let us not forget however, what was said in Genesis.

Genesis 3:22

“And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:”

Cup of Gethsemane

Literal

Cup of Mystery Babylon

Cup of Wrath

Forbidden Fruit

Cup of 2nd Death

“And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:” - Genesis 3:22. We already know that tasting and partaking of the Forbidden Fruit of the Knowledge of Good and Evil is the Second Death. It would seem this is something that even the LORD himself has done. The difference of course is that Jesus was authorized to do so while Adam and Ishshah were not.

Mark 9:1

“And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.”

‘Taste of Death’ Speech

Jesus with Apostles and Others

We have now come full circle here in our understanding. Some of those that were standing there with Jesus, including the Apostles, were going to experience the Second Death and be Reincarnated once again. Note that the verse has a double meaning.

Mark 9:1

“And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.”

‘Taste of Death’ Speech

Jesus with Apostles and Others

Rich Man in Torments

Lazarus in Abraham's Bosom

The first meaning is that the Unsaved will not be thrown into the Lake of Fire and ‘taste of the Second Death’ until the End Times as per Book of Revelation. They are currently waiting in Torments along with the Rich Man until Judgment Day.

Mark 9:1

“And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.”

‘Taste of Death’ Speech

Jesus with Apostles and Others

Rich Man in Torments

Lazarus in Abraham's Bosom

Twelve Apostles

Thrown in Lake of Fire?

The second meaning is that Jesus may have had one or more of his Apostles in mind when he made that statement. Could one or more of the Apostles end up in the Lake of Fire? Perhaps Judas will be one. But what if Jesus meant this as a good thing? Is that possible?

Genesis 3:22

“And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:”

What if there are others who are authorized to partake of the Forbidden Fruit in order to Reincarnate back into this world as a personal choice? In other words, what if there were Christians and even Apostles, who were Saved in Heaven, yet wanted to come back to help and serve? Is there such a thing as a Volunteer Mission? They would of course have to drink of the Cup of the Second Death once again. A sort of 'Baptism of Fire' if you will. Yes, Born Again of Fire. Look out. You are about to be hit with another Revelation. Are you ready?

The Two Witnesses

Mark 10:35

"And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire."

James and John

Brother Apostles

"And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire." - Mark 10:35. Well look who we have here. The same two Apostles that Jesus took to see his Transfiguration are now asking Jesus for a huge favor. There is a connection between these events of course. So, what is this request?

Mark 10:37

“They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.”

James and John

Brother Apostles

“They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.” - Mark 10:37. The audacity! The Apostles James and John were asking not only to sit on the right hand and left hand of Jesus, but in a way that they may not have understood, they were asking to be the Two Witnesses! Could it be? Are James and John going to be Reincarnated in the End Times to come back and serve the Lord one last time?

Mark 10:38

Baptism of Fire

"But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" - Mark 10:38. Look at that! The Cup of the Second Death is mentioned again. Even the word Baptism is there. Indeed, the Lake of Fire is one of the Three Baptisms. Again, it is the Baptism of Fire. To be Born Again of corruptible flesh. But why would James and John want to do this? They clearly have no idea what they are asking here.

Mark 10:39

“And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:”

Second Death

Baptism of Fire

“And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:” - Mark 10:39. Wow! This truly is a difficult Revelation to receive. There really is only one correct way to interpret that verse. Both James and John will experience the Second Death once again. Is there more?

Mark 3:17

“And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder:”

James and John

Brother Apostles

“And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder:” - Mark 3:17. Interesting. We seem to have a clue here as to whether James and John are going to be Reincarnated as the Two Witnesses. A ‘Son of Thunder’ is a code we must decipher.

Born Again

“And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.” - Luke 10:18. Once again we see Spirit as Electromagnetism. The Spirit of Satan fell from Heaven to the Pit, to the Lowest Parts of the Earth, to the Womb to be Born Again. Talk about Baptism of Fire. Where else do we see Thunder mentioned during the End Times?

Revelation 10:4

“And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.”

Satan's Spirit Falls

Born Again

“And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.” - Revelation 10:4. Seven Thunders means seven Reincarnations. Seven times the Lightning Spirit fell from Heaven. Seven heads of the Beast and Dragon. The thunders cried like a Lion roareth. It really does appear that those in Heaven have the choice to come back, for better or for worse. So, who was told not to write? It was John the Apostle. The Son of Thunder. It was at that moment that John was preordained to taste of the Second Death by way of a Little Book.

Revelation 10:10

Born Again

“And I took the little book out of the angel’s hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.” - Revelation 10:10. The Little Book contained the sweet Word of God, However, it was bitter because it contained lamentations, and mourning, and woe, as per Ezekiel 3:3. In other words, the Little Book contained the Wrath of God. It is another representation of the Cup of the Second Death. The Forbidden Fruit. Once John had eaten it, we all know what comes next.

Revelation 10:11

“And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.”

“And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.” - Revelation 10:11. It is now official. The verse is clear. The Church has great trouble with this verse, but we know exactly what it means don't we? John will Reincarnate in the End Times to prophecy one last time. This is done by entering the Tabernacle Ovum of course. The Body Temple. The Heart of the Earth in the Womb of Mystery Babylon.

Revelation 11:1

“And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.”

John Measures the Saved

“And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.” - Revelation 11:1. This verse is so Revealing. John is asked to *RISE*. Was John Risen from the dead? Meditate on that word. Look at where he is. He is in the Temple Zygote! Sounds like John the Apostle just Reincarnated to become one of the Two Witnesses.

Revelation 11:1

“And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.”

John Measures the Saved

The Saved Rest Under the Altar

Note that others are there inside the Altar. More specifically, they were under the Altar. That is code for the Loins of the Father. Abraham's Seed. These are the Saved waiting to become Born Again. It is almost as if John is checking for GMO contamination, i.e., the Mark of the Beast. Separating Wheat from Tares.

John 21:20

“Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?”

What About John?

“Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?” - John 21:20. We have another clue as to whether John the Apostle will Reincarnate in the future. In this verse, we see that Peter is noticing John following as he walks with Jesus. Peter had just learned that he would become a martyr and die for following Jesus. Peter then asks Jesus what will happen to John. Jesus says something so astonishing; it has baffled Christians ever since.

John 21:22

“Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.”

What About John?

John Measures the Saved

“Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.” - John 21:22. Look at that! Jesus is alluding to the fact that John may somehow still be alive during the End Times when Jesus returns. Why in the world would Jesus say such a thing? This response blew the minds of those around so bad; it became part of everyone’s gossip at the time.

John 21:23

“Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?”

What About John?

Two Witnesses

“Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?” - John 21:23. Everyone interpreted the word of Jesus to mean that John would never die, however this verse seems to imply that John would die. Thus, whether John the Apostle was taken by a Whirlwind like Elijah into the future to die as one of the Two Witnesses, or whether John died long ago only to Reincarnate again is not certain. One thing is certain however, John will somehow, some way, make another appearance before the return of Jesus. The Student will have to decide how this will occur.

Revelation 11:3

"And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth."

John

The Baptist

John

The Evangelist

"And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth." - Revelation 11:3. And there we have it. Compelling evidence that John the Apostle is one of the Two Witnesses. It is not clear if James is the other Witness as Ezekiel ate of the Little Book as well. Will it be Ezekiel and John? James and John? John and Elijah? John and John? Time will tell. In a separate study, we will learn how the Two Olive Trees are a picture of the Moment of Conception, when the Two Sticks become One Chromosome. The Candle Stick is a representation of DNA.

He is Risen

Mark 9:4

Moses and Elijah Return?

And with that, we can segue into the Mystery of Moses and Elijah. All the previous verses now fit seamlessly together to tell a story of Reincarnation. That is what the Transfiguration was all about. Jesus was teaching us about Reincarnation. Yes, just as the Two Witnesses will be brought back from Abraham's Bosom, the Two Men next to Jesus were brought back from their Heavenly Rest on a Volunteer Mission to help spread the Gospel yet again! Are you blown away yet? Is this too much? Wait until you hear who these Two Men were reincarnated as. You better be sitting down for this.

He is risen. Indeed, Christians all over the world know of the One who died, only to rise again. He is loved by many. Truly he has risen. This Man needs no introduction, but we will give him one anyhow. His name starts with a 'J'. Yes, you know who we are talking about. Put your hands together, and give it up for, the One, the Only...

John the Baptist?

John the Baptist! Wait, what? Why John the Baptist? Oh, you thought this was about Jesus? You didn't know that John the Baptist too was risen from the dead? Let us hear it from God.

Matthew 11:11

“Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.”

John the Baptist

Elijah Reincarnated?

“Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.” - Matthew 11:11. How many times have you read that verse and not noticed the word ‘Risen’ there? You know what that word means right? Of course you do! It means to rise from the dead, and yet there it is being used on someone other than Jesus. What is going on?

Mark 6:16

“But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.”

John the Baptist

Elijah Reincarnated?

‘Risen’

Means What it Means

“But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.” - Mark 6:16. Many verses in the Bible speak of John the Baptist ‘rising from the dead’. This should not be brushed off and disregarded. Clearly, God wishes for us to put our thinking caps on and meditate on this riddle. We must go back to the Transfiguration and the immediate context thereof.

Matthew 17:4

“Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.”

Transfiguration

of Jesus

“Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.” - Matthew 17:4. Never let a word in the Bible slip past you when reading a verse. See the word ‘Tabernacles’? Why did God feel it necessary to include this information? You know what the Tabernacle represents now.

Matthew 17:4

“Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.”

It is the Zygote of Jesus as well as the Zygote of Reincarnation. God is connecting it with Moses and Elias. Were they Reincarnated? Is that why they were brought back? What was the conversation about immediately following this event?

Elijah Already Came!

But How?

“But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.” - Matthew 17:12. The conversation was about Elias returning. However, Jesus enlightens the Disciples by stating that Elias had already come!

Matthew 17:13

John Baptist

Elijah Reborn

“Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.” - Matthew 17:13. And there we have it. One of the most obvious verses in the Bible regarding Reincarnation. This is coming from none other than Jesus Christ Himself. The LITERAL Power and Spirit of Elijah had Reincarnated in the form of John the Baptist. PERIOD. Read it for yourselves...

Luke 1:17

It is LITERAL!

“And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.” - Luke 1:17. Do not ever let anyone take the literal interpretation away from you! You have every right in the world to understand the Word of God in this manner. Spirit and Power are TANGIBLE and QUANTIFYABLE. Not only did John the Baptist come in the SAME Spirit as Elijah, but John also retained the POWER, the WISDOM, the GLORY, the CLOVEN TONGUES, the ELECTRON CLOUD, the RAINBOW, and even the personality, of Elijah! And where did this happen?

Luke 1:15

IT happened BEFORE BIRTH. John the Baptist was Pre-Ordained to become GREAT! The GIFT was given in the Womb, remember?

Pre-Ordained Before Birth

“And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers.” - Ephesians 4:11. This is Truth! Amen. And if that was not enough, we find that John the Baptist even shared the same personality as his former self. He wore the same clothes and ate the same food as Elijah.

Matthew 3:4

“And the same John had his raiment of camel’s hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.” - Matthew 3:4. Similar descriptions of Elijah may be found in Scripture. In fact, there are many similarities between John the Baptist and Elijah. Too much to be a mere coincidence. It is as if John was sent from Heaven by God Himself.

“There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.” - John 1:6. See that? The proof keeps adding up. John was sent FROM God, not by God. However, there is a verse that seems to contradict all of this. In the interest of fairness and transparency, we will now review it.

John 1:21

Representing the Prophets

“And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.” - John 1:21. John the Baptist is asked twice, point blank, if he was Elias. John answered “no” both times. So, is that it? Do we simply take John’s word and move on? No. Jesus has the final say in the matter.

Elijah

Representing the Prophets

“And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come.” - Matthew 11:14. That is as clear and concise as can possibly be. The phrase, ‘This is Elias’, can be interpreted in no other way than exactly what it says. Notice that Jesus said, ‘if ye will receive it’. No doubt Jesus knew that Reincarnation is a difficult Truth for many Christians. There are many reasons why John the Baptist answered no. He may have feared for his life, or perhaps John did not realize that he was the Reincarnation of Elijah. Most of us do not recall our past lives, so why should John? The bottom line is that the Student of Scripture must choose to believe either John or Jesus. Choose wisely.

Matthew 11:14

“And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come.”

JOHN SAID NO!!!

Do not let the Church have the final say on this matter by claiming “John said no, so that settles that”. Again, Jesus said “THIS IS ELIAS”. The matter is settled by the only One that can settle it. It is finished.

Matthew 11:14

“And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come.”

Fairness

Transparency

As we continue our John the Baptist study with fairness and transparency, we find yet another verse that must be included.

“Who Am I the Reincarnation of?”

“When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?” - Matthew 16:13. What a curious thing for Jesus to ask. It sounds as if Jesus is asking his Disciples who the people of that time thought he was the Reincarnation of. Meditate on that for a moment. If Reincarnation is a false teaching as so many claim, then why bring it up as if it were not? And just listen to the replies...

Matthew 16:14

“And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.” - Matthew 16:14. Can you believe it? They answered as if they themselves believed in Reincarnation. There was no hesitation or pause. Was it a trick question? Did Jesus rebuke them? No. It would seem rather apparent that Reincarnation was a very common belief at that time. What changed?

Was Paul Moses?

Moses and Paul, the Apostle

The crucible out of which both men were forged is amazingly parallel. And to the spiritually discerning, the unmistakable signature of the Master Potter is indelibly etched upon their lives.

<https://israelmyglory.org/article/moses-the-prophet-paul-the-apostle>

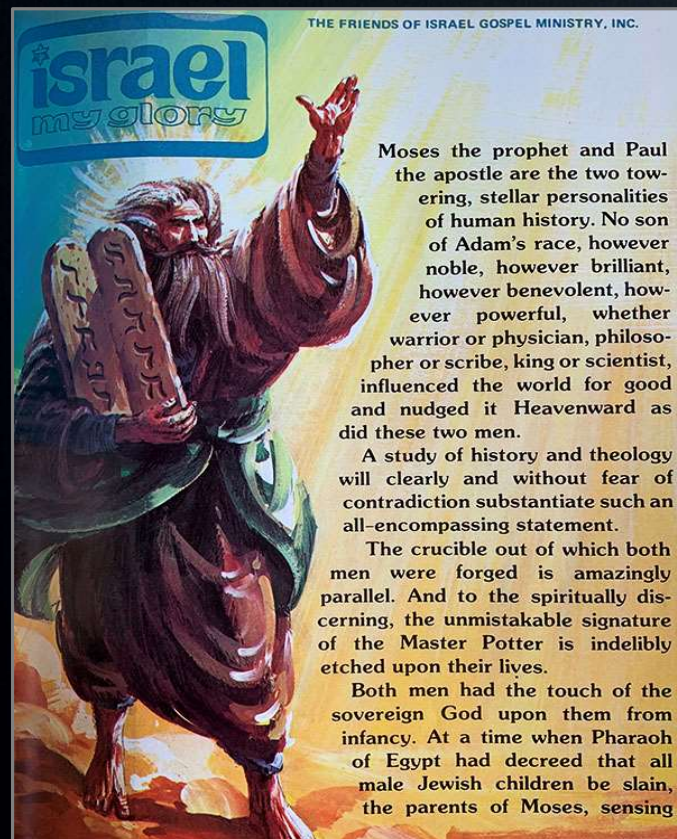

It is common knowledge to Scholars that Moses and Paul the Apostle have much in common. In the August/September 1982 edition of 'Israel My Glory', there is an article about this very subject. Here is a quote. "The crucible out of which both men were forged is amazingly parallel. And to the spiritual discerning, the unmistakable signature of the Master Potter is indelibly etched upon their lives." Just as John the Baptist was a type of Elijah, Paul was a type of Moses. Both Moses and Elijah were at the Transfiguration.

2nd Corinthians 3:18

“But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.” - 2nd Corinthians 3:18. The Greek word for, ‘Transfigured’, is the same word used here in this verse as, ‘Changed’. The Saved are changed into the same image as the Lord. If this is the case, then why didn’t Moses and Elijah Transfigure at the same time Jesus did? It is as if Jesus is teaching us that the two Men next to him were not ready for that particular change just yet. Only Jesus.

“Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.” - Jude 1:9. One of the biggest Mysteries of the Bible is why Michael the Archangel, and the Devil, disputed about the body of Moses.

the Body of Moses

God Buried Moses

Why?

Adding to this Mystery is the fact that God Himself buried Moses after he died! What a curious thing to do. Some suggest that this was done so that the body or tomb of Moses would not be worshipped. Perhaps. But what if Reincarnation was added to the equation? What if Michael and the Devil argued about Moses being Reincarnated? Some believe that God raised Moses back from the dead, after the burial, in a similar way to Lazarus. This would explain why Moses appeared in the same body during the Transfiguration. Note that Elijah never died but was taken in a whirlwind.

Jude 1:9

“Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.”

Transfiguration

of Jesus

It would be very easy then to imagine Moses and Elijah being teleported to the Mount of Transfiguration to watch the event while still in their very real, very original, and very alive bodies. Note that Teleportation is not a foreign concept in the Bible.

Acts 8:39

Teleportation

is Biblical!

“And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.” - Acts 8:39. Philip was teleported from one place to another. And thus, this same mechanism could have transported Moses and Elijah into the future. Is this a wild theory? Maybe, or maybe not. The Student of Scripture will have to decide.

Moses Became Paul

“For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.” - Romans 7:9. Was Paul alive long ago as Moses when he received the Ten Commandments in Mt Sinai? If we take the phrases, “Was Alive”, and, “I Died”, literally, then the answer indeed would be, yes. Again, understanding that Paul was alluding to his past life as Moses is crucial to understanding the Book of Romans.

Romans 7:9

“For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.”

“I Died”

“Alive from the Dead”

“Slew Me”

“I Found to be Unto Death”

“Made Death Unto Me”

“I Die Daily”

Again, Paul loved to coin phrases about being dead, only to come back to life again. Try reading the books that Paul wrote again with the thought that Paul is literally referring to our past lives. See if the verses make more sense. Verses like Ephesians 2:1. “And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins.” Are you brave enough to take the verse literally? Were you called before being Conceived in your Mother’s Womb to become Saved? Were you Baptized in the Lake of Fire Reincarnation Portal?

“But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother’s womb, and called me by his grace.” - Galatians 1:15. Once again we have another Testimony to the fact that the Saved are chosen before birth. Paul had no idea until he was much older. This is how it works.

Apollyon the Restrainer/Eugenicist

Revelation 9:11

“And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.”

Abaddon/Apollyon

‘Good’ King/Angel

“And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.” - Revelation 9:11. There is a mysterious character in the Book of Revelation named Apollyon. Some believe this is Satan or some sort of ‘Wicked Angel’. However, when we read about the function of Apollyon, we find that Apollyon is in fact a, ‘Good Angel’, that works for God to destroy that which is wicked, hence the name which means ‘Destruction’.

Revelation 9:4

“And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.”

“And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.” - Revelation 9:4. Apollyon is the King who gives a command to a horde of Locusts to hurt only those that do not have the Seal of God, in other words, to hurt only those that have the Mark of the Beast. If Apollyon were Satan, then why would Satan attack his own kind? Clearly Apollyon is on God’s side here.

“And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.” - Matthew 10:28. Apollyon is the one who is authorized to destroy One’s very SOUL. As stated previously, a Soul is a Lifeform’s Genetic Sequence that lives on after death. Destroying the Soul leaves just the Spirit to return to God who gave it. This is where the topic of Eugenics comes in.

A more ‘modern’ word would be Eugenics.

How Dare You!

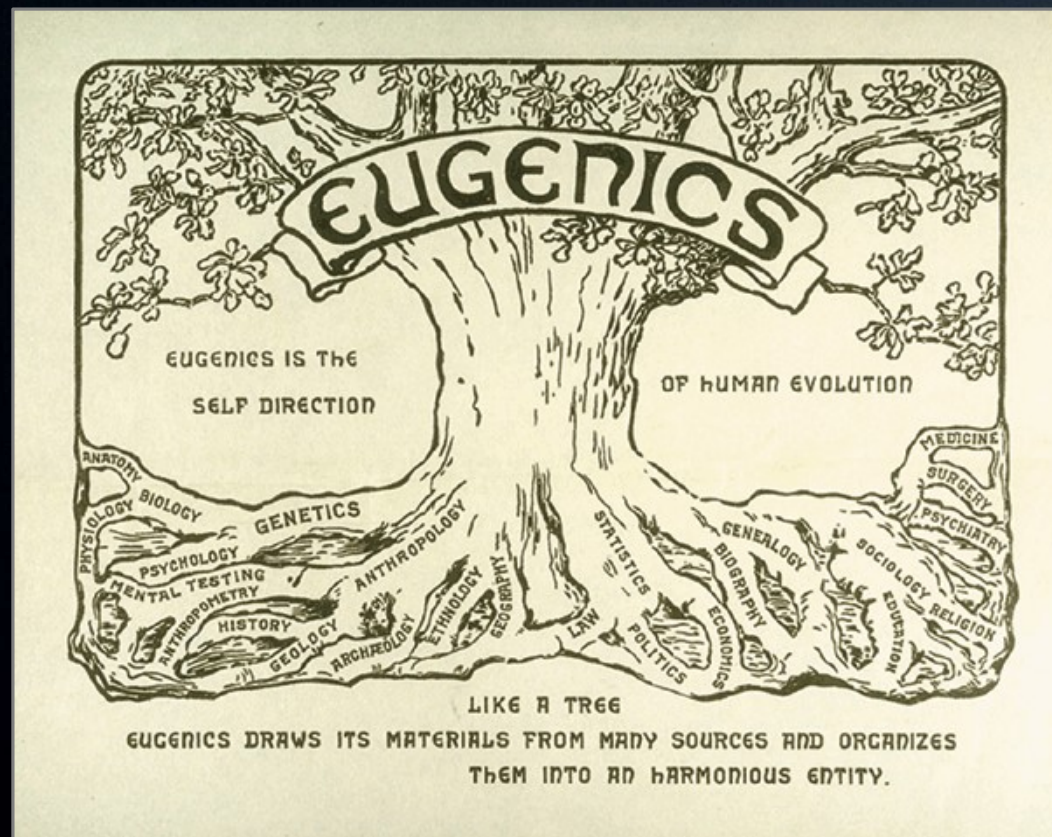

Does this word offend you? If so, you may want to consider what this verse, and many like it, are teaching. The ultimate goal of God is to transform the Genetics of all life on the planet to one that is more 'suitable'. This means DESTROYING life that does not meet the standard criteria for Salvation, while SAVING life that does. Enter Apollyon, Master Eugenicist.

The process of Gene Editing is done via the Baptism of the Lake of Fire and the sprinkling of Blood in the Zygote. It is a subtle addition to the recipe of Conception. A slight tweaking of the Genome if you will, to insert the 'God Gene' into the Preordained. Perhaps the title of Alchemist could be added as well to Apollyon's resume. An Abominable Branch of RNA is thrust through with the Sword of DNA. It is cast into the Pit of the Womb to wear a new Raiment. Sulphur refines the Silver once again. Crucified with Christ. It is finished.

Seven Purifications

“The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.” - Psalms 12:6. How many times will the Dragon be Reincarnated? Seven times? For what purpose? The purpose is to ‘try’, and to ‘burn’, the Genetics of the Human Race, until the goal of purification is reached. Separating Wheat from Tares is only part of the process. Further refinement is necessary to fulfill God’s purpose. This is something that only God can do with fairness and mercy. We have one more head to go. In order to accomplish this, Apollyon must be temporarily relieved of duty so that the fullness of Satan’s DNA can incarnate without destruction.

Sadly, the average Christian will insist that Reincarnation is found nowhere in the Bible, while it is continually right in front of their face.

Abaddon the Alchemist?

Wikipedia:

“In the homily by Timothy, Abaddon was first named Muriel, and had been given the task by God of collecting the earth that would be used in the creation of Adam. Upon completion of this task, the angel was appointed as a guardian.”

Lead into Gold?

For those interested in research material outside of the Bible, we have this intriguing snippet from Wikipedia. “In the homily by Timothy, Abaddon was first named Muriel, and had been given the task by God of collecting the earth that would be used in the creation of Adam. Upon completion of this task, the angel was appointed as a guardian.” If this is True, we would have Smoking Gun evidence that Apollyon plays a role in the Genetics of Humans as well as their protector. Think of the Flaming Sword and Cherubim guarding the Tree of Life or attacking the Unsaved in Revelation. More research is needed here.

Hebrews 11:28

“Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.”

Angel of Death and the Seder-Masochism

The DNA of the Saved is the Preferred Genome

“Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.” - Hebrews 11:28. There are some who suggest that the Destroying Angel that killed the firstborn in Egypt was none other than Abaddon/Apollyon. This would make sense as we can see how the Blood of the Lamb plays a role here. Apollyon is commanded to ‘Passover’ and hurt not those with the Seal of God, i.e., the Blood above the Doors.

Nucleolus of Ovum/Zygote

Will it be possible for Earthly Geneticists to one day determine who is Saved and who is Unsaved by analyzing One's very DNA? Are the Locusts, that come out of the Carbon 6 6 6 smoke of the Bottomless Pit, Genetically Modified Organisms? How would they know, who has the Seal of God, and who has the Mark of the Beast? Something in their DNA perhaps? Is there currently a plan to remove the God Gene from the Human Race? Meditate on these things.

Odds & Ends

We could do this all day and examine even more Scripture proving once and for all that Reincarnation is one hundred percent Biblical. There is still so much to explore. Perhaps another time. For now, we will end this study with a few Odds & Ends to meditate on.

Hebrews 11:35

“Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:”

‘Better Resurrection’ Means Second Chance?

“Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:” - Hebrews 11:35. Some believe this verse is referring to Reincarnation. What do you think? Did some Reincarnate to obtain a ‘better resurrection’?

Acts 13:48

“And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.”

Calvinism

Close to Truth?

“And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.” - Acts 13:48. Are Calvinists on to something? Although the Calvinist idea of infinite suffering and torments does not align with Reincarnation, some Calvinist concepts do align. So much controversy, so little time.

Romans 8:30

“Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.”

Predestined

Saul/Paul

“Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.” - Romans 8:30. The word ‘Predestinate’ may mean more than the average Christian realizes. Seems everyone has a little piece of the Puzzle.

Ephesians 1:4

“According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love.”

Chosen Before Creation

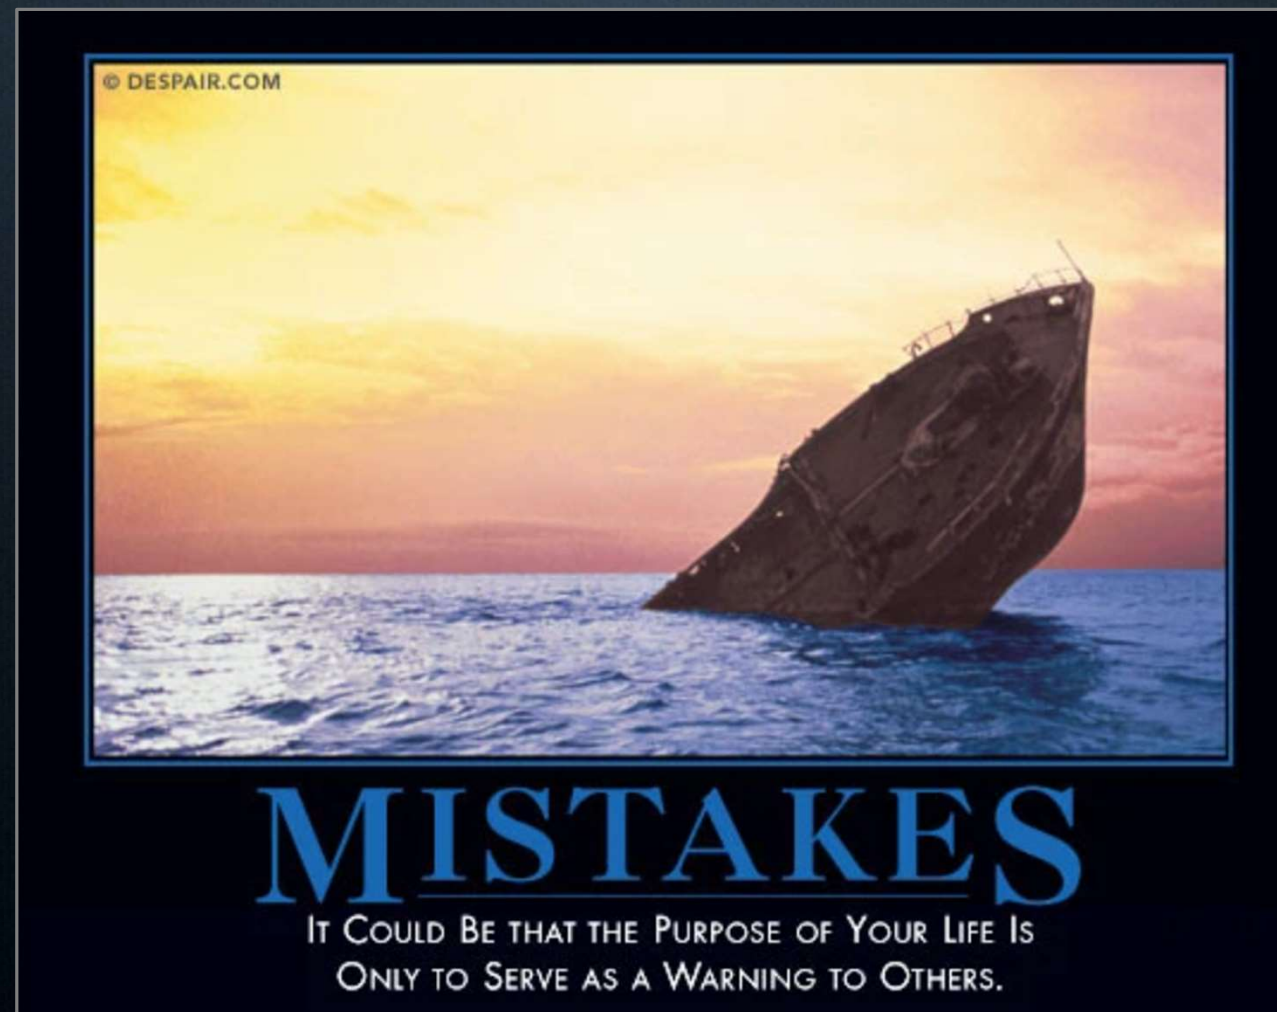

When Morning Stars Sang Together

“According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love.” - Ephesians 1:4. How much more obvious can pre-existence be? We were chosen before Creation, when we, as the Morning Stars, sang together.

Romans 9:22

“What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction.”

Fitted to be Thrown in the Lake of Fire

“What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction.” - Romans 9:22. Imagine being Reincarnated, over and over, just to serve as a warning to others. Now, THAT is Hell. Do not be that person.

John 1:51

“And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.”

Jacob's Ladder

“And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.” - John 1:51. In what way are these Angels ascending and descending? Is this Reincarnation or something else?

The Hermetical Triumph

Occultists have known about the link between Reincarnation and the Lake of Fire for quite some time, although it is generally kept very secret. This image is from a book entitled, the Hermetical Triumph. It was created in the early 1700's and is highly Alchemical in nature. When we compare the symbols shown to Human Anatomy and Scripture, something incredible happens. A Great Mystery is revealed before our very eyes.

The Hermetical Triumph

"The great cave of metals remains hidden; it is the stone of the venerable Hermes." reads the engraving. The entire piece is an occulted diagram of a Uterus during the moment of conception. At the bottom, there is a lake burning with fire, representing the Yoni. The two caves, or 'Sides of the Pit', represent the Ovaries. This is all a picture of Reincarnation, with an emphasis on the child becoming a great King, or ruler. Perhaps even the Antichrist. Will the Restrainer be taken out of the way for this?

Zechariah 9:11

“As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.”

Prisoners Escape the Reincarnation Cycle 'Pit'

“As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.” - Zechariah 9:11. Since you know what the Pit is now, you know who the Prisoners are. Indeed, the Unsaved are given another chance.

1st Corinthians 15:22

“For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.”

Universal Reconciliation?

“For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.” - 1st Corinthians 15:22. Do you believe that All means All? Will all of Mankind be saved in the end? This would be Good News indeed!

Conclusion

Brahma and the origins of caste

Caste Systems

It is time to end this presentation. Before we do however, we must reiterate that God is Love. We, as a Human Race, must learn to Love as well. This is especially True when it comes to Reincarnation. The Christian teaching is different from say a Caste System such as what One would see in Hinduism or other 'isms'. Let us now learn about the Man who was blind from birth.

John 9:2

“And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?”

Jesus Heals

Blind Man

“And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?” - John 9:2. Jesus is asked why this particular Man was born blind. Notice one of the choices given. Did the Blind Man commit a sin before being born? How could this be possible without Reincarnation? The disciples are literally asking Jesus if the Blind Man committed a sin in a previous life and is now paying the ‘Karma’ for it. Does this mean we should regard people born with disabilities as ‘they got what they deserved’? Should we treat them with disdain and keep them in low positions of society? The Word of God gives us the answer.

John 9:3

“Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.”

Blind Man

Preordained to Glory

Better Resurrection

“Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.” - John 9:3. And there we have it. The Blind Man was Preordained to be part of God’s Plan of Salvation. It was a Volunteer Mission to suffer for the greater good. The Blind Man did not ‘get what he deserved for sinning’, but rather he was obtaining a better Resurrection. We should not judge a book by its cover. The final verse for us in this teaching sums it up best.
